Clinton K. Chamberlain's contact information does not remain the same given his move to another university within the University of Texas system. "Formerly coordinator for electronic resource acquisitions at UT Austin, I'm now coordinator for information resources at UT Arlington. In my new position I oversee collection development and acquisitions (serials, electronic resources, monographs), as well as preservation.

Another man who has moved is Adam Chesler, who writes, "I'm the new director of content for the American Society for Training and Development." ASTD (based in Alexandria, VA), established in 1943, is the world's largest association dedicated to workplace learning and performance professionals. Adam adds, "We provide resources for learning and performance professionals, educators, and students — research, analysis, benchmarking, online information, books, newsletters, training guides, and T+D, our monthly magazine. I'll be managing the teams responsible for acquiring and publishing all that content."

Adam may now be reached at:

July 2009 found Kate B. Moore moving into a tenure-track position at Indiana University Southeast. Kate reports, "My title at IUS is coordinator of electronic resources/assistant librarian. Previously I worked as a staff member in the Serials Acquisitions Unit at the Herman B. Wells Library, Indiana University Bloomington, and graduated with my MLS from IUB in May 2009." Kate also took over as the PDF editor of the

NASIG Newsletter, and was one of last year's NASIG Student Award winners.

Allow your faithful column editor to offer his congratulations and to state that Kate may be found at:
