

It is high time that South Carolina have as its governor a man who is not only determined to provide government for its people but also who also has sufficient experience in government to know how to deal with the various branches of our government.

If another primary is necessary to confirm the wishes of the people, I call now upon all of those who wish to see that a big change take effect in South Carolina to work and support Strom Thurmond.

In this first primary, the evil countenance of money - Big money, my friends, made its appearance but the forces of good were strong enough to beat it down. If there is a second primary, the forces of Big money will make their strength felt even more. But I am sure that the good people of South Carolina will repulse the evils of Big money and will support Strom Thurmond in his demands for good government in the hands of an experienced governor.
