Seventeen years ago, Frank Howard stepped from first string guard position on Alabama's 1930 Rose Bowl team into the coaching position with the Clemson Tigers and nine years later (1940) he moved up to the top coaching spot in Tigertown.

Howard inherited Clemson's football reins when Coach Jess Neely moved to Rice Institute after nine years as the Tiger boss. Born in Barlow Bend, Alabama on March 25, 1909, Howard worked his way up the football ladder under Alabama's Coach Wallace Wade.

A master at the art of line technique, Howard's teams have made a good record for themselves despite strenuous war-time conditions. Howard pays considerable attention to the fundamentals of sound defensive play, but always you will find his boys shooting for touchdowns.

Howard is married, and the father of two children, Alice and Jimmy. His family lives with him here at Clemson.

COVINGTON McMILLAN—Backfield Coach — A Clemson gridiron star of the 1928-30 era, "Goat" McMillan spent four years coaching at Griffin, Ga. high school and three years at Furman University before joining the Clemson staff in 1937. Entering the Army in 1942, McMillan spent six months in the South Pacific, with occupational duty in Korea and Japan. He held the rank of Captain when discharged in 1946.
RUSS COHEN—Backfield Coach—Clemson’s newest addition to its coaching staff is Russ Cohen, former top athletic man at Louisiana State University and an assistant to Wallace Wade, when the present Duke mentor was at Alabama. Cohen came to Clemson in the spring of this year from Virginia Military Institute where for the past ten years, he has been backfield coach and chief scout.

BOB JONES—End Coach—A standout Clemson football and basketball star of the years 1928-30 and generally considered one of the finest ends in Clemson history, Bob Jones joined the coaching staff here upon graduation in 1930. Entering the Army in 1941, Jones spent 12 months in the ETO, won the Silver Star, Bronze Star, Purple Heart and Combat Infantryman’s badge. He held the rank of Lieutenant Colonel when discharged in 1946. Jones is also head coach of the boxing and golf teams.

WALTER COX—Line Coach—A regular guard on Clemson’s 1939 Cotton Bowl team, Walter Cox stepped out of a first string position with the Tigers into a job on the coaching staff. Called into the Army in 1942, Cox spent 12 months in the Fiji Island, New Caledonia, and Guadalcanal, and held the rank of First Lieutenant when medically discharged in 1943.

BANKS McFADDEN—Assistant Coach—His play on the 1939 Tiger team placed “Bonnie Banks” on the Associated Press All-American football team and on Chuck Taylor’s All American basketball team. Upon graduation in 1940 McFadden played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers and lead in ground gaining. He entered the Army in 1942, spent 33 months overseas and was a major at the time of his discharge. In the winter, McFadden is Clemson’s basketball coach.

RANDY HINSON—Assistant Coach—A Clemson backfield and baseball star during his college career here, Hinson joined the coaching staff after his graduation in 1936. He entered the Army in 1940, spent 36 months in Italy and was a major when discharged in 1945. He is head coach of baseball, his 1947 team winning the South Carolina and the Southern Conference championships. As the outstanding team of the South, Clemson baseballers defeated Alabama and Auburn in the NCAA play-offs in Charlotte. Clemson represented the Third District in the Eastern conference run-offs at New Haven, Connecticut, but they were defeated by Yale University.

A. W. NORMAN—Assistant Coach—Considered one of the greatest and most versatile athletes in the history of Roanoke College, “Rock” Norman came to Clemson in 1940 as freshman football, varsity basketball and track coach. He was last year placed in charge of training the Tiger athletes and handling all athletic equipment. Norman will assist with Clemson’s football “B” squad this fall and will direct the track cindermen next spring.
About Our Boys

CENTERS

CARY COX—Tiger football captain Cox is considered Frank Howard's mainstay from a center position. He did a bang-up job last season and should be quite a bulwark this year. While in the service with the Navy, he saw plenty of gridiron action in Manila. In 1943, he made all-state with the University of South Carolina. This 200 pounder from Dawson, Ga. should turn in plenty of brilliant work this year.

EUGENE MOORE, JR.—A very hefty youngster from Lake City (SC), Gene excelled this past season behind the batter's plate in baseball and should see plenty of action at center position. Nineteen, six feet, one inch tall and weighing 195 pounds, Moore is expected to be one of the mainstays on the reserve squad.

HAROLD TOWNES—A Navy veteran who came to Clemson last fall, this high man of the Clemson line (6 ft. 3 in., 200 pounds) will show us what he has—and that should be plenty—from the center position.

GUARDS

FRANK GILLESPIE—One of Clemson's outstanding athletes and scholars is a husky Beckley, (W. Va.) lad, Frank Gillespie. A first string letterman for the Tiger football team, and an expert at the art of basketball, Gillespie stole honors with the Tiger baseball club last spring. Weighing 193 pounds, Gillespie spent three years in the Signal Corp before he returned to Clemson last fall.

TOM SALISBURY — Another war-time Clemson letterman (seasons of 43 and 44) who withdrew from college for a hitch in the service, Tommy returns to the scene this fall. Salisbury is big enough (200 lbs.) to be useful in the Tiger front line and is being counted on for considerable guard relief work.

RAY CLANTON—A former all-starrer with the Saint Johns Darlington (SC) high school, this pre-medicine student is expected to be one of Coach Howard's finest right guards. He first won his letter with the Tigers in 1945 and with his experience gained last season, should well fit into the scheme of things in the big Clemson line.

JACK COX—A cousin of the well-known Clemson footballer, Carol Cox, Jack, from Marion, S. C. will see action from a guard position. He excelled on the Chicora High School football, basketball, and baseball teams.

BILL HUNTER—A letterman in 1942 at 167 pounds, Hunter returned to football last year after a three-year hitch in the Army, weighing 190 pounds. Bill hails from Greenville, spent three years in the Marine Corps and is a pre-medicine student here at Clemson College.

JUD DAVIS—After a toughening up process on his father's farm near Denmark, S. C. and at the hands of the Denmark High School football coach several years ago, this tall agricultural education student will work from the guard position. He makes a good showing in the spring practice and that effort should materialize into good results this fall.

WENDELL ARD—A Hemingway (S.C. student, this 205 pound youth is expected to do his share from the guard position. The son of a lawyer, Ard spent two years with the Army Engineers. He attended Clemson prior to his entrance into the service and convinced the Clemson coaches then that he had something on the ball.

JIM SOLTIS—A little on the stocky side (five feet, 10 inches, 200 pounds) Sultis stepped into a regular Clemson guard position in 1945. A rugged footballer, he is one of the scholastic leaders of his class and during his first three semesters here as a Civil Engineering student made excellent grades. His wife supervises the operation of the college hotel.

PHIL PRINCE—Acquiring a letter in 1944, Prince spent the 1945 season in the service but returned to Clemson last year and made an impressive record. Possibly one of Clemson’s best tacklers, this Arts and Sciences major from Erwin, Tennessee, showed plenty of promise in spring practice.

MAVIS CAGLE—A 1945 regular and letter man, Cagle made good that year on 20 of 25 extra points attempted and Coach Howard is expected to make good use of this boy from the low country of South Carolina. Nicknamed “Bull”, this husky brother of John “Bull” Cagle (1941 regular) will use all of his 200 pounds in making some of the bigger boys step pretty lively.

CARROLL GAINER—Lettered at Clemson in 1943 and weighed only 183 pounds, Gainer returned to the Tiger lineup last year after service with the Tank Corp, weighing 200 pounds and is expected to have put on a few more pounds by football season. “Chick”, as he is popularly called, hails from Lancaster, South Carolina.

JACK ROSS—A letterman in 1942, Jack returned last year from the service at 205 pounds and may well move into a regular spot before the ’47 season is many weeks old. Solidly built, a powerful man, and fast enough to keep company with the best, Ross is expected to be much of the strength in the tough Clemson line.

EDWARD MARTIN—Ed played with the Tigers before he entered the service back in ’45, gained a lot of experience at the tackle position on the Fort Knox service team and showed up good during spring practice this year. It is his first post-war season with the Tigers.

BOB TURNER—As a freshman in 1945, Turner forced his powerful 230 pounds into a regular tackle spot and emerged at the end of the season on the UP All-Southern first team.

ENDS

NEIL MONTONE—A new-comer to the Clemson lineup, coming to Clemson from West Virginia University, this former Air Corp officer is expected to be one of Clemson’s outstanding ends for the 1947 season. From Wilkes-Barre, Pa. this 193 pounder made all state football center in 1939.

LEWIS DEANHARDT—Deanhardt performed at his hometown (Belton) high school on the football field prior to his coming to Clemson last year. “Luke” looks every bit of his 215 pounds—6 ft. 3 in.—and should be on the receiving end of many passes this year.

JOHN POULOS—To be counted on as the blust of the left end situation is this 200 pound Spartanburg student. He served for nearly two years in the Infantry, some of which time was spent in the Pacific area, and got valuable experience for gridiron service with the 41st Division football team. He will probably be one of Clemson's outstanding players of the year.

HENRY WALKER—A letterman at the University of South Carolina in 1943, Walker spent three years in service with the Navy. A second Associated Press All-American at the University of Virginia in 1944, All-state in Virginia, All-American third team in 1945 at Virginia, and captain of his team, this Griffin (Ga) gentleman is expected to go places with the Tigers this fall.

BLOCKING BACKS

JOHN MOORER—The alternate captain for the Tigers 1947 football season is an outstanding scholar from the Navy Yard near Charleston, S. C. Popular, well-known and much respected, Moorer will handle the Tigers well from the blocking back position. Just 19, Coach Frank Howard expects much from this hefty letterman.

ROBERT MARTIN—The son of a Clemson College graduate, this Fort Mill, S. C. pre-medicine student is expected to show up pretty good from the BB position. Young (18) Martin played in the Shrine game in 1944.

GEORGE OLSON—Popularly known as "The Swede", this Decatur, Ga. student will see action this fall from the blocking back position. He will be remembered for being all-city of Atlanta and on the NGIC team in football and track.

FULL BACKS

JIM REYNOLDS—Fast, shifty, hard-hitting and a great passer, of "explosive" running quality, this black-haired Pennsylvania boy will no doubt be Howard's top fullback for the year. He lead Clemson's scoring in 1945 with five touchdowns. On 60 cracks at the line he gained 270 yards and caught two passes for 86 yards. He was not with Clemson in 1946 and returns after a year of service.

BILLY G. ROGERS—After a year with the Navy, Billy G. returned to Clemson in the 1946 spotlight. An outstanding player in 1944, Rogers carried the ball 87 times to gain 333 yards and led the scoring with six touchdowns and an extra point. He saw a lot of action last year against such teams as Wake Forest, South Carolina, Virginia Tech and Tulane. Hailing from Lake View (SC), this 20 year old, 175 pound youth will no doubt battle it out with Jim Reynolds for the fullback position with the Tigers this fall.

BONNEAU BRODIE—An outstanding football player on the Aiken High (SC) team, Brodie is another of the Tiger footballers who returned from the armed forces in the football limelight. He is a defensive mainstay line puncher.

NORMAN PETTIGREW—One of the few Florida lads on the Tiger team is this new comer who showed up quite well during spring practice. "Petty" is from Tampa and was on the Hillsboro high school and won all-city, all-state, two big-ten and two state championships.

WINGBACKS

LEWIS MORGAN—Known by all as "Hootchie", this campus personality from Albermarle, N. C. will show many how to handle the wingback position for the Tigers this fall. He saw plenty of service with the U. S. Army in the Pacific area and is expected to show plenty of service on the gridiron this fall. Showed up fine last year.

JAMES WHITMIRE—A 1943 Clemson wingback, he did some spectacular ball carrying exhibitions. Whitmire returned to Clemson last year after three years with the Navy to take up where he left off—a crack er jack ball player. He lead in the scoring and in the ground gaining at the Griffin, Ga. high school and was an expert at the shotput and at the 100 and 200 yard relays. Keep your eyes on him.

TOM COURSEY—One of the youngest men on the Tiger team, from Charlotte (NC), Coursey will take his stand with the Tigers in the wingback position. A student taking architecture, he was an outstanding player for the Harding High School in Charlotte.

JACK PRUITT—One of the biggest men on the Clemson squad, and characteristically enough he "played" for the United States in the past war in the rugged Marine Corp where it took real men. From nearby Anderson (SC) this Tigerman played for the Danville (Va.) and Greenville (SC) high school football teams.

TAILBACKS

ROBERT GAGE—Clemson bases its hopes as far as tailbacks go on agile Bobby Gage. Very fast, very shifty, an excellent punter and a quick kicker and a passer, he proved himself in the 1946 football season. Gage will see a lot of service this year. During the '46 season, he gained 250 yards on 50 running plays, and on passes, completed 24 of 44 tries (3 intercepted) for 388 yards gained.

HAL LEONARD—A Wofford College student before he went into the service in 1943, Leonard joined the Tiger team last season and proved himself one of Clemson's best tailbacks. He won the first Jaycees trophy in the all-state game in Columbia in 1945 and his team won the Class "C" championship in 1940. Married, with one child, this Columbia (SC) former Air Corp officer is someone to keep an eye on this fall.

JACK MILLER—A very promising war-time (1944) tailback letterman who was in service during the 1945 season, Jack Miller returned to Tigertown last year at his old-time playing weight of 165 pounds. In '44, when he lettered as a freshman, Miller (hamp ered by an injured foot) gained 225 yards on 38 running plays (Av. 5.9), completed six of 24 passes (one intercepted) for 67 yards, averaged 33 yards on five kicks, and kicked 14 extra points.

About Our Opponents

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, Clinton, S. C.—A member of the SIAA conference, PC took the championship in 1931 and 1941, while the Hose has been runner-up for the state title seven times. Last year, out of the eight state teams, PC had the best season of the lot, winning seven games while losing only to us and The Citadel. This season, and since 1941, the head coach will be Lonnie McMillian, an exponent of the “T” formation. The Dean of Palmetto coaches, Walter Johnson, is athletic director. We should see plenty of action from the Blue Hose when The Tigers meet them for the first game on September 20 at the Memorial Stadium at Clemson.

BOSTON COLLEGE, Boston, Mass.—Founded in 1863, Boston College this fall will field its 50th football team. Coach Denny Myers has a crew of 27 lettermen available to form the nucleus of the 1947 EAGLE squad. The majority of players are veterans who returned to the Jesuit institution over a year ago. The Maroon and Gold expect to meet plenty of trouble along the way and will do well to equal last year’s record of six wins and three defeats. This is the first post-war meeting of the two teams.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, Wake Forest, N. C.—Coach Douglas C. (Peahed) Walker will begin his 11th consecutive season as head mentor of the Gold and Black Wake Forest College. The Demon Deacons, a Baptist institution located 14 miles north of Raleigh, N. C., are tackling an ambitious 10-game card calling for seven Southern Conference games: Clemson, North Carolina, George Washington, Duke, William and Mary, N. C. State and South Carolina, and three important intersec- tional tests with Georgetown, Boston College, and Duquesne. They defeated the Tigers last year with a score of 19-7.

N. C. STATE COLLEGE, Raleigh, N. C.—Clemson’s second night game of the football season, will be with Coach Beattie Feathers and his 1947 Gator Bowl eleven. Faced with a tough nine game schedule that includes six Southern conference encounters, the North Carolina State team will attempt to repeat last year's win over the Tigers (14-7). No doubt, many of the State's expected 6,500 members of the student body will be on hand in Raleigh to witness the clash.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA, Columbia, S. C.—Coach Rex Enright will field his Gamecocks against the Tigers on Big Thursday, State Fair, at the annual classic that always proves to be a thriller. Regardless of the before-game prospects, it is generally conceded that the outcome of the game can be determined by the flip of the coin. Enright's team proved its superiority last year by a 26 to 14 defeat over the Tigers. Your guess is as good as ours.

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA, Athens, Ga.—On October 31, 1947, the Clemson TIGERS and the Georgia BULLDOGS battle for the 27th time. Clemson played the University of Georgia for the first time in 1897, the final score being Clemson 0, Georgia 24. Since that time Clemson has won eight, lost sixteen and tied two of the 26 games played. Last year the Tigers lost with a score of 35-12. The Georgia BULLDOGS have played and won four bowl games—The Orange Bowl, the Rose Bowl, the Oil Bowl and the Sugar Bowl. Head mentor of the BULLDOGS "Wally" Butts is now in his ninth year at the University.

FURMAN UNIVERSITY, Greenville, S. C.—The Purple Hurricanes (Purple and White), this year under Coach Robert W. Smith, have been in action since 1901. Home games are played in Sirrine stadium in Greenville, as will be the case this year. Furman, founded in 1826, is a liberal arts institution, owned and operated by the Baptists of South Carolina and normally accommodates approximately 1,000 students each year. Some 1400 students attended Furman last year and saw the Tigers win the first post-war clash between the two—20-6.

ALABAMA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE, Auburn, Ala.—Head Coach Carl Boyle's team will try to overcome last year's defeat of 21 to 13 by the Clemson Tigers when he brings his men here for Clemson's homecoming game. A great institution with an ROTC unit, Auburn has always ranked with the best in the Southern Conference. When two Tigers get together and both potentially as strong as they are, no telling what will happen.

DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY, Pittsburgh, Pa.—The Tigers take on a new comer when they play the red and blue Dukes on November 15. Kassian Kovalcheck is head football coach and he employs both the single wing and "T" formations. A co-educational school of some 2500 students, Duquesne is expected to surprise many and live up to the record they held in sports before the war. The game will be played at Forbes Field (capacity 32,575), home field of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT CLEMSON COLLEGE

Clemson College, the A & M College of South Carolina, is located at Clemson, S. C., in the North-western corner of the state, 16 miles from Anderson, S. C., and 32 miles from Greenville, S. C., midway between Charlotte, N. C., and Atlanta, Georgia.

Clemson College was founded in 1889 and is named in honor of Thomas Green Clemson, the man whose bequest (approximately $60,000) made Clemson College possible. Mr. Clemson was the first U. S. Commissioner of Agriculture, and was U. S. Minister to Belgium. He was also the son-in-law of John C. Calhoun, a great figure in Southern statesmanship and Vice President of the United States in the years 1825-1832. Restored and preserved in the center of the Clemson campus is the Fort Hill plantation home of John C. Calhoun, later Mr. Clemson's home.

The college opened in 1893 with an enrollment of 446. Clemson is a non-coed, All-ROTC land grant college. The college reached its peak enrollment in 1946 when 3,250 students were in college here. War-time enrollment, including both regular ROTC students (pre-draft age) and Army trainees fluctuated between 500 and 2,000 students. The 1947 fall enrollment is expected to be 3,300; some 1700 of these will be former service men.

Clemson has been a military (ROTC) institution since its beginning and until 1944 its students had always worn the regulation college uniform. During the years 1944 and 1945 all students at Clemson—ROTC and Army trainees—wore the prescribed army uniform. More than 6,000 former Clemson students served in the armed forces during World War II and approximately 90 per cent of them were officers. A total of 365 former Clemson students are known to have lost their lives in the conflict. The cadets returned to the traditional blue gray uniform this fall.

Dr. Robert Franklin Poole became president of Clemson in 1940, succeeding the late Dr. Enoch Sikes. Born in Laurens County, S. C., December 2, 1893, Dr. Poole graduated from Clemson in 1918, a PH.D. degree from Rutgers in 1921. He spent 17 months in France and Germany with the Aerial Photography Service during World War I. He was assistant plant pathologist at the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station from 1920 through 1926. Dr. Poole went to North Carolina State College in 1926 and remained there until he accepted the Clemson presidency in 1940.
