Clemson Defeats Wake Forest

WINSTON SALEM, NC--Tommy Thompson knocked in four runs with a pair of singles and a double to lead Clemson to a 10-9 ACC victory at Wake Forest on Saturday afternoon. The victory improved Clemson's record to 15-11-1 overall and 3-0 in the ACC. Wake Forest fell to 10-12-1 overall and 0-4 in the ACC.

Both teams scored early and often as the count was 3-3 after one inning and 5-4 in favor of Wake Forest after three frames. Clemson took the lead for good with three runs in the fourth inning. With one out Mark Biegert and Derek Spears put down back to back bunt singles. Bill Spears then singled home Biegert to tie the score at five. After Jim McCollom was intentionally walked, Thompson drove in two runs with a single to left.

After Wake Forest got a run in the fifth, Clemson countered with a run in the seventh. The score for the Tigers was a solo home run by Jim McCollom, his 10th homer of the season. He is already Clemson's career home run leader with 41 and he needs just five more to set the single season record.

Clemson scored two runs in the top of the eighth to take a 10-6 lead. Again Biegert led off the uprising, this time with a double. One out later, lead-off man Bert Heffernan was hit by a pitch. Spears again singled in Biegert and again McCollom was intentionally walked. And, again Thompson came through with a single to knock in a run.

Wake Forest made is close with two runs in the eighth and one in the ninth. The Deacons' scored on a two-run double by Steve Gregg, but he was later thrown out trying to steal and that killed the Deacon rally. Mike Wilcox hit a two-out homer in the ninth, but Clemson started and winner George Stone got John Chmil to pop out to end the game. The same two teams play on Sunday.

Virginia Defeats Clemson

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA--Tim Burcham struck out 13 batters and Dan Maynard had four hits Thursday afternoon to lead Virginia to a 19-1 victory over Clemson in ACC baseball action. Clemson falls to 17-13-1 for the year overall, 4-1 in the ACC, while Virginia improved its mark to 20-5 overall and 3-2 in the ACC.

Virginia made the most of Clemson errors in the early innings. The Tigers gave up five unearned runs in the first five innings of play as the Wahoos had an 11-1 lead after five innings of play. Clemson scored its only run in the fourth inning when Bill Spiers, Jim McCollom and Tommy Thompson had consecutive singles. Thompson's run scored Spiers leaving Clemson behind just 3-1 after the top of the fourth.

Virginia scored seven in the fifth and eight in the sixth to put the game well away. Bill Narleski hit his fourth homer of the year to key the uprising in the fifth. Clemson contributed to its own woes as all three outfielders made an error in the inning, one on a missed fly ball, one on a throwing error and one when a ball rolled through a fielders legs.

David Horton keyed Virginia's eight-run streak in the sixth as he hit a grad-slam homer. Burcham pitched a super game for Virginia as he struck out 13 and did not walk a batter. The 4-1 Virginia pitcher threw 132 pitches on the day, 98 of which were strikes. The same two teams meet on Friday at Charlottesville. George Stone, Clemson's top pitcher with a 5-1 record entering the game, took the loss for the Tigers.

Jim McCollom and John Burnett were the only bright spots for the Tigers. McCollom had three hits, while Burnett pitched the last 2 and one-third without giving up a run.

DAVDISON, NC--Ray Williams hit two homers and a double Friday afternoon to lead Clemson to a 17-0 victory over Davidson College. The victory improved Clemson's record to 27-15-1 overall, while Davidson fell to 14-14. The Tigers will play at ACC rival North Carolina on Saturday at 3:00 PM.

After Clemson scored two runs in the first inning, Williams started an uprising in the third. He led off the fram with his sixth homer of the year. Then, first-baseman Jim McCollom walked and two outs later Mark Biegert hit his first homer of the year to give Clemson a 5-0 lead.

The Tigers put the game out of reach in the last three innings by scoring a total of 11 runs. In the seventh McCollom hit his 16th homer of the season to start the scoring. John Jay, who had four hits on the day and knocked in four runs, then doubled. After Biegert walked and Scott Dillon was hit by a pitch. Bill Spiers, Clemson's second leading hitter this year, doubled in two runs.

Clemson got five runs in the eighth. Williams hit his second homer of the day with one out. McCollom doubled and Tommy Thompson reached on an error. With two out Jay hit a two run homer.

John Pawlowski recorded his second shutout of the season and seventh victory against just one loss for the Tigers. He has now allowed just two runs in his last 25 innings of work. He struckout seven and walked just three and and set down the last 13 batters that he faced. Bill Masse and David Kirby had the only hits for Davidson.

N.C. State Stops Clemson

RALEIGH, NC--Michael Billmeyer banged out two hits, including a homer, and pitcher Robert Toth allowed just two runs in 7 2/3 innings of relief to lead N.C. State to a 9-4 victory over Clemson in college baseball action Sunday. The N.C. State win means Clemson and Virginia tied for the regular season title of the ACC. The ACC office will hold a coin flip for the top seed in next week's tournament, in Atlanta. Clemson is now 27-17-1 overall and 9-4 in the ACC. N.C. State is 29-14 overall and 8-5 in the ACC.

Clemson jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first three and a half innings. Bert Heffernan opened the game with a single and Bill Spiers, Clemson's starting third baseman followed with another single. After Tommy Thompson singled to load the bases, Ray Williams walked with the bases loaded to force in a run. Clemson scored in the second on a double by Chuck Baldwin and an RBI single by Heffernan. Toth entered the game in the second after that single and put the fire out.

Clemson took a four-zero lead in the fourth with two more runs. With one out Baldwin walked and Scott Dillon singled. Spiers then singled in Baldwin. Dillon later scored on force out when Thompson grounded to second.

N.C. State not only got back in the game, they took the lead with a five-run fourth. Alex Wallace started the uprising with a walk, then Billmeyer hit his 10th homer of the season. Andrew Fava had a bunt single, then Jim McNamara had a bloon double to set up runners at second and third. Jay Yvars hit a sacrifice fly and Mark Celedonia then followed with a double to score McNamara. Bob Marczak then singled in Celedonia.

Toth allowed just two Clemson hits over the last six innings and he struggled out nine in gaining his sixth win. Georgia Stone, (7-3) was the starter and loser for Clemson.
