Press, Radio and TV

Welcome to Clemson Football 1975, and we hope, to a season as exciting as the last.

This brochure will acquaint you with all the data on Red Parker's present group of Tigers, as well as present a complete picture of Clemson's illustrious past.

The Tig publicity office is always ready to assist you, and we want you to feel free to contact us whenever we may make your job of covering Clemson more enjoyable and convenient.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

We'll appreciate getting these as early as you know your assignment. Requests for working press and photo passes are honored from sports editors of DAILY newspapers and radio and TV sports directors ONLY. Make request directly to BOB BRADLEY, preferably a week in advance of kickoff to insure adequate mailing time.

SERVICES

As in the past, play-by-play, individual and team stats, and coaches' quotes will be supplied to all members of the working press, as well as a packet of first-half action shots which will be furnished by staff photographers of Clemson's Communications Center. And of course you'll receive a feast fit for a king on "The Top of the Valley," as you go through the lunch line which is located on the photo deck of the press box.

TELECOPIER — WESTERN UNION SERVICE

The press box is equipped with eight outside lines and outlets for your telecopier at no charge to your paper. Our office will always have at least two telecopiers at the game, but you should let us know in advance if you plan to use them to send your copy as we have certain requirements and obligations as well. We also have press box assistants who are available to send copy as necessary. Western Union service is also available, but it is up to the individual writers to make prior arrangements with that company for service.

LOCKER ROOM INTERVIEWS

Bob Bradley will escort those writers wishing to go to the Clemson dressing room, while the visiting SID will make the trip to the opponent's dressing area. This usually takes place with about three minutes left on the scoreboard clock. The dressing areas are located under the West end zone stands, opposite the scoreboard end of the field.

RESTRICTIONS

Our press box is operated for the convenience of the working press only. No women, other than accredited sportswriters or photographers will be admitted, and no one under 16 will be admitted.

We certainly appreciate the coverage you have given the Tigs over the years, and we look forward to working with you this fall.

CLEMSON...

Clemson University was founded in 1889 as a result of a bequest of land to the state by Thomas Green Clemson, a scientist and agriculturalist who came to South Carolina from Pennsylvania. Mr. Clemson's statue stands in front of Tillman Hall.

Located in the Northwest corner of the State of South Carolina, and nestled at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Clemson University's tree-lined campus provides a panoramic background accentuating the traditional and contemporary features of the institution's rapidly expanding physical plant.

There are 600 acres of the main campus, surrounded by beautiful Lake Hartwell and forest-green hills, representing an investment of approximately $87 million in permanent facilities.

The University offers 63 curriculums in nine undergraduate colleges, and 77 programs in graduate studies.

The academic growth and social and cultural development of students are the prime reasons for any university's existence. Since much of the students' time is spent outside the classroom, Clemson hopes that all activities of student life can become a part of the overall learning process, and that its students will benefit from the social and cultural advantages of campus life while acquiring a quality education.

In addition to the activities in which students engage themselves in the immediate area, Clemson is a short two-hour drive from the majority of winter ski resorts in the mountains of Georgia and North Carolina, and a brief 90-minute journey from the city lights of both Charlotte, N. C., and Atlanta, Ga.

This aerial photo shows most of the 600-acre Clemson University campus and part of Lake Hartwell. The campus proper is surrounded by 21,000 acres of university lands which are devoted to research in forestry, agriculture and engineering.

The John C. Calhoun mansion is a historic landmark on the Clemson campus. A foremost statesman in South Carolina history and Vice President of the United States from 1825-32, Mr. Calhoun was the father-in-law of Thomas G. Clemson.

A GREAT UNIVERSITY...

Dr. Robert Cook Edwards became the ninth president of Clemson University in 1959. During his presidency, the University has experienced its most dramatic growth, both physically and academically. Dr. Edwards has stated, "Long after the present period of physical change and expansion fades from memory, the accomplishments of those who learn here, as well as those who teach and conduct research at Clemson, will have an impact on the way people live. This, to me, is what gives purpose to our educational mission."

Tillman Hall, a campus landmark, once served as the school's administration building. Today, both the Army and Air Force ROTC departments are headquartered here, as well as the department of sociology and the office of the Dean of the College of Education.

The three-storied Daniel Hall houses the classrooms for the College of Liberal Arts. And in the background is Strode Tower, the faculty and administrative complex for that department.

Byrnes, Lever, and Manning Halls, three modern high-rise dormitories on Clemson's East Campus, house some 1,500 students.

At the entrance of Clemson University sits Sikes Hall, the school's administration building.

The Robert Muldrow Cooper Library (foreground) and Rhodes Engineering Research Center are located side-by-side in front of the University's reflection pool.

With EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITIES...

IN THE CLASSROOM, AS WELL AS IN RECREATIONAL
AREAS...

Students play a large part in most of Clemson's ongoing research projects which range from agriculture to zoology. Not only do these students gain practical experience while working in laboratories or on location, but most are paid for their contributions to the research.

Not all of a student's education at Clemson takes place in the classroom, but definitely the largest and perhaps the most important part of a student's knowledge is gained from a teacher conducting a class. The classroom atmosphere is usually informal with the teacher-student relationship being instructive yet conducive to student ideas.

Spacious Lake Hartwell serves as the border to Clemson's West Campus, and it's here where students spend many hours of swimming, sun bathing, and skiing during the summer, and sailing during the brisk fall and winter afternoons.

Registration is always a busy time around campus, and above, footballer David Hughston compares his classroom schedule with that of one of Clemson's charming coeds.

Fourteen hard-surfaced tennis courts surround the Hoke Sloan Tennis Center, and there's rarely a sunny afternoon that goes by when this part of the campus is not buzzing with student involvement.

A couple of students relax on the sundeck of Fike Recreation Center, overlooking Clemson Memorial Stadium, while others enjoy the waters of the eight-lane pool and separate diving tank which also serves the men's and women's Tiger swimming teams.

With MODERN ATHLETIC FACILITIES...

Frank Johnstone Jervey Athletic Center houses not only the administrative and coaching offices of the department, but on the basement level are. . .

A modern and well-equipped training room that includes both a steam and sauna room. . .

And an adjoining weight room with all the modern Nautilus equipment. . .

And a separate carpeted dressing area for each of the Tigers' varsity teams.

AND WITH SOME

GIFTED ATHLETES

LIKE . . .

Skip Wise and Tree Rollins, who led Clemson to a tie for second place during the 1974-75 regular basketball season, and to a berth in the National Invitational Tournament. Wise led the Tigs in scoring and was the first freshman ever to land a spot on the All-ACC first team, whereas Rollins, a second team all-league choice, was the team's and ACC's leading rebounder and shot blocker.

Hard-hitting Denny Walling who led Clemson in batting last spring on his way to earning the MVP trophy in the ACC. Not only did Walling rewrite the baseball record book, but he earned all-league, all-regional, and All-American honors as well.

Clyde Browne, who has led Clemson to three consecutive soccer crowns, and who has earned the ACC's MVP trophy his freshman, sophomore, and junior years, and who looms as the heavy favorite to capture it again this fall.

Jimmy White, who led Clemson to its second straight state golf title last spring, an All-ACC selection who earned a berth in the NCAA Championships.

Football at its best is played on The Frank Howard Field of Clemson Memorial Stadium, which is also known as Death Valley.

Athletic Director — BILL McLELLAN

A man for all seasons is Bill McLellan, a 43-year old native of Hamer, S. C., who has crossed every plateau in Clemson's rapidly expanding athletic program. And since he assumed the top position in the department over four years ago, Clemson athletics and excellence have been synonymous.

One might say that Clemson has been McLellan's home for 25 years, because since his graduation from high school he's been in Tigertown.

First, as a student-athlete when he played for the legendary Frank Howard. And during his undergraduate days, McLellan earned a pair of grid letters and was a member of Clemson's 1952 Gator Bowl team. He graduated from the University in 1954.

Two years later he earned his master's in agricultural economics, and the following two years he served the school in that department.

McLellan's second and long-lasting association with Clemson's athletic family began May 1, 1958, when he was appointed assistant business manager.

Although he held that title until 1966, McLellan served the athletic department in almost every imaginable area—from ticket managing and distribution, ordering and maintaining the equipment for all sports, and when the regular office staff turned out their lights upon completion of another day's work, McLellan journeyed out to the football field where he assisted his former coach with the grid duties.

In 1966, McLellan was appointed assistant athletic director, was named associate athletic director a couple of years later, and on Feb. 4, 1971, became the school's third director of athletics.

And it's been since that latter date that Clemson's athletic program has made tremendous strides.

Under McLellan's leadership, the entire athletic family relocated in the modern Frank Johnstone Jervy Center on West campus, and it's in this eye-catching structure where the dedicated Tiger AD makes his daily decisions in an effort to keep Clemson in the national limelight.

McLellan has directed improvements in all athletic areas, from aluminum seats for spectator comfort in Clemson Memorial Stadium to the most recent improvement in the program—the completion of the eight-lane swimming pool and the separate diving tank in Fike Recreation Center.

Certainly the men's varsity program speaks for itself—like the football team recording its best record a year ago since a 9-2 finish in 1959, and like the basketball team achieving its first-ever national ranking and making its first-ever trip to post-season tournament play, and like the soccer team recording its third straight ACC crown and third straight berth to the NCAA playoffs, and like the baseball team experiencing its 18th consecutive winning campaign on its way to the NCAA playoffs.

However, McLellan has directed his efforts to the overall program, including the intramural department for Clemson faculty, staff, and students alike, and the most recent addition of a women's athletic program.

A year ago, the former was in its second year of a five-year McLellan-engineered plan, as the intramural department had grown to the point that it now requires four full-time staff directors.

And last year, the Tigers fielded women's teams in fencing, swimming and tennis, with the latter posting a fine 10-2 record. Then this winter, a Clemson women's basketball team will join that trio.

So it's been a constant climb by Clemson's athletic program under the leadership of Bill McLellan, and a climb that will certainly continue as the Tigers seek an overall program second to none.

McLellan is married to the former Ann Rogers of Fork, and they have two daughters, Suzy, a sophomore at Winthrop, and Arch Anna, and two sons, Bill and Cliff.

Head Football Coach—RED PARKER

1974 Atlantic Coast Conference and South Carolina Coach-of-the-Year

In just two short years at Clemson University, Red Parker has given Tiger fans something to howl about. And whereas the howl from Tigertown has been a pleasant one, a howl of reverent awe has been heard from Clemson opponents.

Because in those two years—1973 and 1974—Parker's Tigers have netted almost 8,000 yards of total offense, and have scored more points (477) than Clemson managed in 34 previous games (475) prior to his arrival at Tigertown.

And last fall, in just his sophomore campaign, Parker led Clemson to its best finish with a 7-4 won-lost figure since the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl Tigers posted a 9-2 slate.

Along the way the Tigers knocked off a pair of opponents who would go on to post-season bowl affairs, and because of Clemson's tie for second place in the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Redhead was tabbed as both the league's and State of South Carolina's Coach-of-the-Year in 1974.

A native of Hampton, Ark., Parker was a standout in football, baseball, and track at Arkansas A&M, graduating in 1953.

After a couple of months in a summer baseball league, the Redhead was appointed prep mentor at Fordyce, Ark., High School, a school that was experiencing the misfortune of a 22-game grid losing streak.

But in eight seasons with Parker at the helm, Fordyce lost but a dozen games on its way to an impressive 75-12-4 record which included a 37-game winning streak.

In 1961 Parker returned to his alma mater as head coach, remaining there for five seasons. During his stay, A&M posted a 29-19-2 record, including a 24-5-1 ledger from 1963-65, and a pair of league titles.

Meanwhile, The Citadel had launched a search for a head coach who had a winning tradition, and that's how the Redhead became a Palmetto State resident.

And from 1966 through 1972, the Bulldogs established themselves as one of the most respected and dangerous grid teams in the Southern Conference, all because Parker introduced the veer offense to the area, and it didn't take long to leave its mark.

The 1971 Cadet squad raced to a fine 8-3 record, scored 366 points, and chalked up over 5,000 yards of total offense that season which ranked The Citadel as the nation's fourth-leading producer of real estate.

Parker's seven-year stand in Charleston gave the Bulldogs a 39-34 won-lost column.

His fourth head coaching position in as many schools is the one for which Tiger followers are grateful, because in December of 1972, the Smilin' Redhead became Clemson's 19th head coach.

Armed with his potent veer offense, Parker's enthusiasm and determination to make the Tigers a winner resulted in a 5-6 record his first season at Clemson and a third place finish in the ACC behind bowl-bound N. C. State and Maryland.

And last season's 7-4 record gave the Redhead a two-year Clemson mark of 12-10, and a 14-year head coaching record of 80-63-2 in the college ranks.

Prior to his initial grid campaign at Clemson, Parker promised to leave no stone unturned nor any avenue unexplored in an effort to put the Tigers' football fortunes along side of the country's top powers.

For the past two seasons, the Tigers' football fortunes have definitely been on the upswing. And if his past record is any indication of what to expect, then Parker's Tigers should continue to show improvement with each grid campaign.

Parker and his wife, the former Betty Goggans of Rison, Ark., have three children—Mrs. Vicki Wallace; Cindy, a student at Clemson; and Jim Mack.

Parker and '74 Tig Quarterback Mark Fellers discuss strategy.

DWIGHT ADAMS, Linebackers

Defense is his game. And linebackers are the main concern to Dover, Ark., native Dwight Adams, heading into his third season with the Clemson Tigers.

A quick glance at his past record is evidence enough to prove that Adams and the word "successful" are synonymous.

It all began when he was an undergraduate at Henderson State College where he was an all-conference gridder prior to his graduation in 1958.

Then it picked up a little more momentum when Adams spent four impressive seasons as head coach at Pine Bluff, Ark., High School, and another fine year at Lake Charles,

La., High School.

In 1966 he joined Red Parker at The Citadel, and in seven years at The Military College of South Carolina, Adams specialized in the defensive ends and linebackers, and still found time to coach the Bulldog track team.

His reward for his efforts—Adams has produced eight high school or collegiate All-America selections, including a pair of all-pro gridgers.

Adams and his wife, the former Jo Bickham of Tillar, Ark., have three children—Jana (16), Scott (14), and Ruth (12).

TOM BASS, Defensive Ends

The name Tom Bass is a well known one around Clemson football circles, because the past eight years of his life have been dedicated to the efforts of building the Tigers' grid program.

A native of Mooresville, N. C., Bass was a standout performer at Maryville College in both football and baseball, earning his degree in 1960.

Bass entered the prep coaching ranks as an assistant at Sevier County, Tenn., High School, and one year later he found himself occupying the position as head mentor at that institution.

In four seasons there, he led the team to a won-lost mark of 35-7-2, and in 1964 Bass was tabbed as East Tennessee's Coach-of-the-Year.

Doug Dickey, then head coach at Tennessee, hired Bass as a Vol assistant, and one season later—in 1968—he joined the Clemson program. The veteran of the staff as far as tenure at Tigertown is concerned, Bass has served as head freshman mentor and defensive interior coach in addition to his present duties.

Bass and his wife, the former Susan Price of Knoxville, Tenn., have three children—Steven (9), Laura (6), and John (5).

LARRY BECKISH, Receivers

Larry Beckish, now in his seventh season at Tigertown, knows quite a bit about receivers. He should. Because he was an All-Missouri Valley Conference end during his playing days at Wichita State.

A native of Haledon, N. J., Beckish also captained the Shockers his senior year, in 1963, then remained at his alma mater for the next two years as an assistant.

His first step away from WSU was a two-year stint as offensive line coach at Tampa for the 1966 and 1967 grid campaigns, and in 1968 Frank Howard hired the youthful Beckish.

After three campaigns at Tigertown, Beckish packed his bags for the University of Miami where he spent the 1971 season as offensive backfield coach for Fran Curci's Hurricanes.

But in 1972 he returned to Clemson, served as Cub mentor that fall, and '75 will mark the third year he has spent with the Tig receivers. A year ago his top tight end Bennie Cunningham was a consensus All-America selection.

Beckish is married to the former Alice Morley of Wichita, Kan., an honor graduate of Clemson, and they have two sons—Michael (10) and Chris (5).

JOE BURSON, Defensive Backs

The Clemson secondary is in excellent hands with a young coach named Joe Burson, who is entering his sixth grid campaign with the Tigers.

A native of Newnan, Ga., Burson used to harass the Clemson passing attack as a defensive back himself with Vince Dooley's Georgia Bulldogs.

But things have changed, and following his '66 graduation from Georgia, Burson was drafted by the NFL Washington Redskins, however an old collegiate knee injury brought a halt to his professional aspirations.

He returned to his home state and coached at Griffin High School for a pair of grid campaigns, and then his old Georgia secondary coach Hootie Ingram, who had since assumed the Clemson reins, brought Burson to Tigertown. He has spent a year as JV defensive coordinator, two years as defensive end coach, and is now in his third season with the secondary.

He is married to the former Denise Johanson, a Clemson honor graduate, of North Caldwell, N. J.

RONNIE CARTER, Assistant Offensive Line

Now in his third year at Clemson, Ronnie Carter, a native of Fordyce, Ark., has literally come up through the grid ranks with Red Parker.

An outstanding prep athlete, Carter lettered in basketball and track and was a standout halfback for Parker at Fordyce High School. Then after his initial collegiate season at the University of Arkansas, Carter transferred to Arkansas A&M, where Parker had assumed the head grid coaching position, and again took the role as his coach's top running back.

Following graduation in 1967, Carter spent a year as assistant at Monticello, Ark., High School, and as the head coach the next two seasons.

He came to the State of South Carolina in 1970 as a grid assistant at Charleston's St. Andrews High School, and was named that school's head mentor the following season. He posted a two-year mark of 16-5 before re-joining Parker at Tigertown for the 1973 grid campaign—the first at Clemson for both coaches.

Carter and his wife, the former Diane Rash of Monticello, Ark., have a daughter—Jennifer (3).

ED EMORY, Running Backs

Ed Emory earned the title as one of the top prep coaches in the area, and now in his third season with the Tigers, that tag would seem to apply to his collegiate stint as well.

A native of Lancaster, Emory was a standout offensive lineman for the East Carolina Pirates prior to his graduation in 1960.

He spent a three-year assistantship at Kinston, N. C., High School before assuming the top spot at Wadesboro, N. C., High. Four seasons at that position and one as head mentor at Wadesboro's Bowman HS earned him a spot on the Wake Forest staff in 1968.

However, the head position at football-rich Brevard, N. C., High School came open the next fall, and in four seasons there he led the Blue Devils to a 35-7 record, once earning Western North Carolina Coach-of-the-Year honors.

His overall prep coaching mark was a sparkling 75-17-2, and three times he reaped conference Coach-of-the-Year accolades.

Emory is married to the former Virginia Jones of Greenville, N. C., and they have three children—Ed, Jr., Lucille, and Battle.

TOM MOORE, Assistant Defensive Backs

Entering his fifth season on the Clemson football staff, Tom Moore is beginning his first season with the Tiger varsity after spending his first four campaigns with the Cub team.

A native of Dayton, O., Moore preped at Beaver Falls, Pa., High School, and enrolled at The Citadel on a football scholarship offer from then Bulldog mentor Red Parker.

He earned three varsity grid letters at The Citadel as a running back-split receiver, served as co-captain his senior season, and left the school with All-Southern Conference honors as well.

Moore spent a year in the prep ranks at Aurora Central, Colo., High School as offensive coordinator, and then accepted a position on the Wichita State staff as freshman coach in 1968.

He was elevated to the varsity staff as receiver coach for the 1969 and 1970 campaigns, and a year later he was back in the Palmetto State with the Tigers.

Moore and his wife, the former Joyce Stewart of Clemson, have two children—Rhett (5) and Ashley (1).

DON MURRY, Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks

Don Murry has spent the past two seasons as Clemson's offensive coordinator and quarterback coach, and for the past two seasons the Tigers have ground out over 7,500 total yards.

And the total offense marks for quarterbacks Ken Pengitore, All-ACC in '73, and Mark Fellers, the Tig starter in '74, have read 1,941 yards and 1,227 yards respectively.

A native of Hampton, Ark., Murry was an all-conference gridder and cager at Warren High School, and a collegiate standout at Arkansas A&M for Red Parker before his graduation in 1966.

tion in 1966.

He spent a season as a graduate assistant with Parker at his alma mater, then joined the Redhead at The Citadel for a seven year relationship.

There, Murry coached the receivers, including All-America Brian Baima who led the nation in most yards receiving in 1971.

Murry is married to the former Libby Gibbs of Crossett, Ark., and they are the parents of two children—Barry (5) and Leslie (1½).

DUKE OWEN, Offensive Line

Duke Owen has been at Clemson for the past five seasons, and he's made quite a name for himself during that period of time.

A Lebanon, Ky., native, Owen joined the Tiger staff in 1970 following a one-year term as offensive line coach at Cincinnati. And that fall he took a group of dedicated freshmen and posted a 4-1 record, including three shutouts in the Cubs last three outings.

Since then, Owen has been the man in charge of the "Fox Hole Five," the Tiger front wall, and any Clemson running back will attest to the superb job the offensive line does.

Following graduation from Georgetown, Ky., College in 1953, Owen built a prep powerhouse at Mount Sterling, Ky., High School with a nine-year slate of 76-29-4.

After guiding that team to the state playoffs on a regular basis, the University of Kentucky obtained his services for a four-year term prior to his one-season at Cincinnati.

Owen and his wife, the former Florence Deeb of Louisville, Ky., have two sons—David (17) and Mitchell (15).

HAROLD STEELMAN, Defensive Coordinator

A lot of the success and continued improvement of the Clemson defense can be attributed to Harold Steelman, the Tigers' defensive coordinator who has been on Red Parker's grid staff for what is now a 14-year period.

A native of Pine Bluff, Ark., Steelman spent two years at Little Rock Junior College before moving on to the University of Arkansas where he graduated in 1955.

And during his two-year playing career with the Razorbacks, Steelman played on the '54 Arkansas Cotton Bowl team.

His initial taste of coaching came in the prep ranks for a six year period—two seasons each at the Arkansas high schools in Texarkana, Lewisville, and Eldorado.

Stelman joined Parker at Arkansas A&M in 1962 and remained there until the latter was appointed head coach at The Citadel in 1966. Steelman came to Charleston that same year and spent seven productive campaigns with the Bulldogs.

Stelman is married to the former Carolyn Corley of Little Rock, Ark., and they have two children—Sara Lyn (19) and Hal (16).

BILL SWINGER, Jayvee Coordinator and Assistant Recruiter

Bill Swinger, who is entering his third season at Clemson, will enter the '75 campaign as both the jayvee coordinator and the recruiting assistant.

A native of Anderson, Swinger led Westside High School to the state grid title as a prep quarterback in 1961, and went on to star at South Carolina State as both a signal-caller and defensive back, earning all-conference and all-state honors as a collegian.

He served as head coach in both football and basketball for two years at New Deal High School in Starr following graduation from S. C. State, then spent a two-year tour of duty with the U. S. Army, including a stint in Viet Nam.

Swinger was an assistant at Westside for three years following discharge from the service prior to coming to Tigertown, where he has since earned his master's.

A year ago Swinger received the South Carolina Exceptional Service to Mankind Award when his efforts helped save the life of a seven-year-old child, who had been presumed drowned, by applying heart massage and resuscitation.

Swinger is married to the former Yvonne Carter of Anderson and they have two daughters—Monique (4½) and Melanie (2).

CLYDE WRENN, Recruiting Coordinator

Chester native Clyde Wrenn is beginning his fourth season on the Clemson staff, and third as the Tigers' chief recruiter.

He came to Tigertown in 1972 and served as assistant junior varsity coach, got his initial taste of recruiting and scouting, and took over the two latter chores the next season.

Wrenn played baseball at Spartanburg Junior College, and transferred to N. C. State for his final two campaigns. He graduated from State in 1965 with a degree in recreation and park administration.

He joined the staff at Southside High School in Florence the next fall as head baseball coach and head assistant for the football team, and remained at that school for five years.

Wrenn earned his master's from Western Carolina and then spent a two-year stand as athletic director and head football coach at West Florence High School.

Wrenn is married to the former Willa Lynn of Chester, and they have two sons—Craig (6) and Cal (3).

FRED HOOVER, Head Trainer

For the past 16 years, Fred Hoover, a native of Jacksonville, Fla., has served as the head trainer for Clemson's entire athletic program. And it would be an understatement to say that athletes' training needs have certainly been in well-qualified hands.

Hoover earned his BS degree in physical education from Florida State in 1953, where he served as head trainer for the Seminoles in 1952-53 and again in 1957-58.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, "Doc" Hoover has held about every position in that organization including national convention chairman and national president, an indication of the respect and ability shown him by his peers.

Hoover served as the head trainer for the United States at the Pan American Games in Sao Paulo, Brazil in 1963, and was selected as a staff member for the U. S. team in the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich.

He is married to the former Elva Cook of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and they have two children—Catherine Ann (17) and Bryan (14).

WALT McCOMBS, Assistant Trainer

Young and likeable Walt McCombs returned to his native state two years ago after a couple of seasons with the basketball program at the University of Kentucky.

A native of nearby Belton, McCombs grew up in the Greenville area and graduated from Parker High School.

He enrolled at The Citadel, served as a student trainer while a cadet, and graduated in 1971.

McCombs joined the Wildcat staff that fall as an assistant trainer with the football team, but legendary coach Adolph Rupp assigned him as Kentucky's head cage trainer. Following Rupp's retirement, McCombs stayed with Joe Hall and the Wildcats for one campaign before returning to South Carolina.

McCombs, who is single, has an older brother, Cal, who is a football assistant at The Citadel.

HERMAN McGEE, Assistant Trainer

There are very few athletes who return to Clemson who fail to pay a social call to Herman McGee, because with 42 years of service at Tigertown under his belt, it's more than likely that Herman taped their ankles.

Herman was 16 years old when he joined the Clemson staff following his graduation from Riverside (now Pendleton) High School in 1934, and other than a four and a half year stint with the Infantry, he has been a fixture around the Tiger athletic scene.

He has served as both assistant and head trainer as well as equipment manager during his tenure, which now stands as the longest by a current staff member.

Herman has been on the sidelines at all of Clemson's seven post-season bowl games, and many a student athlete in all the Tigers' varsity sports will tell you that their experience at Clemson was a little more meaningful because of Herman McGee.

Academic Advisor

Rick Robbins

Rick Robbins probably spends more time with the more than 300 Clemson athletes than any other individual on the staff, because for the entire school year, the Austin, Tex., native is the Tiger "Brain-coach."

A graduate of the University of Texas, Robbins, or "Colonel" as he is referred to by the athletes, spent 25 years with the U. S. Army, and retired with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

He has been assistant professor of military science at both the University of Houston and at Clemson. 1975 will be his ninth year on the Tig athletic staff.

Robbins is married to the former Clare Eaves of Palestine, Tex., and they have two sons—Dick (21), a senior at Clemson and football manager, and Tommy (17).

Equipment Staff

Tom Burton — Bobby Long

Tom Burton gained a great amount of organizational ability during his 22-year career in the United States Army, and he's certainly put it to good practice during the past six years that he has been Clemson's equipment manager.

Born in Richmond, Va., Burton's military career carried him to active duty in eight foreign countries, including three tours of the Far East.

He joined the Clemson ROTC staff and spent seven years at Tigertown in that area, then spent one year at Furman with the ROTC program.

"Sarge" Burton is married to the former Bea Davis of Lynchburg, Va., and they have two married daughters—Jan (22) and Jerri (21).

Then last year Bobby Long, a Clemson graduate and former staff member, re-joined the Tiger program as Burton's assistant and as strength coach.

A native of Savannah, Ga., Long was a defensive back for the Tigs in the mid-1960's, and following his stint on the gridiron, he helped with the football recruiting chores.

He is married to the former Becky Rice of Anderson, and they have two children—Deena (7) and Dean (4).

Staff Telephone Numbers

Clemson's athletic staff is housed in the new and modern Frank Johnstone Jervy Athletic Center which is located on west campus and just across the street from Littlejohn Coliseum.

There are six direct lines to the Jervy Center, all rotating from 656-2101. Should you experience difficulty in reaching a coach who has an office other than the one in Jervy, you may leave a message with the receptionist, Mrs. Martha Garrison, at the Center.

PAWS FOR EXCITEMENT...

1975 TIGER OUTLOOK—48 Lettermen Back, But Parker Looks For QB Replacement And Senior Leadership

Red Parker, who led his second Clemson football team to an exciting 7-4 finish in '74 and was named both the Atlantic Coast Conference and State of South Carolina Coach-of-the-Year along the way, has 48 lettermen back from that team which gave the Tigers their best finish since the 1959 squad.

But before Clemson fans begin celebrating, Parker quickly reminds Tiger followers that high on the list of priorities are, (1) finding a replacement for quarterback Mark Fellers, and (2) replacing that tangible-intangible combination that goes together in giving a team senior leadership.

Fellers led the Tigers in real estate with 1,227 yards of total offense, passed for 10 touchdowns, and ran for nine more. And senior leadership "was the finest I've ever been involved with during my 22-year coaching career," observed Parker.

Then to compound matters, Clemson replaced ACC foe Virginia—a team it had beaten in all 16 previous meetings—with tough independent Tulane, and dropped Tennessee in favor of Alabama—a team that went 11-1 last fall and just missed a national title—to give the Tigers one of their most rugged schedules ever.

The 1975 season has been termed "Paws For Excitement," and regardless of the obstacles, Parker and his staff are directing their efforts toward another exciting year for Clemson football.

OFFENSE

When Parker came to Tigertown prior to the 1973 season, he brought a potent veer offense with him, and in two grid campaigns, Clemson has amassed almost 8,000 yards of real estate and scored almost 500 points.

The Parker system, or Tiger Triple, is a split duo of running backs behind the signal-caller, and requires a quarterback adept at quick decisions while reading the opponent defense.

And for 1975, Parker has 19 offensive lettermen returning, including six starters from the '74 unit.

Senior tackle Gary Alexander returns for what should be an outstanding campaign for the Tiger lineman.

Offensive Line

Graduation ripped the heart out of the offensive line as center Maret Cobb, and guards Ken Peeples, All-ACC the past two seasons, and Curt Buttermore are gone. That left tackles Neal Jetton and Gary Alexander as the lone returning starters, and the latter finished the spring drills behind red-shirt sophomore Breck Culler.

Senior letterman David LeBel, sophomore Billy Hudson, and junior George Hyams, a non-letterman, were all looking for a tackle spot in the spring, and if those two positions look young as far as depth is concerned, only two of the top five guards for '75 lettered last fall.

Sophomore Lacy Brumley and senior Ed Homonoff carry the letterman tag, and Homonoff was number two behind sophomore Jimmy Weeks when the off-

Tight end Bennie Cunningham led Clemson in receiving last fall and with touchdown receptions (7) as well. The consensus All-American is shown here hauling in what was a 65-yard scoring pass-run against Tennessee a year ago.

In just his sophomore season, Ken Callicutt led the Clemson ground attack last fall with 809 yards. Shown above, Callicutt crosses the goal line against arch-rival South Carolina in a game he rushed for a career high 197 yards.

Don Testerman breaks up the middle on his way to a 68-yard TD scamper against Tennessee last fall. A senior in '75, Testerman rushed for 146 yard on 11 carries against the Vols and was named Rookie-of-the-Week by the ACC for his performance.

season drills ended. Two more sophomores, Archie Reese, and red-shirt David Morris are impressive but lacking on experience.

And speaking of experience, senior Frank Bethea has that, but not at the spot he played in the spring—center. Bethea moved over from his tackle spot, finished the spring as a still-shakey number one, and has junior letterman George Jehlen and junior Gregg Smith, and sophomore Steve Kenney behind him.

Needless to say, this position could determine how successful the Tigers are early in the year.

Receivers

This looks to be Clemson's most depth-laden area on the entire team, with seven of the top nine gridgers who fill the three positions—tight end, split receiver, and flanker—returning lettermen.

Tight end Bennie Cunningham led the Tigers in receiving last fall (24 receptions for 391 yards and 7 touchdowns), and went on to earn first-team All-America honors from AP, UPI, and Kodak—the Coaches' A-A squad.

A senior this fall, Cunningham has adequate backing from junior Harold Cain and red-shirt soph Richard Ibach.

Steve Gibbs broke into the starting unit at split receiver as a freshman in '74, and did a superb job, especially with his blocking assignments. He's backed up by junior Rickey Bustle, who was second to Cunningham in receiving, and red-shirt soph Rich Bollinger.

The top three flankers, senior Craig Brantley, junior Joey Walters, and sophomore Warren Ratchford, are all lettermen with good speed and sure hands, and all are considered as deep threats.

Backs

Quarterback, of course, is Parker's main concern, and of replacing Fellers. Junior Mike O'Cain, who played number two in '74, finished the spring as the heir-apparent to that spot, despite the fact that he was bothered by a slight shoulder separation during the middle of the off-season work.

Sophomore Jeff Mills (66), above left, leads a host of his teammates in swarming a Georgia tech ball carrier, and senior Jerome Hill (64), above right, applies the pressure on a South Carolina quarterback. The pair return as starters at the defensive tackle spots.

O'Cain's competition will come from sophomore Rick Weddington, who directed the jayvee offense a year ago, and who is a much-gifted athlete, and junior Rut Livingston, who turned in an impressive spring.

Still, O'Cain would have to get the nod, on experience alone, but a lot could happen during the fall workouts and the first couple of games in 1975.

Regardless of who starts at quarterback, he will have some talented running backs in lettermen Ken Callicutt, Don Testerman, Leon Hope, and William Scott, red-shirt Bob Coffey, and soph Thomas Eley.

Callicutt led the Tigs in rushing with 809 yards as a soph last fall, Testerman added 368 yards, and Hope netted 115 yards. Scott is no doubt the fastest, and Eley adds size to excellent speed, whereas Coffey is known for his sheer power.

DEFENSE

Defensively, Clemson employs what is known as the "50" or "52" alignment, with a five-man front—four interior defenders and a middle guard—and a pair of linebackers.

The secondary consists of two cornerbacks, a free safety, and a strong-side safety, commonly called a rover, or Tiger by Clemson terminology.

Twenty-nine of the returning lettermen are defensive performers, including seven starters from 1974.

Defensive Line

Sophomore Jeff Mills and senior Jerome Hill, both bona fide all-star candidates, are returning starters at the two tackle spots, and senior G. G. Galloway could be considered a third starter.

Junior Nelson Wallace, lightning-quick, who started at middle guard as a freshman and played behind Willie Anderson there last fall, is back in a starting role, and listed behind him is sophomore Thad Allen, who lettered at tackle a year ago. Junior letterman Mike Gravely should also see playing time here in '75.

Senior Frank Wise had a superb spring at end, and his running mate looks to be junior letterman Gary Kesack. But senior Tim Blackwelder and junior C. H. Ducworth, two lettermen, and red-shirt soph Chris Clifford will all have something to say about the starting duo at end.

Linebackers

These two spots are manned by six returning lettermen, headed by senior all-star candidate Jimmy Williamson,

Senior Frank Wise experienced a most impressive spring session, and the defensive end may be one of the best the Tigers have had at this position in a few years.

Senior Jimmy Williamson, a Rookie All-American selection as a sophomore, puts an abrupt halt to a Tennessee Volunteer runner. A bona fide all-star candidate, Williamson ranks as one of the top linebackers in the South.

Clemson's leading tackler in 1974.

A Rookie All-America choice as a sophomore, Williamson will hold down one of the starting spots, with junior Tim Stough and sophomore Ronnie Smith running a neck-and-neck battle for the other first team berth.

Senior Dennis Silver and two soph lettermen—Garry McDowell and Mark Heniford are destined for a considerable amount of playing time in '75, as is red-shirt soph Travers Webb who lettered as a freshman in 1973, but missed the '74 season because of a back ailment.

Secondary

Again, letterman is the key word. Of the four positions, Parker and his staff will pick from 11 returning letter winners.

Senior Lynn Carson regained his old cornerback spot in the spring after missing the last 10 games in '74, replacing junior Bill Wingo who spent the off-season as an All-ACC second baseman on the Tig diamond team.

Junior Mark Lee should hold his old starting spot at the other corner, and Malcolm Marler and Mike Cornell offer adequate back-up.

Soph letterman Ogden Hansford looks to be the replacement for All-ACC strong-side safety Jim Ness, with junior Brian Kier and soph Mike Baldwin, both letter winners, behind Hansford.

Dennis Smith started the last nine games as Clemson's free safety a year ago and led the team and ACC in interceptions, and he was actually filling in for injured All-ACC safety Peanut Martin. So the Tigs rank as having the best one-two punch in the league at this position with seniors Smith and Martin. Junior O. J. Tyler could see action here as well as any of the other three secondary spots.

After earning All-ACC honors at his safety spot as a sophomore in 1973, Peanut Martin suffered a broken leg in the second game of the year last fall and missed Clemson's last nine outings. He's back, and appears to be headed for a good senior campaign.

SPECIALISTS

Graduation stripped Clemson of punter Mitch Tyner, who had a better-than 40-yard average per kick in both '73 and '74, and placekicker and kickoff man Bob Burgess. This left the Tigers with a handful of non-scholarship candidates in the spring for these two important duties, and these may loom as Parker's toughest rebuilding areas.

Warren Ratchford, the speedy flanker, led Clemson in kickoff returns as a freshman last fall with 480 yards on 20 returns, finished second in punt returns, and although he failed to break one for a varsity TD, he caused a flutter in the hearts of quite a few opponents.

Fellow flanker Joey Walters also handled some return duty as did William Scott, giving Clemson a trio of dangerous kick return specialists.

SUMMARY

The offense may sputter at the beginning, mainly due to the uncertainty at both center and quarterback, but Parker is hoping that the improved Tiger defense can take up the slack until the offense gets rolling. Just how long the defense can hold up is unknown, as Clemson faces four offensive toughies to start the season in Tulane, Alabama, Georgia Tech and Georgia.

Speedy Warren Ratchford led Clemson in kickoff returns last fall as a freshman, and here he returns a North Carolina kick 55 yards. Against UNC, Ratchford returned four kickoffs for 156 yards, or better than a 30-yard return average.

CLEMSON TRADITIONS

School Colors and Nickname

The late William J. Latimer, a 1906 graduate of Clemson College, did some extensive research on the football program at his alma mater, and offered the following in regard to the school's nickname and colors:

Professor Walter Merritt Riggs, who coached Clemson's first varsity football team in 1896, and who also served as head coach again in 1899, is said to have "planted the seed" for the school's grid program.

In referring to the players from that first team, Latimer said, "Due to the lack of helmets and head protection they

(the players) wore long hair. These long manes might have gained them the name of Lions had it not been for the orange and purple striped jerseys and stockings that resembled tigers. The latter nickname seemed to stick."

Latimer then observed about John Heisman's 1900 Clemson team: "They had been called Tigers early in their career. And Clemson used the insignia of a Tigers' head with bared fangs, with the motto 'Eat Em Up Clemson' before Heisman's day."

Latimer's findings are substantiated

by the fact that Riggs had played football at Auburn (nicknamed Tigers) and that its colors were orange and blue.

The official colors of the school are Northwest Purple and Burnt Orange, with the predominant colors on today's athletic uniforms being orange and white.

The Clemson Tiger was modified somewhat in the summer of 1970, and to separate him from the other tigers at other schools, the University adopted the Tiger Paw. The Paw did not replace the Tiger, but the two go hand-in-hand, or should we say hand-in-foot.

OG GARY McKENZIE (GARY) ALEXANDER

6-6 . . . 234 . . . Sr . . . Seneca

A rugged offensive lineman with both the mental and physical capabilities to become one of the best ever in the school's history . . . preped at nearby Seneca High School with teammate and roommate Bennie Cunningham . . . Gary has seen action in both a starting and reserve role during his Clemson career, and has played both guard and tackle . . . most of his time was spent at the latter spot in the spring, but he has the poise and the knowledge to play either position . . . no doubt that Gary is the most experienced of the Tiger linemen going into the 1975 campaign . . . with a little more work on improving his foot speed and his explosiveness, Gary could be headed for a tremendous senior year . . . born 1/16/54 . . . industrial education major.

FLK CRAIG DEATON (CRAIG) BRANTLEY

6-1 . . . 176 . . . Sr . . . Charlotte, N. C.

From the football-rich program at Myers Park High School in the Queen City, Craig is the swiftest receiver on the Clemson squad . . . and if he continues in his same receiving pattern then he'll likely go down as one of the most impressive pass-catchers ever in the school's history . . . Craig boasts a two-year reception figure of 280 yards on five aerials for a 56.0 yard per catch average . . . and three of those five aerials went for long touchdowns—a 53-yarder against Georgia Tech in '73, and a 55-yarder and school-record 97-yarder against Virginia last fall . . . so it's easy to see why Craig is called the best deep threat on the team . . . he had an outstanding spring practice and finished the off-season as the top flanker . . . born 8/6/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

TE BENNIE LEE (BENNIE) CUNNINGHAM

6-5 . . . 239 . . . Sr. . . . Seneca

Clemson's leading receiver for the past two seasons, Bennie became just the third Tiger gridder, third South Carolina collegian, and only second Palmetto State native (Great Falls product Banks McFadden was the first in 1939) to earn consensus All-America honors on the gridiron when he reaped AP, UPI, and Kodak first-team accolades last fall . . . the massive Tiger tight end is extremely dangerous as a clutch receiver, and almost 30 per cent of his receptions went for touchdowns a year ago—the longest a 65-yarder against Tennessee . . . Bennie is a rugged ball-carrier, and most adept as an open-field blocker . . . he's been labeled a great player by college and professional coaches alike . . . born 12/23/54 . . . secondary education major.

DT RAY JEROME (JEROME) HILL

6-2 . . . 235 . . . Sr. . . . Pilot Mountain, N. C.

Came to Clemson prior to his junior campaign after a highly-successful JUCO career at Lees-McRae where he earned first-team All-America honors and the tab as the Coastal Conference's Lineman-of-the-Year . . . and after his initial day on the Tiger practice field, Clemson coaches knew his honors were justified . . . after landing a spot on the starting defensive line, Jerome went on to finish the season as the Tigers' eighth leading tackler, being credited with an 11-game total of 63 stops . . . the big defender possesses outstanding speed which is most vital for that defensive tackle slot, in addition to being extremely competitive . . . one of the team's true leaders, Jerome needs to be a tad more aggressive around the ball in order to insure him of all-star honors and the chance for a nice professional pact . . . born 11/18/53 . . . education major.

OT NEAL CARSON (NEAL) JETTON

6-3 ...232 ...Sr. ...Charlotte, N. C.

Neal began a hill climb in the spring before his junior campaign at Tigertown, and on the eve of his final season in the Orange and White, the Charlottean could be considered Clemson's finest overall offensive lineman ... Red Parker once described Neal by saying "the opponent may whip him, but no one will ever out tough him," to exemplify the kind of determination that this rugged gridder possesses ... his burning desire to win and to be a great player earned him a spot on Clemson's starting line last fall, and from all indications of last spring's practice session, Neal looks to be headed down the stretch in high gear ... a definite all-league performer ... born 10/21/53 ... administrative management major.

DB EDWARD DENNIS (DENNIS) SMITH

6-0 ...166 ...Sr. ...Elba, Ala.

In the words of Clemson coach Red Parker, "Dennis was the most improved player we had on the 1974 football team" ... after spending a freshman year at split receiver, Dennis played in a reserve role to All-ACC safety Peanut Martin his sophomore season, and looked to be headed down that same path a year ago ... but an injury in Clemson's second game of the year sidelined Martin for the last nine encounters, and Dennis turned in as fine a performance as any other back in the league ... not only did he pace the Tigers in interceptions, but his six was also an ACC high ... his most memorable came with just 12 seconds showing on the clock in the season finale against USC when he returned an aerial 31 yards for Clemson's final TD in the Tigs' 39-21 win ... may switch from safety as a senior, but should still rank as one of the league's best ... born 7/12/53 ... industrial management major.

LB JAMES ARTHUR (JIMMY) WILLIAMSON

6-1 . . . 208 . . . Sr. . . . Walterboro

Without a doubt, Jimmy Williamson ranks as one of the finest linebackers in not only the ACC, but the entire South as well . . . Jimmy reaped Rookie All-America honors by the FOOTBALL NEWS as a sophomore in 1972, but missed the majority of the '73 year because of a knee injury . . . the rugged defender returned to the Tiger lineup last fall and finished the season as the team's leading tackler, being credited with a total of 123 stops on enemy ball carriers . . . according to the coaching staff, Jimmy experienced the best spring ever in his Tiger career . . . he is bigger and stronger than he has ever been, and his lateral movement ranks him with anyone in the country . . . this should be a great fall for Jimmy Williamson . . . born 11/25/52 . . . administrative management major.

DE FRANK EDWARD (FRANK) WISE

6-2 . . . 221 . . . Sr. . . . Columbia

Frank Wise lettered for the Tigers at linebacker as both a freshman and sophomore, was even considered as a possible defensive secondary prospect because of his skills, but was moved to defensive end because of a lack of depth . . . and after a full season at that latter spot a year ago, Frank earned the title as "the best defensive end we have had in three spring practices" from Tig head coach Red Parker . . . in summing up his performance, the coaches observe that this Columbia native does everything like it should be done . . . preped at Eau Claire High School, the same one that produced Tom Boozer, one of Clemson's starting defensive ends last fall . . . had a 36-yard return of an intercepted pass for a TD against Wake Forest in '73 . . . a real team leader . . . born 6/19/54 . . . majoring in political science.

DB Steve Christopher (Steve) Addis
6-0 170 So. Seneca

Walk-on candidate from nearby Seneca High School where he earned two letters each in football, golf, track, and wrestling . . . was a jayvee performer last fall and will provide back-up in Tiger secondary this season . . . diagnoses well . . . born 7/3/56 . . . majoring in secondary education.

DB Michael Paul (Mike) Baldwin
6-0 193 So. Baltimore, Md.

Earned a varsity letter for the Tigers as a freshman last fall . . . a strong hitter with much football savvy and the kind of knowledge about the game to become a real winner . . . an all-conference and all-state prepster at Archbishop Curley where he was an outstanding running back . . . born 4/3/56 . . . recreation and park administration major.

MG Thaddeus (Thad) Allen
6-2 235 So. Charlotte, N. C.

Prep All-American at Garinger High School who experienced a good year with the Tig varsity as a freshman in '74 . . . drew some starting roles at DT a year ago, then got his try at MG in spring . . . has exceptional speed and quickness, and with a little more aggressiveness should be headed for a superb sophomore campaign . . . born 12/4/55 . . . administrative management major.

DB Jeffrey Scott (Jeff) Barton
5-11 188 So. Seneca

Defender on last year's Cub team, Jeff came to Clemson without a scholarship and has continued to make strides . . . figures to help in the secondary with the varsity as he acquires experience and maturity . . . born 4/25/56 . . . majoring in industrial education.

PK Russell George (Russell) Allison
5-8 140 So. Anderson

Came to Clemson without a scholarship, but earned a spot on the jayvee unit last fall as a freshman . . . a soccer-style booter with surprising strength for his diminutive size . . . a hard worker who will have a chance to boot for the varsity this fall . . . born 8/14/56 . . . majoring in administrative management.

DL Lawrence Dean (Larry) Beasley
6-3 230 Fr. Raleigh, N. C.

All-conference lineman at The Patterson School in Lenior where he averaged 14 tackles per game . . . also tabbed as team's most valuable lineman . . . earned prep letters in basketball, track, and baseball . . . born 12/30/55 . . . plans to major in psychology.

RB Jerome (Jerome) Benjamin
6-1 175 Fr. Holly Hill

Speedy running back from Holly Hill High School . . . rushed for 2,300 yards and scored 37 TD's as prep senior on his way to earning Class A Back-of-the-Year honors . . . member of '75 South team of SC All-Star Game . . . undecided on college major.

SR Charles Bradley (Brad) Ashley
5-11 178 Jr. Greensboro, N. C.

A returning non-letterman who spent the '74 season with the junior varsity squad . . . could also see action at defensive back or as a punter . . . earned two prep letters in football and one in baseball at Grimsley High School . . . born 12/2/54 . . . majoring in recreation and park administration.

C Frank Gibson (Frank) Bethea
6-0 222 Sr. Springfield

Starter for the past two seasons at tackle, and stellar line performer for the Tigers . . . because of a graduation loss at center, Frank was switched to that spot in the spring and made tremendous strides at this difficult-to-play position . . . and because of the complexity of the spot, will still have to improve in the fall workouts to maintain that number one position he held at the end of spring drills . . . All-American prepster at Hunter-Kinard . . . born 3/25/53 . . . industrial management major.

Blackwelder

Brumley

Buesing

Bollinger

Bustle

LB Everett Mitchell (Mitch) Blackman
6-5 200 Fr. Clinton, N. C.

Earned 10 prep letters at Harrells Academy in football, baseball, basketball, and track . . . three-time all-conference linebacker who averaged 14 tackles a game as junior and 17 as a senior . . . Harrells earned four consecutive Eastern NC titles . . . conference discus champ . . . born 5/14/57 . . . plans to major in biology.

DE Thomas Marvin (Tim) Blackwelder
6-4 225 Sr. Charlotte, N. C.

Has excellent size and speed to play his position, and probably no one wants to play anymore than Tim . . . a hard-hitter who is destined to be a superb performer in this his final season if he acquires the needed discipline required for defensive ends . . . preped at both South Mecklenburg and Olympic High Schools in the Queen City . . . born 9/24/51 . . . recreation and park administration major.

SR Richard Leon (Rich) Bollinger
6-5 199 So. Denville, N. J.

A red-shirt sophomore with excellent athletic ability . . . was the jayvee's leading receiver as a freshman, and even got in on some varsity playing time that year . . . with his hands and speed, Rich should make a solid contribution to the Clemson grid program for the next three seasons . . . born 11/6/54 . . . industrial education major.

DL Joe Earl (Joe) Bostic, Jr.
6-4 245 Fr. Greensboro, N. C.

One of most sought-after prepsters in North Carolina at Ben L. Smith High School . . . all-conference, All-South, and All-America lineman who started on victorious Shrine Bowl team . . . all-conference and school record holder in shot put, and State heavyweight wrestling champion . . . born 4/20/57 . . . probable education major.

SR Lloyd Clifton (Cliff) Bray, Jr.
6-5 210 Fr. Stone Mountain, Ga.

Hauled in 24 passes for 528 yards and eight TD's at Tucker High School, same prep team that sent now Pittsburgh Steeler TE John McMakin to Clemson . . . member of Georgia's North All-Star squad . . . All-America selection who was voted team captain and top offensive lineman . . . defensive standout on basketball team . . . born 3/19/57 . . . plans major in administrative management.

DE-TE Jonathan (Jonathan) Brooks
6-3 200 Fr. Saluda

Received four grid letters in football and three each in basketball and track at Saluda High School . . . two-time all-state and all-conference selection who reaped All-South accolades as senior . . . member of South Carolina Shrine Bowl Team . . . led prep team in receiving . . . born 6/22/57 . . . planning to major in administrative management.

OG Lacy Eugene (Lacy) Brumley
6-7 258 So. Kannapolis, N. C.

Probably as fine an offensive line prospect as there is in the entire country . . . played in a reserve role for the Tigers as a freshman, lettered a year ago, and looms as a favorite for a starting role this fall . . . to heavy in the spring, but by shedding a few pounds and with some improved quickness Lacy has the potential for stardom . . . born 4/10/56 . . . recreation and park administration major.

DB Jeffrey (Jeff) Buesing
6-3 179 Jr. Pompton Plains, N. J.

Came to Clemson as a receiver, but because of the solid corps of performers at the two wide-out spots, was shifted to the secondary in the spring drills . . . improved throughout the off-season workouts while making his adjustment to the new position . . . born 1/18/55 . . . majoring in industrial management.

SR Rickey Norman (Rickey) Bustle
5-11 189 Jr. Summerville

Considered to be the best clutch receiver on the squad by the Tiger coaching staff . . . although not necessarily the swiftest of the receivers, Rickey seems to possess the knack for doing the right things at the right moment . . . was second leading receiver on team last fall with nine receptions and two TD catches . . . born 8/23/53 . . . recreation and park administration major.

Carson

Cain

Carter

C. Clifford

Callicutt

TE Harold Dewitte (Harold) Cain
6-6 228 Jr. Columbus, Ga.

Although listed as the number two tight end, Harold is one of the finest players at his position as there is in the league . . . was a defensive end as a freshman, but threat as offensive player prompted the move to tight end spot . . . not only a gifted receiver, but an excellent blocker as well . . . expected to see a considerable amount of playing time this fall . . . born 12/31/54 . . . administrative management major.

RB Kenneth Byron (Ken) Callicutt
6-1 192 Jr. Chester

In just a brief two seasons, Ken Callicutt has established himself as one of the truly great Tiger running backs in the school's history . . . set school records for most yards rushing as a freshman (505 yards) and sophomore (809), and led the team in that department last fall . . . named to UPI National Backfield-of-the-Week with 170 yards rushing and 60 yards passing against UNC, but best ground effort came in 39-21 win over USC when Ken rushed for 197 yards . . . passed for two TDs last fall and rushed for five . . . experienced an outstanding spring practice and should reap all-star honors this fall . . . born 8/20/55 . . . recreation and park administration major.

DL Joseph Otto (Joe) Carolan
6-4 225 Fr. Grosse Pointe, Mich.

First-team all-conference selection for the past two years as a defensive tackle at University Liggett School . . . a standout baseball player as well, Joe was captain and all-league diamond performer in high school . . . also earned four wrestling letters . . . born 1/26/57 . . . looking for a career in the field of management.

DB Lynn Lionel (Lynn) Carson, III
5-11 162 Sr. Upper St. Clair, Pa.

Lynn went through an impressive spring practice session after sitting out the last 10 games of the '74 campaign . . . came to Clemson without a scholarship, led the Cubs in rushing as a freshman, and jumped right into the starting secondary as a sophomore—the same year he paced the team in interceptions . . . a probable starter somewhere in the Tiger secondary this fall . . . born 3/4/54 . . . building construction major.

RB-DB Richard Fricks (Rick) Carter
5-11 187 So. Walhalla

Rick spent his freshman season as a split receiver, and spent last fall as a red-shirt defensive back, a spot he occupied this past spring . . . but because of his exceptional cutting ability and fine speed, will likely be shifted to a permanent running back spot in the fall . . . good athlete and hard worker . . . born 6/26/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

QB Dwight Edward (Dwight) Clark
6-4 195 Fr. Charlotte, N. C.

Impressive signal-caller at Charlotte's Garinger High School, Dwight could see action as a receiver at Tigertown . . . earned three letters each in football, basketball, and track . . . was captain and all-county this past fall . . . born 1/8/57 . . . plans a career in the business field.

DE Chris Paul (Chris) Clifford
6-4 212 So. Coral Gables, Fla.

A highly-recruited defensive back as prepster at Coral Gables High School, Chris was shifted to defensive end because of his physical tools . . . although he has been nursing injuries for the past two spring sessions, Chris has unlimited potential as a DE, and closed out this recent off-season session in strong fashion . . . should see a lot of action this fall . . . born 7/29/55 . . . administrative management major.

RB-TE Mark James (Mark) Clifford
6-5 205 Fr. Coral Gables, Fla.

The sixth in a family of six brothers to earn a college grid scholarship . . . outstanding prep athlete at Coral Gables Sr. High where he averaged better than 6.0 yards per carry over the past two seasons, was team's leading receiver as a junior, and led the cage team in rebounding . . . ran 100-yd. dash and hurdles for track team . . . born 10/23/56 . . . plans to major in building construction.

DB Eddie (Eddie) Clifton
6-3 177 Fr. Statesboro, Ga.

An all-area selection at Statesboro High School for the past two grid campaigns . . . also lettered in baseball, basketball, and track . . . was a standout guard on the cage team and set school scoring titles on the hardwood . . . born 8/24/55 . . . plans to major in recreation and park administration.

Cornell

Ducworth

Coffey

Culler

Crawford

RB Robert Christopher (Bob) Coffey
6-0 192 So. Linwood, N. J.

A hard-running ball carrier, Bob spent the 1974 season as a red-shirt . . . has good moves and will definitely figure in the running back plans this fall . . . must overcome the tendency to cough up the football . . . was a standout runner at Holy Spirit who ground out more than 2,000 yards in his prep career . . . born 10/16/54 . . . liberal arts major.

DB Michael Neal (Mike) Cornell
5-9 165 Jr. Delaware, O.

Mike entered Clemson without a scholarship, but that certainly didn't stop him from earning varsity grid letters in both his freshman and sophomore seasons for the Tigers . . . a reserve defensive back, Mike is a solid contributor to the speciality teams, and is quite adept at kickoff coverage . . . coached in high school by his father . . . born 7/7/55 . . . administrative management major.

LB James Henson (James) Cotten, Jr.
6-2 205 Fr. Chapel Hill, N. C.

Preped at Patterson School in Lenior, N. C., where he was a linebacker and an all-conference fullback . . . earned all-county and prep All-America honors as a senior . . . tabbed team MVP . . . also lettered in basketball and baseball . . . born 8/24/55 . . . plans a major in recreation and park administration.

DE Charles Edward (Eddie) Crawford
6-1 195 Jr. Pelzer

Was a highly-touted prep quarterback at Palmetto High School, has seen action there and at defensive back for the jayvee unit, and has now settled into a spot at defensive end . . . was one of top performers there for Cubs last fall, and also got into enough varsity action to earn a letter . . . will give Tigers depth at DE in '75 . . . born 1/30/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

OT Donald Breck (Breck) Culler
6-4½ 235 So. High Point, N. C.

Here's a young man who was one of the real bright spots in the off-season workouts . . . a red-shirt soph last fall, Breck has delighted the coaching staff with his changed attitude and tremendously overall improved play . . . his physical qualities and talent will give him a strong edge for one of the top spots on the offensive line . . . born 5/19/55 . . . majoring in recreation and park administration.

DB James (James) Cunningham
6-3 190 Fr. Winston-Salem, N. C.

Outstanding prepster at R. J. Reynolds High School in both football and basketball . . . All-Central North Carolina 4-A selection in both . . . after fine senior season as DB and SR on gridiron, led team to a 4-A State title where he was named as the 4-A Most Outstanding Player . . . born 4/2/56 . . . plans to major in administrative management.

P Murray Lamar (Lamar) Davis, Jr.
6-1 188 So. Spartanburg

Non-scholarship kicker who handled the punting chores for the Cubs a year ago . . . came to Clemson from Spartanburg High School where he was a three-year punter for Bill Carr's Vikings . . . was only experienced punter during the spring workouts . . . born 3/2/56 . . . majoring in industrial management.

DE Charles H. (C. H.) Ducworth
5-11 198 Jr. Anderson

The fourth in a line of Ducworth brothers to play for the Tigers . . . although C. H. does not possess the great physical qualities which most defensive ends have, his attitude, desire, and knowledge make him a valuable team player . . . in fact, he has been referred to as the toughest defensive end on the squad . . . all-conference at Hanna High School . . . born 5/27/54 . . . secondary education major.

DB Joseph Blane (Blane) Dunahoo
6-1 170 Fr. Decatur, Ga.

RB Fritz Kaline (Fritz) Edwards
6-1 199 So. Gresham

Young sophomore running back with a great deal of potential . . . led the Cubs in rushing last fall with a 5.4 yard per carry average . . . needs the varsity experience, and has the chance to be an outstanding collegian . . . prep All-America selection at Johnsonville High School where he earned 12 letters during his career . . . born 8/13/56 . . . recreation and park administration major.

RB Thomas Earl (Thomas) Eley
6-1 186 So. Rocky Mount, N. C.

Entered Clemson last fall, but dropped out of school for personal reasons before the '74 campaign began . . . returned to Tigertown in January, and although slowed with an injury problem in the early spring, Thomas showed flashes of brilliance at his running back spot . . . the coaches are hopeful of great things from Thomas, who possesses sprinter's speed . . . brother of former Arizona State All-America Monroe Eley . . . born 9/24/55 . . . sociology major.

DB Roy Colie (Roy) Eppes
6-1 180 So. Anderson

Roy, probably the fastest defensive back on the Tiger squad, spent the 1974 season as a red-shirt . . . he has the keen ability to diagnose, and the potential to make a strong contribution to the team . . . outstanding athlete at Westside High School, and has lettered for the Tig track team as a hurdler . . . born 7/22/54 . . . majoring in recreation and park administration.

OT Ronald Kenneth (Kenneth) Erwin
6-1 206 So. Kannapolis, N. C.

Preped at A. L. Brown High School with Tig guard Lacy Brumley . . . spent the entire '74 campaign with the jayvee squad . . . worked hard in the off-season practice session, and is right in the thick of the fight for a spot on one of the first two units . . . born 2/3/56 . . . majoring in zoology.

QB Stephen Ray (Steve Fuller)
6-3 195 Fr. Spartanburg

Perhaps the most heralded high school prospect in the entire Southeast, Steve cast his lot with Clemson after leading Spartanburg High School to a 24-2 two-year grid mark with 3,500 yards of total offense . . . prep All-American gridder, and all-conference in basketball, baseball, and track . . . ranked first in graduating class of 826 . . . born 1/5/57 . . . major undecided.

Tight end in high school at East Mecklenburg, moved to center as a freshman, and then switched to defensive tackle during the spring . . . and as he acquires physical maturity, Danny should develop into one of the premier players at his position . . . lettered in football, baseball, and basketball as prepster . . . born 2/24/56 . . . majoring in recreation and park administration.

QB Willie Louis (Willie) Jordan
5-11 180 Fr. Griffin, Ga.

Flashy signal-caller who led Griffin High School to a pair of state titles . . . passed for 2,813 yards and threw 34 TD's in his illustrious three-year career . . . hit on 65 per cent of his passes as a senior . . . MVP as prepster who played in Georgia All-Star Game . . . born 4/1/57 . . . undecided on college major.

OT Kenneth Roy (Ken) Jeffcoat
6-2 234 So. Anderson

Ken was an all-conference and all-state lineman at nearby Westside in Anderson who came to Clemson without a scholarship . . . performed well for the Cubs last fall, and worked hard this past spring looking for a spot on the offensive line . . . most valuable lineman and Shrine Bowl member as prepster . . . born 8/30/54 . . . majoring in administrative management.

MG Thomas Nelson (Tom) Keahon
6-1 196 So. Westwood, N. J.

A walk-on defensive lineman, Tom spent the entire '74 slate with the jayvee unit, and then came on to impress the coaching staff with steady improvement throughout the spring . . . all-league and all-county at Westwood Regional HS . . . born 6/25/56 . . . majoring in forest management. (Pronounced Key-on).

C George Carl (George) Jehlen, Jr.
6-2 218 Jr. Glen Ridge, N. J.

A hard-nosed competitor, George was moved to the offensive line from his nose guard spot, and came on strong during the latter stages of the spring workouts . . . lettered at MG last fall, and with a little more experience at his new position, he will be given a shot at a starting role . . . all-conference at Glen Ridge HS . . . born 12/22/55 . . . administrative management major. (Pronounced Jay-Lun).

C Stephen Faucette (Steve) Kenney
6-4 233 So. Raleigh, N. C.

Steve is an up-and-comer for the Tigers at center as he gains experience . . . has a tremendous attitude to go along with his good size and speed . . . was an All-East linebacker at Raleigh Sanderson High School where he also lettered in basketball . . . father was gridder at UNC and grandfather played at Wake Forest . . . born 12/26/55 . . . administrative management major.

DB Rick Wayne (Rick) Kenyon
6-1 174 So. Bellevue, Pa.

Sophomore defensive back from the Pittsburgh area with fine speed and quickness . . . was quarterback at Bellevue High School, split receiver as a freshman, and moved to the secondary in the spring where he showed some real potential during the off-season . . . a most promising athlete . . . born 7/5/55 . . . recreation and park administration major.

RB Charlie Lee (Charlie) Johnson, Jr.
6-1 205 Fr. Miami, Fla.

A highly sought-after running back from North Miami Sr. High School . . . an all-city selection and leading ground gainer for prep team . . . speedster who has run both dashes and handled field events . . . named most valuable in track . . . born 12/10/55 . . . will likely seek degree in administrative management.

DE Gary Michael (Gary) Kesack
6-2 201 Jr. Bethlehem, Pa.

Lettered for the Tigers in a reserve role last fall, went through an impressive spring, and was right near the top for a starting spot . . . Gary is a knowledgeable and alert defensive end, but needs to be more aggressive and make things happen . . . in line to see a considerable amount of action this fall . . . MVP and all-state selection at Freedom High School . . . born 9/15/54 . . . industrial education major. (Pronounced Key-sack).

DB Brian Eugene (Brian) Kier
6-1 174 Jr. Haines City, Fla.

Brian ranks as one of the most improved players on the Tig squad . . . after a mediocre freshman campaign, he came around as the top DB on the Cub squad last fall, leading the team in interceptions with three . . . also got in enough playing time for a varsity letter in '74 . . . will definitely figure in secondary plans this fall . . . born 5/6/55 . . . secondary education major. (Pronounced Keer).

OT David Phillip (David) LeBel
6-6 239 Sr. Jacksonville, N. C.

David possesses the size, speed, and quickness necessary to be a fine offensive lineman, and if he overcomes a tendency to be hampered by nagging injuries, should have a superb senior campaign . . . although a tight end as a prepster, David spent his first two years at Tigertown on defense . . . outstanding prepster in both basketball and football at Jacksonville High School . . . born 10/25/53 . . . recreation and park administration major. (Pronounced La-bell).

RB Anthony (Anthony) King
6-2 190 Fr. Cornelia, Ga.

Another highly-touted freshman running back from the prep ranks who figures to get in varsity playing time this fall . . . in addition to earning MVP honors at Habersham Central High School, Anthony was an all-state selection as a prep senior and winner of the 1974 2-A Back-of-the-Year trophy . . . also earned prep letters in basketball, baseball, and track . . . born 6/14/57 . . . plans to major in math.

DB Mark Steven (Mark) Lee
6-2 181 Jr. Spartanburg

Returning starter at cornerback, Mark showed the coaches an impressive spring practice . . . picked off one opponent pass a year ago . . . his speed and quickness give him the ability to come up with the big play, and by some improvement on his reaction time when the ball is in the air, Mark can establish himself as one of the best in the league . . . Shrine Bowl standout at Spartanburg High School . . . born 4/4/54 . . . administrative management major.

LB Earl J. (Jay) Kreis, III
6-1 218 Sr. Birmingham, Ala.

A knee injury and subsequent operation forced Jay to miss the '74 season and spring practice as well . . . hopefully, he will be able to fully recover and add depth at the linebacker spot in the fall . . . a tremendous attitude makes Jay one of the most popular members of the team . . . played one year at Ole Miss . . . born 10/4/52 . . . recreation and park administration major. (Pronounced Crease).

QB Robert Rutledge (Rut) Livingston
6-2 186 Jr. Hendersonville, N. C.

A highly-recruited single-wing tailback at Hendersonville High School, Rut began his Clemson career as a quarterback, saw action at both defensive back and split receiver, and returned to the spot under center and showed flashes of running brilliance in the spring . . . if he overcomes tendency to throw the ball away, Rut will figure heavily in QB plans . . . Shrine Bowler . . . born 10/15/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

C Kevin Joseph (Kevin) Kreis
6-2 205 So. Baltimore, Md.

Kevin worked at both linebacker and defensive end in the spring, but will likely be moved back to his old high school spot at center, to take advantage of his added bulk as well as a need for playable depth at that spot . . . football, baseball, and wrestling standout at Mount Saint Joseph High School . . . born 5/7/55 . . . civil engineering major. (Pronounced Cryce).

QB Robert Raymond (Bob) McCarthy
6-2 190 So. Silver Spring, Md.

Bob has not participated in football since his prep days at Good Counsel High School . . . he came to Clemson in the fall of '73, dropped out of school for personal reasons, underwent surgery on an old back injury, and returned to Tigertown a year ago although he did not play ball . . . all-state signal caller with over 1,200 passing yards as prep senior . . . born 8/16/55 . . . administrative management major.

Newsome

Marler

RB Roger Allen (Roger) McCrary
5-11 194 Jr. Greenville

Rugged and tough running back who was injured in the spring . . . appears to be working back into form and should give the Tigers depth in the offensive backfield this fall . . . non-scholarship player who earned a spot on the team . . . all-conference and all-state gridder at Greenville Sr. High School . . . born 12/22/54 . . . zoology major.

LB Garry (Garry) McDowell
6-3 203 So. Griffin, Ga.

Garry lettered for the Tigers as a freshman last fall, and after brief stints at defensive end and strong safety, returned to linebacker in the spring . . . a most gifted athlete who has all the potential of becoming a truly great player . . . had one interception and 61-yard TD return during brief stay with JV unit a year ago . . . MVP in both track and football at Griffin HS . . . born 1/15/56 . . . recreation and park administration major.

DB Malcolm Lewis (Malcolm) Marler
5-9 162 Jr. Gardendale, Ala.

Malcolm has certainly been a steady performer for the Tigers during the past two seasons, earning varsity letters both years . . . he has started and performed well, and he has been a solid individual playing in a reserve role . . . and on top of that, Malcolm is a big plus on all Tig specialty teams . . . winner is the best word to describe this young man . . . dedicated FCA worker . . . born 7/9/55 . . . psychology major.

DB James Alvin (Peanut) Martin
6-3 180 Sr. Abbeville

An All-ACC safety who possesses tremendous athletic ability . . . Peanut picked off a pass in the season opener against Texas A&M last fall, and one game later a freak accident resulted in a broken leg which sidelined him for the remainder of the year . . . he came right back and experienced a fine spring practice, and looks to be in even better form than his sophomore season when he picked off five passes and earned all-league honors . . . all-conference in football, baseball, and basketball as a prepster . . . born 7/17/54 . . . secondary education major.

DT Jeffery Sutton (Jeff) Mills
6-3 228 So. Greenville

Jeff broke into the starting lineup as a freshman last fall and finished the season as Clemson's seventh leading tackler, with 71 stops, and ranked first with most tackles which threw the opponent for a loss (7) . . . the former J. L. Mann All-American experienced a tremendous spring practice and looks to be headed for an even better '75 . . . a true all-star candidate who could become one of the best ever to play at Tigertown . . . born 8/24/56 . . . recreation and park administration major.

DL Darrell Coy (Darrell) Misenheimer
6-4 245 Fr. Salisbury, N. C.

All-conference selection in football, wrestling, and track at East Rowan High School . . . offensive tackle starter on North Carolina Shrine Bowl team, and member of West team in NC East-West contest . . . won WNC shot put title as junior and senior, and broke 15-year old state record . . . CHARLOTTE OBSERVER'S pick as North Carolina Athlete of the Year . . . born 7/22/57 . . . plans to major in recreation and park administration.

OG David Douglass (David) Morris
6-0 217 So. Haines City, Fla.

Husky red-shirt lineman who made a good showing in the spring workouts, especially at his new spot at offensive guard . . . was a defensive end and middle guard in the past, but David made some great strides at OG . . . depending on the playable depth at MG, he could also see action there, but regardless, the coaching staff is counting on this young sophomore this fall . . . born 5/12/55 . . . education major.

OT Claude Wayne (Wayne) Neely
6-2 215 Jr. McConnells

An experienced offensive letterman who could play almost any position across the "Fox Hole Five" . . . fought back to overcome a freshman injury which sidelined him that entire campaign . . . two-time all-conference gridder and team co-captain at York High School for coach Jimmy Wallace . . . born 4/27/54 . . . majoring in administrative management.

OG Michael William (Mike) Newsome
6-5 248 So. East Point, Ga.

Has all the physical attributes to make the Tigers a standout offensive lineman . . . a red-shirt sophomore . . . earned two letters each in football, basketball, and track at Headland High School . . . father is a structural engineer . . . born 7/29/55 . . . majoring in administrative management.

O'Cain

Piccirillo

Plyler

Plexico

Poole

Ratchford

QB Thomas Michael (Mike) O'Cain
6-0 178 Jr. Orangeburg

Dedicated signal-caller who twice last fall was tabbed as the Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie-of-the-Week as he guided Clemson to successive wins over Georgia Tech and Georgia . . . finished the year as back-up to Mark Fellers, but after experiencing a most impressive spring practice session, Mike appears ready to assume full duties at the throttle of the Tiger Triple option . . . third leading total offense producer returning, and one of the most dedicated athletes on the team . . . All-America prepster at Orangeburg-Wilkinson . . . born 7/20/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

FLK Whit Holleman (Whit) Plyler
6-1 175 So. Seneca

A walk-on split receiver who very well may possess the best hands on the entire squad . . . will certainly figure in the varsity plans as he acquires additional strength and experience . . . all-conference and most valuable griddier at Seneca High School . . . also lettered in baseball, basketball, and track as prepster . . . born 3/13/56 . . . administrative management major.

RB-LB Tracy (Tracy) Perry
6-0 200 Fr. Roxboro, N. C.

Tracy was an outstanding fullback at Person Senior High School in Roxboro as well as a rugged linebacker, and he was a starter at the latter spot for the victorious North Carolina Shrine Bowl team . . . in addition to his grid accomplishments, Tracy was an all-conference wrestler and an outstanding trackster as well . . . born 5/11/57 . . . major undecided.

DB David Nathan (David) Poole
6-2 177 So. Columbia

Young sophomore who came to Tigertown without football aid, but found a home with the Cubs last fall . . . has good hands and could play split receiver, but athletic ability could have this griddier fighting for a spot at safety . . . football, basketball, and track letterman at Dreher High School . . . born 3/16/56 . . . financial management major.

PK-OG Ciro Roy (Ciro) Piccirillo
6-1 222 So. Elberton, Ga.

Circo came to Clemson without a scholarship, but earned a spot on the squad last fall as a place kicker and offensive guard . . . will be given a hard look in the fall . . . preped at Elbert County High School and earned one track, three baseball, and two football letters . . . hit 25 consecutive extra points as prepster . . . born 10/6/56 . . . majoring in industrial management. (Pronounced Pick-a-rillo).

QB Michael Dean (Mike) Pusey
6-1 185 Fr. Banner Elk, N. C.

Passed for over 3,000 yards in three-year career at Avery County High School . . . member of Shrine Bowl team, East-West Classic, and All-WNC All-Star team . . . was MVP as prepster in football, basketball, and baseball . . . born 11/2/57 . . . plans to pursue degree in recreation and park administration. (Pronounced Pew-see).

FLK Harry Allen (Harry) Plexico
5-10 151 Jr. Columbia

Non-scholarship griddier who began his Clemson career as a split receiver, but moved to the secondary last fall . . . returned to the receiving corps in the spring . . . football, baseball, and soccer letterman at Columbia High School . . . born 4/20/55 . . . majoring in mechanical engineering.

SR Warren L. (Warren) Ratchford
5-10 151 So. Gaffney

Highly-competitive griddier with tremendous speed, Warren made his greatest contribution to the 1974 Tigers, his freshman campaign, as a deadly kickoff return specialist, and led the team in that area . . . worked at both running back and receiver in spring, but should settle at SR in fall . . . also paced Cubs in receiving and both punt and kickoff returns . . . nicknamed "Rat" . . . born 1/5/56 . . . secondary education major.

Silver

Reese

Shafer

Scott

Sharpe

OG Archie R. B. (Archie) Reese
6-3 235 So. Mayesville

Archie has outstanding potential as either an offensive or defensive lineman for the Tigers . . . worked both ways in the spring and both staffs were impressed with his ability . . . the final decision on this rugged lineman will be made in the fall, but regardless of his position, Archie should see a considerable amount of playing time in 1975 . . . born 2/4/56 . . . industrial education major.

RB William (William) Scott
5-10 160 So. Wrightsville, Ga.

Much improved at his running back spot in the spring drills, William seems headed for a fine sophomore season . . . has tremendous speed . . . was Georgia 100-yard dash champion at Johnson Co. High School, and Jr. Olympic sprinter as well . . . averaged 6.4 yards per carry as a freshman on the varsity unit last fall, had a couple pass receptions, and got in on the punt and kickoff return act as well . . . born 10/22/55 . . . secondary education major.

PK Godwin Okorafor (Godwin) Royce
5-10 150 Sr. Coral Gables, Fla.

Came to Clemson from Miami-Dade Junior College where he was an All-America soccer player . . . lettered for the ACC champion Tigers last fall, and came out in the spring to try his "foot" at kicking . . . did not have any previous grid experience . . . born 5/29/51 . . . electrical engineering major.

MG Richard Hough (Richard) Shafer
6-2 218 Jr. Fort Myers, Fla.

A linebacker and tight end as prepster at Fort Myers High School, Richard moved to the offensive line last fall, and is now listed as a middle guard . . . missed the spring session because of an automobile accident . . . was an all-state gridder in high school . . . born 8/1/55 . . . political science major.

LB George Wallace (Wallace) Seaborn
6-3 197 So. Gaffney

Came out for football in the spring, Wallace may settle into a linebacking role or defensive end role before the fall session ends . . . earned the best lineman award at Gaffney High School where he also lettered in basketball . . . father played football at Wofford . . . all-state prepster . . . born 5/2/56 . . . forestry major.

C Robert George (Bob) Sharpe, Jr.
6-1 202 Jr. Anderson

Bob was a fullback at T. L. Hanna High School, and remained there throughout his freshman year at Clemson . . . he was shifted to the defensive unit and has seen action at linebacker and defensive end . . . could also be utilized as a snapper for punting situations . . . MVP winner at Hanna . . . father was standout center at Clemson in 1930's . . . born 4/15/54 . . . administrative management major.

RB William Randolph (Randy) Scott
5-11 200 Fr. Waycross, Ga.

Waycross High School product who was team MVP as a sophomore linebacker . . . moved to tailback as junior and led the team in scoring, receiving, and punt and kickoff returns . . . named most valuable back that season . . . gained 357 yards rushing in first two games senior year before calcium deposit sidelined Randy for remainder of year . . . born 9/13/57 . . . plans career in human physiology.

LB Dennis Lane (Dennis) Silver
6-1 214 Sr. Asheville, N. C.

Dennis has been plagued by a history of knee problems, but is a solid hitter and a knowledgeable gridder . . . lettered for the Tigers in a reserve capacity last fall, and again slated to see considerable amount of action for '75 . . . all-conference and all-county at North Buncombe High School . . . married . . . born 7/12/52 . . . industrial education major.

C Gregg Alan (Gregg) Smith
6-3 203 Jr. Toccoa, Ga.

A reserve offensive lineman who is fighting for a starting role at center . . . tabbed as the most outstanding lineman at Stephens County High School as a junior and senior . . . also lettered in basketball and track as prepster . . . cousin played football at Vanderbilt . . . born 6/3/55 . . . administrative management major.

LB Ronald G. (Ronnie) Smith
6-2 210 So. Sylva, N. C.

Ronnie was a much-sought-after prepster at Sylva-Webster High School where he rushed for over 4,000 yards . . . moved to the defensive unit last fall and lettered for the Tigers as a freshman at LB . . . picked off a pair of opponent passes . . . he will get bigger and stronger, and as he acquires the experience with each game, Ronnie will be a tremendous linebacker at Clemson . . . born 12/10/55 . . . pre-architecture major.

LB Timothy Joseph (Tim) Stough
6-2 210 Jr. Levittown, Pa.

Returning two-year linebacker starter who was "outstanding" in the late spring according to the Tig coaching staff . . . hard-hitter and aggressive defender who should be headed for two more superb years with the Tigers . . . picked off one pass last fall, against Tennessee, and returned it 28 yards . . . was all-city and all-area gridder, as well as All-State at Bishop Egan High School . . . born 8/9/55 . . . recreation and park administration major. (Pronounced Stow, rhymes with How).

RB Patrick Lee (Pat) Swisher
5-8 167 Jr. Charlotte, N. C.

A reserve running back who came to Clemson without a scholarship, and has had his moments, despite being hampered by leg problems . . . was the most valuable back at South Mecklenburg High School in the Queen City . . . an all-county selection for two years and baseball and basketball letterman as prepster . . . born 10/8/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

RB Donald Ray (Don) Testerman
6-2 215 Sr. South Boston, Va.

Second leading rusher returning, Don averaged 5.8 yards per carry last fall . . . transferred to Clemson from Ferrum JC . . . an excellent ball carrier who is always dangerous whether running inside or outside . . . had a 68-yard scoring jaunt against Tennessee last fall when he crashed through the middle and raced down the sidelines untouched . . . needs to improve blocking and faking . . . prep All-America selection at Halifax Co. High School . . . born 11/7/52 . . . liberal arts major.

DB O'Neal (O. J.) Tyler
5-11 164 Jr. Fernandina Beach, Fla.

O. J. missed the off-season workouts with an injury, but figures in the secondary plans for 1975 . . . has good speed and quickness and showed bright moments in the secondary last fall . . . a running back for the jayvee unit two years ago, and had a couple of long runs—76 and 80 yards . . . lettered in football, basketball, track at Fernandina Beach High School . . . born 7/7/52 . . . recreation and park administration major.

DB William Dale (Dale) Ulmer
5-11 176 Jr. Islandton

Dale is another non-scholarship player who has worked hard and landed a spot on the team . . . also worked with the Tig baseballers . . . missed the majority of the spring drills due to baseball, but will be given a shot in the fall . . . born 7/7/53 . . . majoring in agricultural education.

DE Stuart Russell (Stuart) Vaughn
6-1 190 So. Rocky Mount, N. C.

A walk-on defensive end, Stuart possesses a good knowledge of football . . . performed well for the jayvee unit last fall, worked hard in the spring, and together with his strong desire to play, should figure in the defensive plans this season . . . all-conference at Rocky Mount High School . . . born 4/20/56 . . . majoring in administrative management.

Walters

MG Nelson Lynn (Nelson) Wallace
5-10 203 Jr. Pageland

Nelson walked right out of Pageland High School two years ago and right into a starting role at middle guard as a freshman . . . played behind Willie Anderson last fall . . . he experienced a most impressive spring, and looks ready to step back into that old familiar starting role at MG in the fall . . . Shrine Bowler from Pageland . . . born 11/21/54 . . . majoring in psychology.

LB George Travers (Travers) Webb, III
6-2 220 So. Graham, N. C.

Travers appears ready to return to full speed action after missing the 1974 season and last spring with a serious back injury which resulted in surgery . . . has tremendous size and agility, and unlimited potential . . . strong linebacker who lettered as a freshman in '73 . . . Shrine Bowl standout from Graham High School . . . born 5/6/55 . . . majoring in industrial management.

FLK Joey Laverne (Joey) Walters
6-0 167 Jr. Florence

Third leading receiver on the team last fall, Joey has good hands to match his excellent athletic ability, and he's a solid performer at split receiver . . . on the receiving end of two long scoring bombs last fall—a 45-yarder against Wake Forest, and a 60-yarder against North Carolina . . . averaged better than 25 yards per catch . . . all-city and all-conference prepster at West Florence . . . born 10/29/54 . . . recreation and park administration major.

QB Richard Gaston (Rick) Weddington
6-2 186 So. Charlotte, N. C.

Rick has as much ability and potential as any quarterback around . . . total offense and passing leader on the Cub team last fall, and saw spot varsity action as well . . . is extremely dangerous with the pigskin, but must improve his passing game and tendency to make the minor execution mistakes . . . MVP and most valuable back at Myers Park High School . . . preped a year at Massanutten in Woodstock, Va. . . born 9/1/55 . . . political science major.

DL Gordon Douglass (Gordon) Watson
6-2 200 Fr. Forsyth, Ga.

Started 33 consecutive games for Mary Persons High School and led team to 29-4 overall record . . . in addition to earning best lineman honors on team, tabbed as Middle Georgia Lineman-of-the-Year and to the All-State team . . . born 1/20/57 . . . undecided on college major.

OG-OT James Leggett (Jimmy) Weeks
6-4 226 So. Rocky Mount, N. C.

Jimmy spent most of his time with the jayvee unit last fall, but came around strong in the spring and finished the off-season drills with a starting role at guard . . . although just a sophomore, this lineman is headed for a strong season for the "Fox Hole Five" in '75 . . . Shrine Bowl player at Rocky Mount High School . . . born 11/4/55 . . . political science major.

DB Gary Coleman (Gary) Webb
5-9 175 Fr. Graham, N. C.

Younger brother of Tiger linebacker Travers Webb . . . an all-conference selection for three years, twice at Graham High School and as a senior at Southern Alamance . . . an all-league wrestler and hurdler on conference championship track team . . . played in East-West All-Star Game . . . born 3/30/57 . . . plans to major in financial management.

DT Kenneth Harry (Ken) Weichel
6-5 230 So. Whitehall, Pa.

A red-shirt defensive tackle who got in some playing time for the varsity his freshman year . . . hampered by a weight problem, but came around in the spring and showed marked improvement . . . can add that needed depth at DT this fall . . . Whitehall High School captain as senior . . . born 7/4/55 . . . sociology major. (Pronounced Y-kill).

Wingo

Wells

Wyman

OG James Duncan (Jimmy) Wells, III 6-1 216 So. Greenville

A tough, solid player, Jimmy was injured in the spring . . . with more physical maturity, Jimmy is destined to contribute to the offensive line picture . . . preped at J. L. Mann High School where he was most valuable lineman and an all-conference guard . . . father, Jimmy, and uncle, Joel, both played football at Clemson . . . born 9/3/56 . . . pre-med major.

DL James Lee (Jim) Willcox 6-1 225 Fr. Asheboro, N. C.

Jim is one of the five signees from North Carolina who was a starter (at offensive guard) for the Tar Heels in the Shrine Bowl game last December . . . was the team's outstanding lineman at Asheboro High School, an all-conference and all-state selection, and a prep All-American as well . . . born 11/13/56 . . . undecided on college major.

SR Jerome Alonzo (Ronnie) Williams 5-11 175 Fr. James Island

A swift and sure-handed receiver, Ronnie accounted for more than 2,000 yards of offense and scored 24 touchdowns in 1974 in leading James Island to a perfect 14-0 mark and the state championship . . . in four varsity seasons at James Island he scored a total of 60 touchdowns, was an all-conference selection each season, three times an all-state choice, and '74 Back of the Year . . . Shrine Bowl choice . . . born 5/30/55 . . . undecided on major.

DB Willie B. (Bill) Wingo 5-8 170 Jr. Union

Two sport letterman for the Tigers, Bill was a starting cornerback for the football team, and All-Atlantic Coast Conference second baseman for the baseballers, hitting a hot .371 . . . although he missed the spring because of his baseball, Bill's a solid performer in every sense of the word, and you can rest assured that come fall, he'll be one of the leading candidates to start in '75 . . . born 10/31/54 . . . liberal arts major.

LB James Hurst (Jim) Wyman 5-9 193 So. Mauldin

Jim was a running back as a prepster at J. L. Mann High School . . . moved to linebacker and looks to be a strong contender for playing time in the fall . . . an outstanding young man who will also be a top candidate for all special teams . . . most valuable back at Mann and leading rusher . . . born 11/9/55 . . . chemical engineering major.

CLEMSON TIGERS ON THE AIR

Jim Phillips, four times selected as the South Carolina Sportscaster-of-the-Year, is entering his eighth season as the Voice of the Clemson Football Tigers.

A native of Alliance, O., Phillips, sports director at WFBC-TV in nearby Greenville, has been bringing Clemson football into the homes of Tiger fans since 1968, and Scott Shannon joined the radio team as color man for the 1972 campaign.

In addition to a radio network of approximately 40 stations, Phillips serves as host of the "Red Parker Show" each Sunday as the Tiger Voice and Coach review all the excitement of the previous day's battle on a five-station network.

IPTAY '76

The late Dr. Ruppert H. (Rube) Fike started the ball rolling 41 years ago when, in 1934, Clemson's football program was at one of its lowest depths.

The glory days of ex-coaches John Heisman, for whom the famed Heisman Trophy is named, and Josh Cody had passed.

With the seed planted, someone then suggested a goal of $10,000 to be used entirely for athletic scholarships. But that was 41 years ago.

Since that beginning, Clemson athletics have continued to grow at a fast pace. Jess Neely guided the Tigers to six consecutive non-losing grid campaigns and to Clemson's initial post-season encounter—the 1940 Cotton Bowl—and Frank Howard followed that with a 30-year tenure that included 165 wins and six more bowl trips.

And that's just a small portion of what IPTAY has meant to Clemson.

It had all started as "I Pay Ten A Year," but inflation hit the organization and forced a change to "I Pay Twenty A Year."

The 1934 suggestion of $10,000 is met today by five $2000 IPTAY Scholarship donors.

And for the past 10 years, IPTAY contributions have continued to exceed those of the previous 12 months.

But IPTAY means a little more than financial support to the Clemson athletic scholarship fund. It means individual involvement as well.

Records indicate that more people participated in IPTAY '75, as far as individual memberships are concerned, than ever before in the history of the organization.

Moreover, IPTAY representatives were more dedicated and enthused which led to greater participation as far as the various local club meetings were concerned.

IPTAY has long been called the "Life Blood of Clemson Athletics," but Tiger football coach Red Parker has added a little something to that.

"Clemson is a unique institution in that there is so much loyalty from its graduates and supporters," Parker said.

"That's true for not only the athletic program, but the entire university program as well. And IPTAY is the backbone of the former."

In just two previous years at Tigertown, Parker has become encircled by the Clemson loyalty, the same kind of loyalty that has affected many others.

As IPTAY '76 begins Sept. 1st, new goals will be set, and, no doubt, as in the past, contributions will exceed that mark.

But this is only possible because of the involvement and the efforts of this great organization's membership. And we urge YOU to "Join the IPTAY Spirit of '76," so that we may continue our upward trend.

Just one year ago, as a junior, Dennis Smith was pressed into a starting role at free safety when All-Atlantic Coast Conference performer Peanut Martin sustained a broken leg in the second game of the year, sidelining the latter for the remainder of campaign. But Smith, from Elba, Ala., answered the challenge with a command performance by intercepting a team and ACC high six opponent passes. In the top left picture he holds the ball high after picking off an enemy aerial, and in the top right picture he is shown stepping in front of an intended Duke receiver to claim an interception against the Blue Devils.

Banks McFadden was Clemson's first bona fide All-American, earning those honors in 1939. Named the nation's most versatile athlete for the 1939-40 year, McFadden still has his name in the Tiger record book.

Quarterback Ken Pengitore set a school record for most yards in one season with 1,941 in 1973 on his way to earning All-ACC first team honor.

Clemson's longest kickoff return came in 1959 when Bill Mathis recorded a 99-yard touchdown against Georgia Tech. Mathis went on star for the New York Jets in the professional ranks.

Post Season Honors

(We have made an effort to tabulate a list of Clemson athletes who have made All-American, All-Southern Conference, All-South, All-South Atlantic, All-Atlantic Coast Conference, and any other honor of sectional or national importance. In our research the first mention of an all-state team was in 1911 and the initial All-Southern Conference mention was made in 1902. Any additions or corrections to the below-listed names will be appreciated. All listings are first team unless otherwise designated.)

Clemson Memorial Stadium — “Death Valley”

In the past 33 seasons, 26 teams have made appearances in Clemson Memorial Stadium, now pretty widely known as “Death Valley.” Eight teams (George Washington, Kentucky, Villanova, Alabama, Georgia, Auburn, Texas A & M and Maryland) have an edge on the Tigers’ home ground and four of these (George Washington, Kentucky, Villanova and Texas A & M) have just played one game in Memorial Stadium.

Clemson has shutout opponents 28 times in “Death Valley” (Presbyterian 9 times; N. C. State 4; Furman, Citadel, Duquesne and Wake Forest, twice each; and VPI, Auburn, Virginia, Duke, North Carolina, Texas Christian and Maryland, once each). The Tigers have been shutout nine times at home in 33 seasons, the last time being in 1972 when Duke blanked the Tigers 7-0.

Between the Maryland shoutout in 1953 and the Duke blanking in 1962, the Tigers scored in 38 consecutive home games.

There have only been two ties in 131 games played in the stadium, one with Mississippi State in 1949 and the other with Georgia in 1963.

Last fall the field was named The Frank Howard Field of Clemson Memorial Stadium in honor of the Tigers’ legendary coach Frank Howard.

Below is how Clemson stands against teams who have played in “Death Valley.”

1975-76 CLEMSON BASKETBALL

TIGER OUTLOOK

Ten returnees from last year's Clemson NIT cage team, one that many felt was the best ever in the school's history, give Bill Foster a solid nucleus to work with as he enters his initial campaign at Tigertown.

Included in that group of veterans are two of the top 10 players in the Atlantic Coast Conference—the nation's toughest cage league, the ACC's leading rebounder and shot blocker, three starters from the 74-75 unit, and four of the five leading point producers from a year ago.

Guard Skip Wise, who led Clemson in scoring with an 18.5 average, became the first freshman ever to earn a spot on the All-ACC cage first team, and combined with a 13.0 scoring and league-leading 11.7 rebounding and 119 blocked shot effort from 7-1 Tree Rollins, Clemson raced to a 17-11 record, to its highest finish ever (tied for second) in the ACC, to its first national ranking ever by both wire services, and to its first post-season contest (NIT) ever. And Rollins, as a soph, was a second-team all-conference choice.

Two other freshmen, starter Stan Rome (10.4) and Colon Abraham (7.1) finished third and fifth respectively in scoring for the Tigers last winter.

Foster also welcomes returnees Charlie Rogers (3.9), David Brown (2.9), Jimmy Howell (2.5), and Andy Butchko (1.2) to his front court corps, and guards John Franken (3.0) and Bruce Harman (1.7).

Freshmen signees include 6-3 Greg Coles of East Elmhurst, N. Y., 6-7 Marvin Dickerson of Charleston, and 6-2 Derrick Johnson of Indianapolis, Ind.

The Tigs are talented, however young—three freshmen, four sophomores, four juniors, and only two seniors, but Foster is working for the right blend to keep Clemson's cage fortunes on a national level of prominence.
