FOREWORD

We hope this brochure on Clemson football, simply a condensed booklet with the latest “poop” on the Tigers, will prove helpful to you during the 1949 season. We do not expect it to answer all of your questions, merely to whet your desire to ask them.

THE COVER
The cover shows Ray Mathews, the Tigers’ youthful back, who will be the main cog in Clemson’s single wing offense this fall. He led the Conference scoring last season with 13 touchdowns, is now a junior at Clemson, is married, and hails from McKeesport, Pa. Statistically speaking, he averaged 5.7 yards per try in 113 running attempts last year, caught 14 passes for 379 yards, and added another 169 yards via 5 pass completions out of 19 attempts.

THE HEAD COACH . . .

FRANK HOWARD

The 1949 football season marks Coach Frank Howard's tenth year as head coach of the Clemson Tigers. He came to Clemson in 1931 as the Tiger's line coach under Jess Neely, and it was in 1940, when Neely pulled stakes to settle at Rice Institute in Texas, that Howard took the reins as chief mentor.

Born at Barlow Bend, Ala., on March 25, 1909, Howard spent his early days on a farm—playing cow pasture baseball at every opportunity. The folks around Barlow Bend took very little interest in football those days, and even if they had gotten the fever, there would not have been enough youngsters around the general store to get up a game.

The fall of 1927 found him bound for Tuscaloosa with most of his worldly goods in a hand grip and a gleam in his eyes that meant stiff opposition for whoever had a monopoly on Alabama's guard position. Coach Wallace Wade (then at Alabama, now at Duke) sent Howard into his first game against Mississippi State as a sophomore. He played as a reserve that year, and as a junior stepped into a varsity berth, starting all games but two this second year. An injured ankle barred him from those two.

With the arrival of the 1930 campaign, great things were forecast for Alabama football. The gigantic sizes of the linemen prompted newspapermen to forget the nickname, "The Crimson Tide" in favor of a new inspiration, "The Red Elephants". At 185 pounds, Howard went quietly to the task of retaining his regular position among those mammoth linemen. He was the one hitch in the nickname, "Red Elephants", until an enterprising writer came up with the "Little Giant", manufactured exclusively for Howard. Throughout the year, Howard was the "Little Giant" of the "Herd of Red Elephants". The team swept through an undefeated season and capped it by defeating Washington State, 24-0 in the January 1, 1931, Rose Bowl game.

Howard's top honors as head coach at Clemson came in the 1948 season when, after leading his Tigers through an undefeated year, he was acclaimed top coach of the Southern Conference by the League's sports writers and fourth in an AP poll in the nation. Final rise to success came with the defeat of Missouri in the January 1, 1949, Gator Bowl game in Jacksonville.

Here is Howard's career record as a head coach:

THE ASSISTANT COACHES . . .

BOB JONES
A standout Clemson football and basketball star of the years 1928-30 and generally considered one of the finest ends in Clemson history, Bob Jones joined the coaching staff as end coach upon graduation here in 1930. Entering the Army in 1941, Jones spent 12 months in the ETO, won the Silver Star, Bronze Star, Purple Heart and Combat Infantryman's badge. He held the rank of lieutenant colonel when discharged in 1946. Jones is also head coach of the golf team. He now commands the 323rd. Inf. Regt. as full colonel with headquarters at Clemson. Married, he has three daughters.

COVINGTON McMILLAN
A Clemson gridiron star of the 1928-30 era, "Goat" McMillan spent four years coaching at Griffin, Ga. High School and three years at Furman University before joining the Clemson staff in 1937. Entering the Army in 1942, McMillan spent six months in Korea and Japan. He held the rank of captain when discharged in 1946. He is the Tiger's exponent of statistics. He is married and has two girls and a boy.

RUSS COHEN
Clemson's newest addition to its varsity coaching staff is Russ Cohen, former athletic man at Louisiana State University and an assistant to Wallace Wade, when the present Duke mentor was at Alabama. Cohen came to Clemson in 1947 from Virginia Military Institute where for ten years he had been backfield coach. During off-season, he operates a large farm in Waynesboro, Ga.

WALTER COX
A regular guard on Clemson's 1939 Cotton Bowl team, Walter Cox stepped out of a first string position with the Tigers into a job on the coaching staff. Called into the Army in 1942, Cox spent 12 months in the Fiji Islands, New Caledonia, and Guadalcanal, and held the rank of first lieutenant when medically discharged in 1943. He serves as baseball coach in the spring, besides bearing the trials and tribulations that go with the job of ticket manager. He and the Mrs. have two boys.

BANKS McFADDEN
His play on the 1939 Tiger team placed "Bonnie Banks" on the Associated Press All-American football team and on Chuck Taylor's All-American basketball team. Upon graduation in 1940, McFadden played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers and led in ground gaining. He entered the Army in 1942, spent 33 months overseas and was a major at the time of his discharge. In the winter, McFadden is Clemson's basketball coach. Married, he has two girls.
A. W. NORMAN

Considered one of the greatest and most versatile athletes in the history of Roanoke College, "Rock" Norman came to Clemson in 1940 as freshman football, varsity basketball and track coach. Norman will assist with Clemson's freshman football squad this fall and will direct the track cindermen next spring. During the summer, he is in charge of teen-age youngsters at a Boys' Camp in North Carolina.

CARY COX

Replacing Walter Tilley, former Iptay seerter, is Cary Cox, 1947 outstanding football center and captain of the Tigers. Young Cox, who this past summer married a former honorary cadet colonel of the ROTC unit, pretty Miss Betty Barton, assists with tutoring the freshmen, both football and baseball hopefuls, when he is not on the road seeking financial backers for the Tigers' Iptay program.

THE PROSPECTUS

Laconic Frank Howard feels that Clemson cannot hope to repeat its outstanding 1948 season, which gave the Tigers a 14 consecutive game win, the longest ever held by any school in the Southern Conference.

The Tigers piled up 3,466 yards afoot and via the air last year, and were held to an insignificant 1,949 yards by similar means. Many critics unjustly accused the "Country Gentlemen" of South Carolina of having an unimpressive schedule.

Clemson will once again tackle this similar group of teams, and has managed to add another opponent, Rice, dropping the Citadel. Should the Tigers get by the majority of their '49 opponents undefeated, surely the most critical observer would be inclined to relent and give credit where credit is due.

It will be on the shoulders of the most experienced of the Tigers, End John Poulos, Center Gene Moore, and Backs Ray Mathews and Fred Cone, that the Tigers place their hopes for another great season. The opinions of those who will lead Clemson's aggregation, both coaches and players, appear extremely conservative, but tempered with optimism.

Bluntly, the 1949 team, as Howard says, cannot possibly do a repeat performance on the eleven that extended their undefeated record from three games in the '47 season into a victory over Missouri in the January 1, Gator Bowl game. The Tigers can't afford to do much pre-season talking about their '49 eleven. The team has a lot to live up to, but a great example of team play, ability, and the will to win has been set for them.
The ten teams of barbed wire strength that will be thrown against Clemson when the season gets underway will all have the same goal—to defeat the undefeated. How long the Tigers can remain such a matter for time to decide.

Clemson's shortcomings can be bundled into one sentence: lack of manpower at guards and tackles. The wisdom and ability found in such players as All-Southern Frank Gillespie and huskies Tom Salisbury, Phil Prince, and Ray Clanton, all first team members last season and of whom none will be around this fall, cannot be replaced in one year.

To fill these gaps, Howard plans to promote Jack Cox and Dan DiMuCCi to first-string guards, improve massive Luke Deanhardt as tackle, and convert End Bob Hudson into the other tackle.

If Howard in his tenth year as chief mentor for the Tigers, can do that by the season's opening, he is truly the "All-time coach of the Southern Conference."

The center berth is probably the most secure of the forward wall positions, with team captain Gene Moore as number one man.

John Poulos and Glenn Smith, the latter a product of the Nation's capital, and only a sophomore, will likely handle the flanks.

The pride of Clemson will be the backfield. Ray Mathews and Fred Cone remain from last year's famous foursome of Gage, Martin, Mathews and Cone, and will be supplemented by Jackie Calvert, Carol Cox, Dick Hendley and Wyndie Wyndham.

That's how Howard's '49 outfit stacks up—a powerful running and passing attack with 22 lettermen on hand, all gazing toward the vacant tackle and guard berths, hoping for a miracle that will give Clemson another miracle team.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Robert Franklin Poole became president of Clemson in 1940, succeeding the late Dr. Enoch Sikes. Born in Laurens County, S. C., December 2, 1893, Dr. Poole graduated from Clemson in 1916, and obtained his PH. D. degree from Rutgers in 1921. He spent 17 months in France and Germany with the Aerial Photography Service during World War I. He was with the plant pathology branch of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station from 1920 through 1926. Dr. Poole went to North Carolina State College in 1926 and remained there until he accepted the Clemson presidency in 1940.

CLEMSON ESTABLISHED

On November 27, 1889, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina drew up an Act of Acceptance of the will of Thomas Green Clemson authorizing the establishment of Clemson as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of this state.
LOCATION AND SIZE

Located in the northwestern corner of South Carolina, thirty miles from the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains, Clemson has grown from an institution with 446 students when it opened its doors in 1893 to the present day peak of 3200. The campus proper embraces 1646 acres. This is exclusive of hundreds of acres scattered over the state as a part of the experiment stations.

WAR RECORD

Clemson has been a military (ROTC) all male institution since its beginning. More than 6,000 former Clemson students served in the armed forces during World War II, and 365 are known to have paid the supreme sacrifice.

GRADUATES

During the past fifty-six years, more than 26,500 students have studied at this Land Grant college, and its graduates number more than 8,000.

EDUCATIONAL DIVISIONS

The College's main divisions include the Schools of Agriculture, Engineering, Chemistry, Arts and Sciences, Vocational Education, and Textiles. Graduate work can be obtained in most of the Schools. The Department of Military Science and Tactics offers Reserve Officer training in Infantry, Ordnance, Air Force, Signal Corps, Armored Cavalry, Engineering and Quartermaster.

THE SENIOR PLATOON

The Clemson College Senior Platoon, one of the finest fancy drill units in the world, appears during the halves of many football games on the Clemson schedule. This drill unit has gained national recognition from exhibitions in New York City, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Charlotte, Greenville, Columbia, Charleston, Jacksonville, New Orleans, Memphis, Dallas, and other prominent cities throughout the South.

Traditionally, the Platoon has had a glorious eighteen year history. It was organized by students in 1931 for the purpose of stimulating an interest in drill among the cadet leaders, thereby creating the desire among junior cadets to increase the proficiency of their drill and to give the public a fine example of the Clemson Cadet Corps.

Since its founding, being a member of this colorful organization has become one of the most coveted positions on the Clemson campus. Today it is composed of forty-three seniors, each a Cadet leader in his own right, but working together with the harmony and precision required for near-perfection. Now, more than ever, the Platoon is gaining a greater number of followers with each public appearance.

A member of the SIAA Conference, P. C. took the championship in 1931 and 1941 and has been runner-up for the state title seven times. In 1946, of eight state teams P. C. had the best season, winning seven games while losing only to Clemson and The Citadel. Since 1941 the head coach has been Lonnie McMillan, an exponent of the "T" formation. The dean of Palmetto coaches, Walter Johnson, is Athletic Director. We should see plenty of action from the Blue Hose when the Tigers meet them for their opening game. This is the eighteenth consecutive time the Tigers have opened with P. C.

Location: Houston, Texas

The head coach of this Southwestern Conference team left Clemson after leading the Tigers to the Jan. 1, 1940 Cotton Bowl game. The Owls expect this season to be their best year of intercollegiate football, with 20 seniors returning, and lettermen in every position. Operating from the man-under slot in Coach Neely's "T" are three fine passers, Tobin Rote, Vernon Glass and Harmon Carswell. Pre-season reports indicate a good defensive team for the Owls, with emphasis being placed on passing and punting.

1949 Schedule:

Oct. 8 New Mexico U.
Oct. 15 So. Methodist
Oct. 22 Texas U.
Oct. 29 Texas Tech
Nov. 5 Arkansas U.
Nov. 12 Texas A. & M.
Nov. 19 Texas Christian
Nov. 26 Baylor

Series Record: No games played to date.
North Carolina State College (Wolfpack)
Oct. 1 at Raleigh — 8:00 p.m.
Coach: Beattie Feathers (Tenn. '33)
Publicity Director: Ed Storey
Colors: Red and White
Enrollment: 5,598 (coed)
Location: Raleigh, N. C.

State's attack may again lack close order position, for the tailbacks run small and the fullbacks, Jim O'Rourke and Dick Johnson, have yet to be pinched for speeding. The sophomores should be able to help. Certainly the Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner of last year, Bob Bowlby, will help offset the negative side of the ledger. Up front, the medicine man has already given his note of tribal approval. In the middle the Wolfpack asks for nothing . . . three deep in lettermen at each of the five positions.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 24 North Carolina U.
Oct. 1 Clemson
Oct. 8 Davidson
Oct. 15 Duke
Oct. 22 Maryland
Oct. 29 Virginia Tech
Nov. 5 Richmond
Nov. 12 Wake Forest
Nov. 19 Villanova
Nov. 26 William and Mary

Series Record: Total games played 25. Clemson won 17, lost 7, tied 1.

Mississippi State College (The Maroons)
Oct. 8 at Clemson — 8:00 p.m.
Coach: Arthur W. Morton (L. S. U. '37)
Publicity Director: Bob Hartley
Colors: Maroon and White
Enrollment: 3,125 (coed)
Location: State College, Miss.

Located in the rolling hills of Northeast Mississippi's prairie region, just a few hours drive from the most distant point in the state is Mississippi State College, largest institution of higher learning in the Magnolia state.

The college is located approximately two miles from Starkville, a town of 8,000 population.

It's strictly a rebuilding project for the Maroons. Under Coach Morton they are transferring from the single formation to the "T". Thirty-six of the 54 players on the varsity squad are from Mississippi. State is expected to take two or three seasons before they are back in the big time.

1948 Schedule:
Sept. 24 Tennessee
Oct. 1 Baylor
Oct. 8 Clemson
Oct. 15 Cincinnati
Oct. 22 Alabama
Oct. 29 Tulane
Nov. 5 Auburn
Nov. 12 Louisiana State

* Lettermen
South Carolina (Gamecocks)
Oct. 20 at Columbia — 2:00 p.m.
Coach: Rex Enright (Notre Dame '26)
Publicity Director: A. W. "Red" Ballentine
Colors: Garnet and Black
Enrollment: 4,000 (coed)
Location: Columbia, S. C.

Offensively speaking, the Gamecocks, Clemson's chief rival not only on the gridiron, but in off-season securing talented pigskin prospects, should have a fine looking organization that can offer plenty of flash and deception for the fans. A fine array of backfield stars who boast plenty of experience should be hard to stop.

The "Enrighters", as in past seasons, will use the strict "T" formation with little if any variations. Enright plans to use the two platoon systems, but as is the situation with Howard at Clemson, he hopes he can get one platoon on the field.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 24 Baylor
Sept. 30 Furman
Oct. 8 North Carolina U.
Oct. 20 Clemson
Oct. 29 Maryland
Nov. 5 Marquette
Nov. 11 Miami (Fla.)
Nov. 19 Georgia Tech
Nov. 26 Wake Forest
Dec. 3 The Citadel

Series Record: Total games played 46. Clemson won 29, lost 15, tied 2.

Wake Forest (Deacons)
Oct. 23 at Clemson — 8:00 p.m.
Coach: Douglas C. Walker (Howard College '31)
Publicity Director: Tom Bost, Jr.
Colors: Gold and Black
Enrollment: 1,800 (coed)
Location: Wake Forest, N. C.

Talk around the Southern Conference centers on the football ability of little Wake Forest College, soon to inherit some of the Reynolds Tobacco millions. Coached by the Colorful "Pea-head" Walker, this eleven is Clemson's sixth foe of the season. The Deacons are blessed by one of the greatest collections of sophomore talent ever seen in the Conference, and they suffered no serious losses from the thrice-beaten aggregation of '48.

John "Red" O'Quinn, number one pass receiver in the country, is expected to do a repeat performance with plenty of backfield help from Bill Gregus, hard-running Wake Forest halfback. Clemson anticipates the Deacons to hurl against them probably the toughest eleven on their ten-slate schedule.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 17 Duquesne
Sept. 24 So. Methodist
Sept. 30 Boston College
Oct. 8 Georgetown
Oct. 15 North Carolina U.
Oct. 22 William & Mary
Oct. 29 Clemson
Nov. 5 Duke
Nov. 12 North Carolina St.
Nov. 26 South Carolina

Series Record: Total games played 15. Clemson won 8, lost 7.
Boston College (Eagles)
Nov. 5 at Clemson — 2:00 p.m.
Coach: Dennis E. Myers (Iowa '30)
Publicity Director: Alex McLean
Colors: Maroon and Gold
Enrollment: 4,100 (men)
Location: Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Denny Myers, the coach who believes in his boys and dares to admit it, retaliates to put the two platoon system to scorn with three complete elevens. This '49 aggregation may be the greatest Eagle array since Frank Leahy's 1940 B. C. team.

Bellwether of the team, the big beam for the high flying Eagles hopes is Ed Songin, who completed 21 passes against Clemson for 298 yards last year and his final pass tabulations gave 83 completions out of 164 for the season.

Myers is an attack minded gentleman...his teams have yet to be blanked in six Boston seasons and Clemson can be well wary of this aggregation, whose rivalry first began in the Jan. 1, 1940 Cotton Bowl Game.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 23 Oklahoma U.
Sept. 30 Wake Forest
Oct. 8 Penn State
Oct. 14 Mississippi U.
Oct. 21 Georgetown
Oct. 28 Villanova
Nov. 5 Clemson
Nov. 12 Fordham
Nov. 26 Holy Cross

Series Record: Total games played 5. Clemson won 3, lost 2.

Duquesne University (Dukes)
Nov. 12 at Clemson — 8:00 p.m.
Coach: Phil Ahwesh (Duquesne)
Publicity Director: Jack Schriver
Colors: Red and Blue
Enrollment: 3,832 (coed)
Location: Pittsburgh, Pa.

This will be the third consecutive year that Clemson plays Duquesne. The confidence of young Ahwesh, only 29, a former star with the Dukes, has raised hopes to a new high. No repetition of last year's disaster is expected...the Dukes managed to win only 2 out of 9.

Names to note are Leo Elter, fullback up from the frosh, Center Jim O'Day, Ends Nick Chomko and Ray Kridie and Guard Tony Paesano. Ahwesh reverses the trend in giving up the "T" in favor of the winged "T". The Dukes began playing college ball in 1900. They were one of the many schools which interrupted athletics during the war years of '43-46. Last year, the tilt with this Catholic school served as Clemson's Homecoming.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 17 Wake Forest
Oct. 1 Muhlenburg
Oct. 7 Alabama
Oct. 15 Holy Cross
Oct. 22 Villanova
Oct. 29 St. Louis U.
Nov. 12 Clemson
Nov. 19 Georgia U.
Nov. 24 Chattanooga

Series Record: Total games played 2. Clemson won 2.
Furman University (Purple Hurricane)
Nov. 19 at Greenville — 2:00 p.m.
Coach: H. E. "Red" Smith (Furman '26)
Colors: Purple and White
Enrollment: 1,571 (coed)
Location: Greenville, S. C.

Furman may not be too good this year offensively, but their experience, ability, and depth at guard may help them defensively and cause considerable worry for their opposition. Coach Smith admits his line will take care of itself, but he needs someone to deliver the mail.

Brightest sophomore backfield prospect is Sonny Horton, 185-pound Greenville, S. C., product.

The Purple Hurricane expects it will take them another year or two before they are back in the big time. A Baptist school, the game will be played in Sirrine Stadium.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 16 Georgia U.
Sept. 23 Washington & Lee
Sept. 30 South Carolina
Oct. 8 Richmond
Oct. 14 Presbyterian
Oct. 21 The Citadel
Oct. 29 Florida
Nov. 5 Wolford
Nov. 12 Davidson
Nov. 19 Clemson

Series Record: Total games played 35. Clemson won 21, lost 10, tied 4.

Auburn (Tigers)
Nov. 26 at Mobile, Ala. — 2:00 p.m.
Coach: Earl Brown (Notre Dame '39)
Publicity Director: Jimmy Coleman
Colors: Burnt Orange and Navy Blue
Enrollment: 7,500 (coed)
Location: Auburn, Ala.

The Plainsmen didn’t win a League game in 1948, their first under young Coach Brown, but they came closer to upsetting Clemson than any team last season. Indications are that this season’s edition is going to be a great deal better now since the attack is being switched from a modified single wing to a standard "T." "Travelin’ Travis" Tidwell will once again lead the offense.

Other than seniors Ralph Piburn, ex-paratrooper and their captain, and Coker Barion, a thunderous line backing center, sophomores, procured principally by Coach Brown himself, will man many of the posts.

1949 Schedule:
Sept. 23 Mississippi U.
Oct. 8 Florida
Oct. 15 Georgia Tech
Oct. 22 Tulane
Oct. 29 Vanderbilt
Nov. 5 Mississippi St.
Nov. 12 Georgia U.
Nov. 26 Clemson
Dec. 3 Alabama

Series Record: Total games played 30. Clemson won 9, lost 20, tied 1.
PROSPECTUS BY POSITIONS

ENDS — About the same as last year, possibly a little better. The experience of John Poulos at left end should make the position there ideal. Sophomore Glenn Smith will have to replace Oscar Thompson at right end. Relief will come from Rushton, McCauley, Herlong and Carson.

TACKLES — Big question! End Bob Hudson has been moved to this slot to fill one side with Luke Deanhardt at the other. Lack of experience is the big factor as none of the players, with the exception of Deanhardt, has seen any varsity action. The material is big, what with Graham, 230; Grigsby, 210; Dick Gillespie, 225; Martin, 220; Patton, 220; and Sterling Smith, 205.

GUARDS — Biggest question mark!! Will miss Frank Gillespie and Ray Clanton. Only two lettermen are Jack Cox and John Childress. DiMucci may get the nod as Number One man on the right side of the line. Manos, Skornsche, Mooneyhan, and Knight all have the desire, but the ability has to be trained. Probably Clemson’s weakest position.

CENTERS — The material is excellent, but not too deep. Gene Moore, candidate for All-Southern, is top man. He is excellent on defense, and his speed makes him a top notch offensive player. Brunson, Wade and Bryant will lend a hand.

BLOCKING BACK — Secure position with ample strength. Former fullback Dick Hendley moves up to take over here and will probably play offensively. Powerful Wyndham will hold the backfield up defensively. Carothers and Shugart will back the blockers.

WINGBACK — Early season indications have tailback Jackie Calvert trying out here with Williams, Reynolds, Kinney, and Moone as understudies. It may be that veteran wingster, Ray Mathews, will be moved back to this slot. But only time will tell.

TAILBACK — Gage’s gone—but by no means forgotten—as his running mate, Ray Mathews, looms as probable successor. Carol Cox, Bobby Thompson, Cook and Foard will study along side the “Old Faithful”, hoping to take over his berth. All this goes to make up what is considered one of Clemson’s best and most versatile backfields in history.

FULLBACK — The boy from Elmore, Alabama, Fred Cone, has little cause to worry about dropping from the Number One offensive position here. Brodie and Pettigrew will help out, particularly on defense. Cone was a regular last year, and will remain such. Fine material, not too deep.

THE PLAYERS

ENDS

JOHN POULOS, one of Clemson’s few seniors on the 1949 squad, is a veteran of the Pacific theater, and for the second straight year will be the Tiger’s mainstay at left end—he is considered by his coaches as one of the finest players on the squad—hails from Spartanburg—alternate captain for the team.

GLENN SMITH, former Washington, D. C., high school star—one of the few sophomores currently holding down a first string berth for Clemson—Smith operates at right end—coaches believe he has possibilities of becoming the most outstanding end that Clemson has ever offered. Youngest squad member—only 19.
JIM McCauley, cohort of Right End Glenn Smith, will be the prime relief duty and understudy to John Poulos at left flank—attended McKinley Tech in his hometown (Washington, D.C.) where he was on the All-High, All-metropolitan and championship teams.

GIL RUSHTON—was married in August—may have found his assignment at right end—he has been moved from a backfield position to guard and now is one of the better right flankmen—his speed is noted by his track efforts, and experience gained while playing Army ball has aided him considerably—he played with the Japan All-Stars.

TACKLES

ROBERT HUDSON—native of North Charleston—made a letter his first year at Clemson in 1947 and added a second last season—after playing right end for two years, he has been moved over to right tackle to adequately fill the berth at 204 pounds—is expected to run first string for the Tigers this fall—extremely fast: Runs 100 yard dash in 10.3.

LUKE DEANHARDT—native of Belton—will play his final season this year—the largest man on the squad—weighs in at 230, is hard charging—actually a human bulldozer—his tackle berth won't yield to many opponents, a former end.

BERNIE GRAHAM—hefty 230-pound tackle is one of two New York State products on the Tiger team—was a member of the championship team of the "Niagara Frontier" for Kennmore High School—specializing in Horticulture and had a brother who formerly attended Clemson who played basketball and football.

BILLY GRIGSBY—played Class B football with Saluda High, his hometown—married, a Navy vet, Grigsby could develop into a dynamic tackle.

GUARDS

JACK COX—from Marion—one of the two letterman guards on the varsity—worked under Frank Gillespie last year, and may develop considerably—powerful, Cox weighs in just short of 200, and stands 5-8—majors in Textile Engineering.

MICKLE DANIEL DI MUCCI—who claims that he spends most of his time sleeping, obviously sneaks in a few extra hours on the gridiron—only a sophomore, already is listed as the number one right guard—a product of McKeesport, Pa.—one of the youngest squad members, having just turned 19.

TOMMY CHANDLER of Greenwood—carried on the roster as a guard, but his toe wizardry during spring practice has him tagged as the extra point and field goal specialist to succeed the famed Jack Miller.

JACK MONELYHAN from West Columbia—pursuing a course in Textile Manufacturing—attended Brooklyn Cayce High School where he was listed on the greater Columbia, All-City football team—made all-state, and honorable mention on All-Southern—his 210 pounds should stand him in good stead as a left guard—only a sophomore.

JOHN CHILDRESS enrolled at Clemson with one of the better high school backgrounds—was All-GIAA, most valuable player, the best lineman, team co-captain, participated in the Peach Bowl while enrolled at Richmond Academy—may make a first string berth before the season is too old.

CENTER

GENE MORE, who started his football career at Clemson as a reserve center, will hold down the pivot berth for the second straight year—is top man on the Tiger squad as captain—a Lake City non-veteran, is first string catcher on the baseball team for Clemson in the spring.
JACK BRUNSON, newly married, animal husbandry student — chief understudy to Captain Moore. He played for Sumter High prior to enrolling at Clemson for the 1947 season.

BACKS

WYNIE WYNDBAM, blocking back from Moncks Corner, is one of the college’s top notch backs—doesn’t know his own strength and will see plenty of defensive action this fall—Single handed, he took out two Missouri players at one time in the Gator Bowl game.

DICK HENDLEY from Greenville, is playing his junior year for the Clemson Tigers and after operating defensively at fullback last fall for the County Gentlemen—has moved up to handle the top spot at blocking back.

FRANK CAROTHERS, probable blocking back who played with the All-State AA champions of Rock Hill High in ’45 and ’46—nicknamed “Stoney”, he is just as powerful and just as hard to take out as the name implies.

FRED CONE hails from Elmore, Ala.—a powerful line-running fullback—has little worry that anyone can move him out of the lead spot—made the All-Time Gator Bowl team for 1949 because of his outstanding play in an intercollegiate football game between Clemson and the University of Missouri.

BONNEAU BRODIE, who led his Aiken High School team in scoring back in his pre-college days, may surprise everyone this fall—he looked exceptionally good with his 204 pounds at fullback during spring practice. A veteran of four years service, he is possessor of seven battle stars with the U. S. Navy.

JACK CALVERT from Spartanburg—one of the fastest men on the squad—an excellent kicjcker and potentially a great passer—present plans call for him to occupy a wingback berth after being moved over from tailback.

BOBBY WILLIAMS, popularly known as “Snag” —a product of Spartanburg high school—playing his final year for Clemson at wingback—can always be depended on when a few extra yards are needed—a vet, having seen duty in both European and Pacific theaters.

MIKE KINNEY has excellent possibilities as a future great at Clemson. A native of Valley Stream, N. Y.—is small (5’10, 170 pounds), but speedy and agile on his feet—was a standout player on his high school team, which went undefeated his senior year—led his team in scoring—a fine kicker.

RAY MATHEWS, a junior from McKeesport, Pa., is number One on the Tiger’s list as their top player. Last season he won high scoring honors in the Southern Conference with 13 touchdowns and made All-South Carolina and the All-Southern Sophomore team. He is Clemson’s offering to the All-American listing—faces toughest job on the squad in an attempt to take over Bobby Gage’s tailback position—has been tagged by Coach Howard as the “Old Faithful” of the team—averaged 5.7 yards per try in 113 running attempts last year, caught 14 passes for 379 yards and added 169 yards via 5 pass completions out of 19 attempts—married, a two time letterman, having been discovered as a great collegiate back his freshman year at Clemson in 1947. He weighs in at 180, stands 6 feet, and is 20 years old.

CAROL COX of Camden, returned to Clemson from the Marines at the mid-1947 season. He will probably see plenty of action at the tailback berth—is considered one of the most powerful and fleet-footed of the Tiger’s backs—well known in athletic circles in the Carolinas—comes from a long line of excellent athletes.
