NASIG Communication

Everyone is using social media to communicate and NASIG is no exception. NASIG now uses several different avenues to allow members to get NASIG news and interact with each other. The table below outlines the different communication and social media tools that NASIG currently employs. More information is provided on the NASIG website. And if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Electronic Communications Committee.

Option	How it's used
Email blast	The NASIG Executive Board and committees can use this to send one-way email messages to NASIG members. There is no way to reply to these blasts.
NASIG-L	The electronic discussion list for NASIG members.
Website Discussion Forums	Online discussion forums for NASIG members (must log into NASIG site to access). Contact ECC to set up a new discussion.
NASIG Blog	The blog for NASIG membership. Anyone can read it, but only NASIG members can post to it.
NASIG Jobs Blog	A separate blog focusing on job postings for serials and e-resources-related positions.
NASIG @ Flickr	NASIG uses this site to store and share photos from the conferences and other activities.
Twitter	NASIG uses Twitter to extend NASIG blog and newsletter announcements to the Twitterverse (or is it Twittersphere??). Anyone can tweet using the #NASIG hashtag.
Facebook	Get on Facebook and follow announcements, start conversations, and post interesting news to NASIG Facebook followers (you need a Facebook account).
LinkedIn	Another avenue to follow NASIG news and connect to members (you need a LinkedIn account).
