MINUTES
COMMISSION ON CLASSIFIED STAFF AFFAIRS
March 7, 1985

Absent: Emma Barber, Ray Thompson, and Alice Allen

Jane Kidd began the meeting by explaining the petitions that had circulated in various departments. Dr. Maxwell had put Jane Kidd on the agenda of the March 4 special Faculty/Staff meeting, because the Commission had requested that they be included in the regular Faculty/Staff meetings. Jane Kidd stated that she had been out of town and was not aware that she had been placed on the agenda. Petitions were distributed around campus that Jane Kidd should not speak in support of Dr. Atchley on behalf of the Clemson University Staff. Jane reiterated that she had no intention of "speaking for" the staff of Clemson University on any controversial issue. It was suggested that some form of correction be made on Jane Kidd's behalf, as well as the Commission's, because of the misunderstandings in the petitions. There was some discussion on the pro's and con's of sending out a memorandum clarifying the situation and clearing Jane Kidd's involvement. Opinions were mixed on this issue, and therefore, a suggestion was made to discuss it further at the March 12, 1985 meeting and make a decision at that time.

Paul Gable mentioned that the memorandum on typing manuscripts had reached the Deans.

A motion to adjourn was made by Martin Fowler. The motion was seconded and the meeting was adjourned.
