

1973 Tiger Football Guide

Press, Radio and TV

Our 1973 Clemson Football Guide was designed to provide you, the working press, with complete information on the Tigers. However, should you need additional facts please feel free to call on us at any time.

We'll appreciate getting your ticket requests as early as you know your assignment to our games. We will honor requests for working press and photo passes from the sports editors of DAILY newspapers and radio and TV sports directors ONLY. These should be made directly to the SID, preferably a week in advance of the game concerned.

The press box is operated for the convenience of the working press. No women, other than accredited sportswriters, photographers, and Western Union operators will be admitted. And no one under 16 years of age will be admitted.

Please do not ask for more working passes than you actually need. You can make conditions more desirable for yourself and your fellow workers by not asking for tickets for your "traveling buddy" or "driver."

Coach Red Parker's Weekly Press Conference:

Every Tuesday throughout the season at the Clemson House. Radio and T. V. tapes should be made starting at 11:45 a.m., in time to start the buffet line at approximately 12:15 p.m. We hope to see you each week.

Bill McLellan, Director of Athletics

In the last two and one half years, things have been happening around the Clemson Athletic Department. For the most part, these things have been in the right direction.

One finger can be pointed at one person for keeping the ship on an even keel -- Bill McLellan, director of athletics.

McLellan "came up through the ranks" in the athletic department and has learned the intricate operation of a big time athletic program through listening, observing, digesting and analyzing the many problems which surround him 24 hours a day, 365 days of the year.

The Hamer, S.C., native has the knack to listen to four different conversations going on in his office at one time and be talking on another subject on the phone and grasp all that is going on in all five.

McLellan is tough and firm, but he is also fair with all the people he deals with. It's gotta be that way because he has to answer to the university administration, the Atlantic Coast Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association on any matter concerning about 300 athletes.

But at the same time, he is responsible for protecting and seeking to better the athletic interests of Clemson students, university faculty and staff, IPTAY members and other alumni and friends of the school.

There are also the daily problems of nine head coaches and their assistants, and a multitude of other things too numerous to mention. Needless to say, McLellan has little trouble getting in his eight hours everyday.

McLellan has seen a great transition in athletics at Clemson in his 23-years association with the department. From DC-4 airplanes to 600 mile an hour jets, from run-down hotels to modern motels, for a 20,000 to a 43,451 capacity stadium, improved protective equipment, from a non-equipped to an ultra modern training room, from a relative one-sport school to one representative teams in nine sports, from booster club support of a few thousand dollars a year to over a half million dollars and modern athletic facilities in all directions.

The old wooden seats in Memorial Stadium were replaced before last season with new aluminum contour seats. A new all-weather, nine-lane track was used for the first time this past spring. Sixteen hard-surfaced tennis courts, all lighted, are available and more are planned. Three new football practice fields, one equipped with the latest lighting techniques, are now in use.

The expanded intramural program is in full swing and with it, the renovation of Fike Field House. Already available for student use are four basketball courts, three with tartan floor. When construction is completed on Fike there will be over a dozen hand ball courts, wrestling room, modern dance room, golf room and other facilities strictly geared for student use.

On the backside of Fike will be the new swimming facilities with a 60x42 foot diving tank and a pool 75'1" long by 60' wide, along with a 650-capacity spectator area.

Expected to be occupied before football season this fall is the Jervey Athletic Center which will house the athletic department administrative offices, coaches' offices, dressing facilities for all sports, ticket office, an auxiliary gym, a dirt area for inside workouts, training and equipment rooms and other allied facilities necessary for an efficient athletic operation.

McLellan has seen or is seeing all of this happen. And much of it is due to the driving force and record pace that McLellan stays on.

McLellan lettered two years in football under former coach Frank Howard and was a member of the 1952 Tiger Gator Bowl team.

He received his BS in agronomy from Clemson in 1954 and then was awarded a graduate assistantship while working on his MS degree in agricultural economics which he received in 1956. He officially joined the athletic staff May 1, 1958 and was listed as assistant business manager. Between then and the time he was appointed assistant athletic director in 1966 and then director of athletics Feb. 4, 1971, he literally served in almost every available capacity in the department from grounds man to ticket sales to assistant coach. He was qualified in all categories just as he is in his present position.

McLellan is married to the former Ann Rogers of Fork, S.C., and they are the parents of four children, two daughters, Suzy, 18, and Arch Anna, 11, and two sons, Bill, 16, and Cliff, 15.

Red Parker, Head Football Coach

"I promise you that I'll leave no stone unturned, and that I will leave no avenue unexplored, in an attempt to put this program over the top and in a way that Clemson fans, alumni, students, and the guys who get out there and do the sweating deserve. As far as I'm concerned, there's only one way to go -- and brother, that's to win. And we're going to get after that winning."

It was last December, the 5th to be exact, when Jimmy Dale "Red" Parker uttered those words before a large gathering at the Clemson House. Because it was that day that the smiling red head from Hampton, Ark., was named as the Tigers 19th head coach.

But although the move to this beautiful campus in the northwestern part of the State of South Carolina was a new stop for him, Parker is not a newcomer to the head coaching ranks. In his 20 previous years of his successful coaching career, he has never served as anything less than a head mentor.

In 1953, following graduation from Arkansas A&M, where he earned three letters each in football, baseball, and track, Parker began his illustrious career, at the age of 21, at Fordyce, Ark., High School.

Before assuming the reins at Fordyce, the Arkansas school had dropped 22 games in a row. But when the dynamic red head had completed his eighth, and final, season in the prep ranks, Parker's achievements included a 37-game winning streak, three championships, and a won-lost mark of 75-12-4.

He was named head coach at his alma mater in 1961, where he stayed through the 1965 season, and saw Arkansas A&M post a five-year record of 29 wins, 19 losses, and two ties. But his last three campaigns were his best as the school claimed two conference titles and had a won-lost record of 24-5-1.

Parker's third head coaching position came at The Citadel -- The Military College of South Carolina. In his initial campaign, 1966, the Bulldogs battled through a 4-6 season. But in only his second year, 1967, The Citadel recorded more wins (5) than any other Bulldog team had managed since the 1961 unit went 7-3 on the year.

Then in 1968, Parker inserted the famed "Citadel Veer" offense. He refined and worked with that potent offense until it reached almost total perfection in 1971. That season, the Bulldogs amassed 5,030 total yards, which ranked The Citadel fourth in the nation in that department, scored 366 points, and posted a 8-3 record.

But with the close of the 1972 grid season, a seven-year stint at the small military college, which saw Parker instill fear in his opponents and record an overall mark of 39-34 with the dreaded "Citadel Veer," also came to a close.

The Tigers have changed their coach, but not their stripes; and although Parker has changed schools, the personable red head has not changed his enthusiasm nor his dedication. He's still the Vince Lombardi-Knute Rockne-George Patton-influenced coach he was when he began his career at the age of 21.

"I wouldn't predict that we're going to whip cream," related Parker, when questioned about the prospects of beating a certain opponent in 1973. "But I guarantee you one thing -- anybody that does whip us had better bring a lunch, because it's going to be a long afternoon." That's Red Parker.

Parker is married to the former Betty Goggans of Rison, Ark. They have two daughters, Vicki and Cindy, and a son, Jim Mack.

THE 1973 TIGERS — A

Clemson has changed its coach, but first-year mentor Red Parker is hopeful that the Tigers will sport their stripes in 1973 despite the loss of some key personnel, leaving Clemson with inexperience and a lack of depth at most positions.

Whereas the Tiger offense lost three of its top four rushers in Wade Hughes, Jay Washington and Heide Davis, who totaled over 1,300 yards rushing last fall, and leading pass receiver Dennis Goss, the defense was stripped by the graduation of three starters in the secondary — Ben Anderson, Bobby Johnson and Jeff Siepe.

Parker, who came to Clemson via The Citadel, brought a new veer offense with him which he installed during the off-season spring workouts.

And to direct Clemson's new offense — "Big Red's Machine — leading rusher for the Cubs in 1972, ran with the pigskin only four times with the varsity whereas Huntley, who missed both the 1971 and 1972 campaigns, netted 233 yards in 72 carries as a sophomore in 1970.

Red-shirt sophomore George Bosse and senior Leon Fabers, a converted defensive back, will also battle for the top spot at quick back with Fabers holding the slight edge at the present. But the presence of Sanders will throw a different light on that position.

Sophomore Leon Hope, a linebacker as a freshman last season, was the bright offensive star in the spring and he is listed as a starter at strong back ahead of red-shirt sophomore Marvin Anderson and Huntley. And Ferrum JC transfer Toni Mathews will definitely figure in the starting lineup.

GARY ALEXANDER

SMILEY SANDERS

KEN PEEPLES

The Tiger Triple," Parker has three capable signal-calling candidates in Ken Pengitore, Mark Fellers and Mike O'Cain.

Pengy, a senior, handled the duties a year ago and had the most impressive spring although Fellers, a junior, did a better job of moving his unit in the Orange-White contest. O'Cain, a sophomore up from the jayvee unit last season, showed some impressive talents in the spring.

Parker cites his team's greatest offensive deficiency in the area of proven running backs.

Other than senior Smiley Sanders, who started at tailback in 1972 but missed the spring drills because of baseball, Parker has but two running backs, Chuck Huntley and O. J. Tyler, who have carried the ball in varsity competition. And Tyler, the second

What looms to be Clemson's strongest and most depth-laden positions are the corps of receivers where Parker has both proven players and bright newcomers.

Seniors Gordy Bengel, a two-year starter, David Sasser, and Bob Shell, along with junior Jerry Davis, are capable veterans to fill the two split receiver spots. But they will be challenged by rising sophomores Craig Brantley and Rickey Bustle and junior college transfer Jim Lanzendoen.

Senior Karl Andreas and sophomore Bennie Cunningham could very well be two of the premier tight ends in the ACC as both are excellent receivers as well as rugged blockers.

New Coach and Inexperience

Junior lettermen Curt Buttermore and Maret Cobb are both prime candidates for starting spots at the tackle positions but they will have their hands full with sophomores Chipper Davis, who was listed as a starter at the conclusion of the spring drills, and Frank Bethea, who was red-shirted a year ago. JC transfer Ed Homonoff and sophomore Ford Gibson will also be given a shot in the fall to nail down a starting role.

Junior Ken Peeples, a starter at tackle a year ago, is listed as one of the starters at guard with sophomore Gary Alexander slated to grab the same spot on the other side of the line. But senior Art Brisacher, a starter in 1972, junior Al Murray, and sophomores Guy Lombardo and Wayne Neely could crack the lineup.

Senior John Bolubasz was moved from his linebacker spot to provide adequate replacement, or to challenge for a starting spot.

Although Parker feels he lacks depth at linebacker he realizes some quality athletes in junior Jimmy Williamson, senior Mike Buckner and sophomores Frank Wise and Jay Kreis.

Junior Willie Anderson was hampered by an injury in the spring while sophomore Mark Boynton had a tremendous showing in the Orange-White game at nose guard and they will battle for the starting spot this fall.

Senior Marion Reeves and sophomore Lynn Carson loom as the favorites at the two corners in the secondary with junior Jim Ness returning as a starter at Tiger – the rover back spot. And sophomore Peanut Martin is destined for stardom at safety. Senior Ricky Brown center in the spring and along with Ken Hicks, also a senior, and JC product Ron Bowlan, Parker is hopeful to adequately fill the position left by graduated Ricky Harrell.

G. G. GALLOWAY

PEANUT MARTIN

The defense was Parker's area of greatest concern in the spring mainly because of inexperience. But Jeff Stocks, a senior, is one of the finest ends in the league and along with senior Bob Jones, juniors Tom Boozer, Tim Blackwelder and Guy Gehret, and sophomore Dave Hughston, Parker feels as if this is the strongest position on the defense.

Senior Bruce Decock is the only tackle with any great deal of playing time although G. G. Galloway lettered as a freshman last fall. Junior Dan McBride, sophomores David LeBel and George Hyams, and freshman Harry Fulwood will have to come through to and sophomores Mark Lee, Tom Marsik and Tony Rouse could also land a starting role before the first game.

Wells Massengill handled the kickoffs as a freshman last season and he will have to fill the gap left vacant by leading scorer Eddie Seigler, who is now with the NFL's Chicago Bears. Newcomer Bob Burgess could also figure in with these duties.

Sophomore Chris Chappell and Brown shared the punting chores in the spring but junior college transfer Mitch Tyner is the likely candidate to take it over in the fall.

Even though the Tigers lack some experience and depth, Parker's enthusiasm and coaching ability should make for an interesting and exciting season in 1973.

Red Parker shows his play-acting ability, but evidently the man in the striped shirt is not impressed.

Staff Telephone Numbers

Hopefully, by the first part of September, the entire Clemson staff will be housed in the new Frank Johnstone Jervy Athletic Center. At that time, there will be a total of six lines, all rotating from 656-2101, direct to the athletic department in addition to some direct lines as noted below.

However, until the final move, and while offices are still located in Fike Field House, the football and the administrative staff can also be reached at 654-4111. But once in the new center, the only number needed will be 656-2101.

STAFF

DWIGHT ADAMS Linebacker Coach

A jovial and personable individual, Dwight Adams joined the Clemson staff this past January, coming from The Citadel where he served for the past seven seasons under first-year Tiger mentor Red Parker.

Adams, a native of Dover, Ark., held the title of assistant defensive coach and specialized in the ends and linebackers.

An all-conference grid selection as a collegian, Adams graduated from Henderson State with a BS in education in 1958.

His coaching career began at Pine Bluff, Ark., High School where he spent four seasons. And from there he journeyed to Lake Charles, La., as a prep coach for one season before joining Parker at The Citadel.

Since he began his coaching career, Adams has coached eight high school or college All-Americans, including two all-pro players.

Adams is married to the former Jo Bickham of Tillar, Ark., and they are the parents of three children -- two daughters, Jana, 14; and Ruth, 10; and a son, Scott, 12.

TOM BASS Defensive End Coach

Now the senior member of the Clemson staff, Tom Bass enters his seventh campaign with the Tigers, and under his third different head coach.

Bass came to Clemson from Tennessee and was head freshman coach from 1967 through the 1969 season under Frank Howard.

His next three years were spent under Hootie Ingram as defensive interior line coach and first-year coach Red Parker has switched Bass to the position of defensive end mentor.

The likable Bass earned his BA degree in biology from Maryville College in 1960 and was a standout in both baseball and football.

He entered the coaching field at Sevier County High School where he was an assistant one year prior to being named head coach, a position he held for the next four seasons.

Bass led his prep team to an overall four-year mark of 35-7-2, and was named East Tennessee's "Coach-of-the-Year" in 1964. He was an assistant at UT one year before coming to Clemson.

Bass, a native of Mooresville, N.C., is married to the former Susan Price of Knoxville, Tenn., and they have three children, Thomas Steven, 7; Laura Jane, 4; and John McAndrew, 3.

LARRY BECKISH Receiver Coach

One of the finest offensive coaches in the game, Larry Beckish, like Tom Bass, will enter the 1973 season under his third different Clemson mentor.

Beckish, a native of Haledon, N.J., received his BA degree in education from Wichita State in 1963 where he was a standout grid performer, serving as captain and being named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team as a senior.

He remained at his alma mater the next two campaigns as an assistant and then moved to Tampa for a two-year stint as offensive line coach.

Beckish then joined Frank Howard's staff at Clemson in 1968 and served two seasons under the Bashful Baron and one under Hootie Ingram in 1970.

Fran Curci, then the head coach at Miami, acquired the services of Beckish for the 1971 campaign, putting the young coach in charge of the Hurricanes offensive backfield.

He returned to Clemson last fall, serving as head jayvee coach, and led the Cubs to a 3-1-1 mark.

He is married to the former Alice Morley of Wichita, Kan., and they are the parents of two sons, Michael, 8; and Chris, 3.

JOE BURSON Defensive Backfield Coach

If enthusiasm and dedication were tangible assets, then Joe Burson would be the most wealthy person in the world.

Called "one of the finest young coaches in the game" by Clemson mentor Red Parker, Burson, who hails from Newnan, Ga., enters his fourth season on the Tigers grid staff.

A standout defensive back under Vince Dooley at Georgia, he graduated from the Athens institution in 1966 with a BS degree in industrial arts.

The ex-Bulldog was then drafted by the NFL's Washington Redskins, but a knee injury ended his professional career.

Burson's first coaching position came at Griffin, Ga., High School where he spent two seasons before coming to Clemson prior to the 1970 campaign.

In his initial year on the Tiger staff, he served as defensive coordinator for the freshman squad and the next year, 1971, was elevated to the varsity staff as defensive end coach, a position he held through the 1972 season.

Following Parker's first spring practice with the Tigers, the newly-appointed Clemson mentor assigned Burson to the defensive backfield.

Burson was married to the former Denise Johanson of North Caldwell, N.J., in August.

Offensive Backfield Coach DON MURRAY

When Red Parker came to Clemson, one of his first moves was to hire offensive-minded Don Murray, who had served under him for the past seven years at The Citadel.

Born in Harrison, Ark., Murray, who was an all-conference prepster in both football and basketball at Warren High School, earned four grid letters in football at Arkansas A&M under Parker.

He received his BS degree in education in 1966, and then served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater the following year.

Murray then joined his old grid coach at The Citadel and soon built the reputation as being one of the top young offensive coaches in the game.

He served on Parker's Bulldog staff as flanker and receiver coach. Murray's top product during his seven years at The Citadel was All-American Brian Baima, who led the nation in most yards receiving (1,237 yards) on 64 catches in 1971.

Murray is married to the former Libby Gibbs of Crossett, Ark. They are the parents of one son, Barry, 3.

Offensive Line Coach DUKE OWEN

One of the most popular and well-liked personalities on the Clemson campus, Duke Owen begins his fourth season as a Tiger assistant.

The Lebanon, Ky., native received his BS degree in mathematics from Georgetown, Ky., College in 1953, entered the coaching field in the prep ranks, and immediately established himself as one of the top coaches in the game.

He guided Mount Sterling, Ky., High School to a nine-year record of 76-29-4, and to the state playoffs in three of his first five seasons.

The "Iron Duke" jumped to the college scene in 1964 at Kentucky and remained there through the 1968 season. Owen spent the 1969 campaign at Cincinnati where he served as offensive line coach.

Armed with nothing more than determination and a handful of dedicated players, Owen came to Clemson in 1970 and guided the freshman unit to an impressive 4-1 mark, which included three shutout wins in the final three games of the year. He assumed duties of the varsity offensive line in 1971.

Owen is married to the former Florence Deeb of Louisville, Ky., and they have two sons, David, 15; and Mitchell, 13.

Assistant Offensive Coach STEVE SATTERFIELD

After having earned the distinct honor of being recognized as one of the top high school coaches in the game, Steve Satterfield joined the Clemson staff prior to the 1971 season.

A product of Greer, Satterfield played his college ball at South Carolina where he quarterbacked the Gamecocks for three seasons, being named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Scholastic team in 1958.

Satterfield was a prep assistant for four years before taking over the head duties at Greenville's Wade Hampton High School.

The following season, Satterfield moved to Sumter and guided Edmunds High to a six-year mark of 45-19-3.

Included in his tenure at Edmunds, was an undefeated 12-0 mark in 1969 and a 4-A state championship trophy.

Satterfield, who holds his masters degree from Appalachian State, was head freshman coach at Clemson in his initial season, was elevated as offensive backfield coach last fall, and now will work with all areas of the offense.

He is married to the former Barbara Woodall of Taylors, and they have three children, Keleigh, 13; Steven, 9; and Susan Joy, 1½.

Defensive Line Coach HAROLD STEELMAN

A man who always has a smile on his face, Harold Steelman, like Dwight Adams and Don Murray, came with Red Parker from The Citadel following the 1972 season.

The Pine Bluff, Ark., native spent two years at Little Rock Junior College as a grid performer before heading on to Arkansas, where he graduated in 1955 with a BS in education.

While with the Razorbacks, Steelman played on Arkansas' 1954 Cotton Bowl team.

He spent two years each in the prep coaching ranks at Texarkana, Lewisville, and Eldorado High Schools before joining Parker on the staff at Arkansas A&M.

He remained with the red head at the Arkansas school and also came with him to The Citadel in 1966.

Steelman spent his past seven seasons with the Bulldogs, holding the title as head defensive coach with overall defensive responsibilities and specializing with the interior line.

He is married to the former Carolyn Corley of Little Rock, Ark., and they are the parents of a daughter, Sara Lyn, 16; and a son, Hal, 13.

ED EMORY Jayvee Coordinator

Considered one of the top prep coaches in the South, Ed Emory joined the Clemson staff this past July from Brevard, N.C., High School.

Following graduation from East Carolina in 1960, where he was a standout lineman for the Pirates, Emory was an assistant at Kinston, N.C., High School three years, before being named as head mentor at Wadesboro, N.C., High.

Emory held that position for a total of four seasons and was then tabbed as head coach at Wadesboro's Bowman High School in 1968. Then after a one-year stint at Wake Forest, Emory went to Brevard where he has posted a 35-7 mark over the past four seasons.

Three times he has been named as a conference coach-of-the-year, twice in Wadesboro, and once at Brevard, and in 1971 Emory was tabbed as the Western North Carolina Coach-of-the-Year. His overall coaching record is 75-17-2.

He is married to the former Virginia Jones of Greenville, N.C., and they have one daughter, Lucille, 11; and a son, Battle, 7.

RONNIE CARTER Asst. Jayvee Coach and Recruiter

All the way from the seventh grade to the staff at Clemson, Ronnie Carter has been with Red Parker - either as a player or as a coach.

A native of Fordyce, Ark., Carter played for the red head at Fordyce High School, where the former lettered in football, basketball, and track, prior to his graduation in 1961.

After spending a year and a half at the University of Arkansas, Carter transferred to Arkansas A&M where he was a standout running back for Parker before graduating in 1967.

He entered the coaching field the next year at Monticello, Ark., and after serving as an assistant, was elevated to head coach where he battled through a 3-7-1 record in his initial year, but came back with a fine 7-4 mark the next season.

Carter then moved to Charleston where he served as an assistant at St. Andrews for one year, assumed the head duties the next, and posted a two-year mark of 16-5 as the Rocks mentor.

Carter is married to the former Diane Rash of Monticello, Ark., and they have one daughter, Jennifer, 18 months.

TOM MOORE Assistant Jayvee Coach

It was almost like a homecoming for Tom Moore when Red Parker assumed the head coaching reins at Clemson last December. Because Moore, a native of Dayton, O., played college ball under the red head at The Citadel.

Moore, who preped at Beaver Falls, Pa., High School and played on the same team with New York Jet quarterback Joe Namath, earned three letters at The Citadel as a halfback and wide receiver.

As a senior, Moore was selected as one of the co-captains for the Cadets and also earned All-Southern Conference recognition.

Following graduation in 1967 with a BS in political science, Moore served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater one season.

He was then named as offensive coordinator at Aurora Central, Colo., High School and stayed there one year before moving to the college ranks at Wichita State.

At WSU, Moore was head freshman mentor in 1968, and then receiver coach for the varsity in 1969 and 1970.

He joined the Clemson staff prior to the 1971 season.

Moore is married to the former Joyce Stewart of Clemson and they have one son, Rhett.

WILLIAM SWINGER Assistant Jayvee Coach

The newest addition to Red Parker's Clemson staff is the personable William Swinger, who joined the family this past summer from Will Roberts' successful program at Anderson's Westside High School.

Swinger was a three-sport standout as a prepster at Westside and quarterbacked the grid team to the state championship his senior season in 1961. He then entered South Carolina State on a football scholarship, where he was tabbed both all-state and all-conference as a signal-caller and a defensive safety prior to receiving his BS degree in physical education in 1965.

New Deal High School in Starr was his first stop in the coaching ranks where he served as both the head football and basketball coach for two seasons before moving on to his alma mater as an assistant.

After a two-year stint in the U.S. Army, including some time in Viet Nam, Swinger returned to Westside where he has been coaching for the past three years.

He is married to the former Lois Yvonne Carter of Anderson and they are the parents of one daughter, Monique, 2½.

CLYDE WRENN Recruiting Coordinator

An around-the-clock and diligent worker, Clyde Wrenn enters his second season on the Clemson staff, and has just completed his first full year as the Tigers chief recruiter.

The Chester native played baseball at Spartanburg Junior College, transferred to N. C. State after two years, and earned his BS degree in recreation and park administration in 1965.

The year after his graduation, Wrenn was named as head assistant football and head baseball coach at Florence's Southside High School.

Wrenn, who earned his masters from Western Carolina, remained at Southside for five seasons before accepting the position as athletic director and head football coach at West Florence High School.

Then following a two-year tour of duty there, he came to Clemson prior to the 1972 campaign as an assistant jayvee coach and also worked with both recruiting and scouting.

Wrenn is married to his former hometown sweetheart, Willa Lynn, and they are the parents of two sons, Craig, 4; and Cal, 1.

Head Trainer FRED HOOVER

Recognized by his peers as one of the top trainers in the country, Fred Hoover begins his 15th season as a valuable member of the Clemson staff.

"Doc" Hoover earned his BS degree in physical education from Florida State in 1953, where he served as trainer in 1952-53 and again in 1957-58.

The Jacksonville, Fla., native is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, and has served as a past district director and past national president of the NATA, and has just completed a year as the national convention chairman of that organization.

Hoover handled the training duties for the United States at the Pan American games in Sao Paulo, Brazil in 1963, and was selected to serve on the staff in the Olympic games in Munich, Germany last summer.

He is married to the former Elva Cook of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and they have one daughter, Catherine Ann, 15; and one son, Bryan, 12.

Assistant Trainer HERMAN MCGEE

"Mr. Clemson," Herman McGee, has taped more ankles of Clemson athletes than of all other trainers combined. Because Herm has been with the Tigers for the past 39 years.

And in his tenure, the Pendleton native has served as assistant trainer, head trainer, and equipment manager.

He can tell you everything about every Clemson athlete since he has been with Clemson, and about all seven bowl appearances the Tigers have made -- from the 1940 Cotton through the 1959 Bluebonnet.

McGee is married to the former Lucia Greene of Pendleton.

Equipment Manager TOM BURTON

A dedicated worker, Tom Burton enters his fifth season as equipment manager on the Clemson athletic staff. And "Sarge" handles his equipment in the same manner he handled his recruits during a 22-year career in the U.S. Army--in top shape.

The Richmond, Va., native served in eight foreign countries in the military, including Asiatic-Pacific area, Germany, and three tours of the Far East.

Burton was no newcomer to the college scene as he has served on the Furman ROTC staff one year, and on the Clemson ROTC staff seven years. At Clemson, Burton was also chaperone for the Tiger band.

He is married to the former Bea Davis of Lynchburg, Va., and they are the parents of two daughters, Jan, 20; and Jerry, 19.

Academic Advisor RICK ROBBINS

Some call him "Braincoach," and some call him "Colonel." Regardless of the title, Rick Robbins coaches more than 300 Clemson athletes each year as the Tigers academic advisor.

And in his spare time, the Austin, Tex., native serves as Clemson's assistant track coach.

Robbins graduated from the University of Texas and retired from the U.S. Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Robbins is responsible for the many Clemson athletes graduating with honor and has aided, successfully, in the negotiations between many Tiger athletes and professional teams.

He is married to the former Clare Eaves of Palestine, Tex. They have two sons, Dick, 19, a Clemson sophomore; and Tommy, 15.

Head Coach Red Parker Says:

On Evaluating Team Prior to Spring Drills

"When I was at The Citadel last year we had looked at game films on Clemson prior to our season opener with the Tigers. Then, we felt, as we did after the game, that the biggest weakness was speed on the corners. By that I mean trying to get the ball, offensively, outside. This was one of our biggest target areas in the spring but I can't really say that it was satisfactorily answered during our off-season workout."

On Personnel Position Changes in the Spring

"During the first few days of work during the off-season sessions, we wanted to get a good look at each player, both offensively and defensively, hoping to find a real surprise or two and maybe discover some unknown talent. Although there were not as many changes or surprises as I had hoped there would be, we found two excellent running back candidates in Leon Hope, who played linebacker on the jayvee team last season, and Leon Fabers, a defensive back last fall. Both of these individuals had impressive springs."

On Overall View of Spring Practice

"We feel as if we made a considerable amount of progress in the spring. Most of all, I feel as though our greatest strides were made in the areas of both mental and physical toughness."

On Possibility of Using Freshmen on 1973 Varsity

"Right now we feel that there are two or three positions that might require some freshmen help. And from the credentials of some of our signees we feel as though we have a few prospects who appear to be varsity material this fall."

On Junior College Transfers

"We felt that we needed a few quality players at some positions for this fall and we signed five who we felt could help our needs. We got a split receiver, Jim Lanzendoen, and a premier running back, Toni Mathews, both from an outstanding program at Ferrum Junior College. In addition, we signed Mitch Tyner, a proven punter from Lees-McRae, and two offensive linemen, Ron Bowlan from Pratt JC and Ed Homonoff from Los Angeles Valley Junior College. We think that all five will be a tremendous asset to our program here at Clemson."

On Competitive Outlook for 1973

"We had a good spring practice, and with the exception of our final game, we felt that each practice session meant something to each player on the field. And I believe that we, as a team, will be at our best late in each game."

On "Big Red's Machine -- The Tiger Triple"

"The triple option is a dangerous, high-risk offense. It's one that a lot of people sometimes pay their way into the stands to see who recovers the fumbles. It is based on the quarterback going down the line of scrimmage and not knowing exactly who is going to handle the ball. You have to throw the ball and throw it well to make this offense go. If we have a receiver who can cause for a man-and-a-half defensively to concentrate on, then we'll be in business."

On Immediate Goals

"Our immediate goal is to have a winning season. And we better believe that we can do it. I wouldn't want anyone on the squad who believed otherwise."

SQUAD

Karl Robert (Karl) Andreas
Tight End
6-2 212 8-7-52 84
Senior from Slatington, Pa.

This big, strong receiver returns for his final season as the Tigers number one tight end . . . following an impressive freshman campaign, gained some valuable training playing behind John McMakin, who is now the Pittsburgh Steelers top tight end . . . Andreas was Clemson's starting tight end throughout the 1972 season . . . hauled in six aerials for 67 yards last fall . . . a determined and hard-working athlete, Andreas had a good spring practice . . . this Pennsylvania native, according to coach Parker, does everything well -- he is a most effective blocker, has great hands, and he understands the passing game . . . he is a steady down-after-down football player and probably catches the ball in a crowd better than anyone else on the team . . . won "Athlete-of-the-Year" Award at Slatington High . . . education major.

Gordon L. (Gordy) Bengel
Split Receiver
6-1½ 195 7-18-52 83
Senior from Towson, Md.

Bengel could very well be the best athlete on the Tiger squad . . . joined the Clemson grid program after playing but one season of prep football . . . was a starting offensive tackle on the 1970 freshman unit . . . made the transition to wide receiver as a sophomore and started in that spot for the Tigers in 1971 . . . came into his own last fall and was the team's second leading pass catcher with 12 receptions for 187 yards -- his longest being a 27-yarder . . . rated by the coaching staff as a sure-handed receiver with fine speed . . . has the ability of running the excellent routes . . . Bengel has the knack of catching the ball in a crowd and runs well after making the reception . . . is an excellent split receiver with a great deal of toughness . . . rated as an excellent downfield blocker . . . financial management major.

John Theodore (John) Bolubasz
Center
 6-1½ 199 7-19-52 54
Senior from Elizabeth, Pa.

An extremely gifted athlete who once again opens the season at a different position . . . as a freshman he was the Cubs' number one center . . . but the next year he was switched to the defensive unit and broke into the starting line-up before the opening game, playing as the Tigers left linebacker in all 11 games . . . then last fall, as a junior, Bolubasz was moved to the middle linebacker spot where he played behind Willie Anderson . . . and when Red Parker assumed the duties at Clemson and played everyone on both offense and defense, the first-year Tiger mentor moved this versatile performer back to the center position . . . and according to Parker, Bolubasz is one of the best football players on the team . . . has been tabbed as the quickest offensive lineman on the squad and one who is probably the most adept cut-off blocker . . . is making the good transition back to the offense.

Mike Phillip (Mike) Buckner
Linebacker
 6-0 197 7-29-52 58
Senior from Morristown, Tenn.

This rugged football player becomes the second Morristown native, to play for the Tigers, destined for greatness, following in the footsteps of Ricky Harrell, who inked a pact with the New York Jets following the '72 season . . . Buckner immediately caught the coaches eyes as a freshman linebacker with his continuous fine performances . . . as a sophomore, he was switched to defensive end where he saw a considerable amount of playing time . . . showed his determination last fall when he opened the season as a starter at defensive end, missed the next few games because of an injury, and came back to win his top spot again . . . a vicious and deadly tackler, Buckner has been tabbed as the most aggressive tackler on the team . . . switched to linebacker in spring drills where his ability to pursue will be used more effectively . . . majoring in administrative management.

Bruce Arnold (Bruce) Decock
Defensive Tackle
6-0 214 9-16-52
Senior from Kittanning, Pa.

Had a considerable amount of playing time as a junior last fall and got in some starting roles . . . has been a steady performer for the Tigers at defensive tackle for the past two varsity campaigns after an outstanding freshman season on the Cub team . . . has great strength and seems to perform better when the competition gets tougher . . . Decock really showed impressive qualities in the off-season spring workouts . . . he enters his final season with the Tigers as the only experienced defensive lineman on the team and will be counted on to fill one of the starting slots and give some leadership to the younger defenders . . . Decock is not exceptionally big as tackles go, but his quickness and ability to read the blockers are considered to be his assets . . . was an all-state prepster at Kittanning Senior High School . . . pre-dental major.

Ken Robert (Ken) Pengitore
Quarterback
5-11 187 3-27-52
Senior from Haledon, N. J.

Returning for his final season, Pengitore started in all but one game for the Tigers in 1972 . . . over the past two campaigns, has connected on better than 42 percent of his passes for 1,042 yards . . . had a new found quickness during the spring workouts following the loss of some 18-20 pounds and this, along with his fine throwing arm, are his best assets . . . according to coach Parker, Pengitore has the poise, the contact courage, and his running ability is now a threat to the opponent defense which should make this flashy signal-caller an excellent leader of Clemson's veer offense . . . a hard-working individual, he will have to fight off the challenge afforded by Fellers and O'Cain to retain his starting role . . . preped at Manchester Regional High School . . . majoring in industrial management.

Marion Francis (Marion) Reeves

Defensive Back

6-1 184 2-23-52

Senior from Irmo

This should be a banner season for this hard-nosed individual in the secondary . . . his best varsity year came in 1971 when, as a sophomore starter, he picked off four enemy aerals, including two in the Tigers 17-7 win over arch-rival South Carolina . . . had an up-and-down season last fall but then came around to his sophomore form when he had what is considered by the coaching staff as his best off-season practice yet this past spring . . . lost a few pounds of excessive weight which has made his quickness, agility, and reaction time much greater . . . is a sure, aggressive, and punishing tackler . . . the presence of this individual will add experience to the secondary and he could very well hold the key to Clemson's defensive plans in 1973 . . . majoring in administrative management.

Jeffrey Lynn (Jeff) Stocks

Defensive End

6-2 196 12-6-51

Senior from New Bern, N.C.

It seems as if everytime this dedicated defensive stand-out steps on the field he does a better job . . . was the Tigers last signee in 1970, coming to Clemson just a few days prior to the opening of fall practice, and stepped right into a starting role for the Cubs . . . as a sophomore he was listed as a second team defensive end but because of the platooning system used by the coaches, he saw just as much action as the starters . . . and last fall, Stocks started in all 11 games for the Tigers at left end . . . picked off one opponent pass a year ago and showed his ability to run with the ball as he returned it for 17 yards . . . a fiery competitor who knows nothing less than 100 per cent . . . according to coach Parker, Stocks is a definite All-ACC candidate who does everything well . . . an additional 10-15 pounds could make him a great one, which many feel he already is . . . majoring in biology.

Gary McKenzie (Gary) Alexander OT*6-5 234 1-16-54*Sophomore from Seneca

One of the top young prospects on Tiger squad...has the size and the strength to be a great one...was a starter for the Cubs last fall and saw some action for the varsity...came on strong late in spring practice...not only will he have the potential to be a starter this season, but has the chance to be a strong starter...coaching staff figures on a tremendous improvement from this lineman during the early fall...was a four-sport star at nearby Seneca High School...nicknamed "Midget"...majoring in industrial education.

74*Willie (Willie) Anderson LB*6-2 210 12-4-52*Junior from Mayesville

Stepped right in at middle linebacker as a sophomore last fall to replace Larry Hefner, now with the Green Bay Packers, at that position...quick and rugged individual who will be looking for a starting role again this season...was hurt during the spring drills and missed the entire off-season workouts...if he returns to his sophomore form as expected, he should have a super year in 1973... "Big Will" is by far one of the most determined athletes on the squad...an all-state selection at Mayewood High School...recreation and park administration major.

89*Noah Henry (Henry) Allen LB*6-0 216 1-15-52*Sophomore from Manning

A hard-working young linebacker with the potential to be a fine college performer...still needs some valuable experience to be a top-flight addition to the Tiger program...came to Clemson from Manning High where he earned four letters in football, three in baseball, two in basketball, and one in track...was most valuable player on both grid and diamond teams as prepster...played in South Carolina North-South All-Star Game...industrial education major.

Iptay . . .

The Clemson IPTAY Club received more in contributions during its 39th year of operation than in any previous 12-month period.

Members of IPTAY (I Pay Twenty A Year) "paved the way" with over $513,000 into what is considered by many, some not even connected with Clemson athletics in any way, as the finest collegiate booster club in America.

The officers and directors of IPTAY proposed the largest goal ever in the history of the organization when $500,000 was decided as the necessary amount needed.

Not only was that goal exceeded, but something new was added -- the Clemson IPTAY Scholarship Fund -- for the purpose of receiving contributions for perpetual and life memberships in each membership category.

The first to give funds for the endowed scholarship was Mr. and Mrs. C. Guy Gunter of Greenville. The Gunter gift was by far the largest ever received by IPTAY in its history and the income from this fund will be sufficient for one full athletic scholarship each year.

Lewis F. Holmes of Trenton, president of IPTAY said: "We believe that the gift from Mr. and Mrs. Gunter is the first of many we will receive for perpetual and life memberships through the Clemson IPTAY Scholarship Fund. We are deeply indebted to the Gunters for their thought behind this gift and appreciate their concern toward the continued progress of college athletics."

Organized in 1934, IPTAY functions with just one purpose in mind -- to finance athletic scholarships at Clemson. The club operates today just as it did 40 years ago. Not one single penny contributed to IPTAY during the past 40 years has been used for anything other than scholarships. All contributions made to IPTAY are tax deductible.

When the late Dr. Ruppert H. (Rube) Fike started turning the thoughts of IPTAY over in his mind, the Tigers were at one of their lowest depths in football. Clemson had won only seven games while losing 17 and tying five in the past three years.

The beginning of IPTAY was the biggest shot in the arm ever received by Clemson athletics. The initial success was more than anticipated. For the next eight seasons, the football teams had break even or better records. And the sixth year after IPTAY was born, the Tigers went to their first of seven post-season bowl games.

But no one imagined, not even Dr. Fike, that IPTAY would expand in the manner that it stands today. For the past seven years, contributions to IPTAY have exceeded each previous year.

In the past 40 years of IPTAY, thousands of student-athletes have received an education through this organization which might not have otherwise been possible.

While football was to be the main beneficiary of IPTAY funds, Clemson's 10 other athletic teams have also benefited from the program. Conference championships have been won in football, baseball, basketball, soccer and tennis, not to mention the numerous All-America and all-conference honors won by individuals.

IPTAY members are winners today and they are helping make winners for tomorrow.

For the past five seasons, Jim Phillips has played a major role in the Clemson football program. Since 1968, Phillips, who has been named South Carolina's Sportscaster-of-the-Year for the past three seasons, has brought Tiger football right into the homes of thousands of Clemson fans.

With Phillips, sports director at Greenville's WFBC-TV, calling the play-by-play, and Scott Shannon handling the commentary, fans are assured of a 50-yard line seat each time the Tigers take the field.

In addition to the some 60 South Carolina stations which carry Clemson football, a few stations in both North Carolina and Georgia follow the Tigers.

Then one day later, join Phillips for the "Red Parker Show" as the two review all the thrills and excitement from the previous day's battle on the coach's TV show.

A Tribute to Ben Anderson——

A True Winner

A lot's happened to Ben Anderson since he earned his diploma from Strom Thurmond High School in 1969. But prosperity hasn't affected the Edgefield native. Ben Anderson was still the same unassuming sort of fellow when he graduated with highest honors from Clemson this past May, with his 3.81 grade point average out of a possible 4.0, earning his BA degree in political science, as he was when he entered school.

He stood an even six feet, and weighed 174 pounds soaking wet. Moreover, he was not gifted with the speed which most defensive safeties possess. However, Anderson was blessed with the intangible assets of determination and self-belief.

Although not approached by Clemson scouts as a prepster, Anderson, equipped with his desires, entered school and went out for football as a walk-on candidate, made the freshman squad, and started all five games for the Cubs.

Then, in the fall practice prior to his sophomore year, things began to happen for the determined Anderson. An injury or two and some position changes, together with an impressive pre-season practice, advanced Anderson from the bottom of the pile to the first team spot.

That was all it took -- just that chance. Anderson started the first game of the 1970 season and the next 32 consecutive games which carried through the final contest of his senior year in 1972.

On the field, Anderson intercepted nine opponent passes in three varsity seasons, was named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Scholastic first team for three consecutive years, and to the All-American Academic Second team his junior year.

Off the field, he was a member of the Clemson Block 'C' Club, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Blue Key (a men's scholarship and leadership fraternity), Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Eta Sigma (both scholarship fraternities), and Tiger Brotherhood, which is a local honorary and service fraternity.

And in his senior year, Anderson served as president of Tiger Brotherhood and also received the organization's Steve Hinson Award, for being the outstanding member.

In addition, he received the Croxton Ferris Mobley Award, given to the senior athlete with the highest scholastic average at the Orange-White game this past spring, the first annual James F. Byrnes American Government Award at Clemson's Honors and Awards Day as the outstanding senior majoring in political science, and the Norris Award for being named as the best all-around student.

Anderson, who is now enrolled at the University of South Carolina's School of Law, was one of 33 individuals selected from all the country's colleges and universities to receive a $1,000 NCAA post-graduate scholarship.

And to top it off, he was the recipient of the Jim Weaver Post-Graduate Scholarship, also a $1,000 gift, awarded annually to the outstanding Atlantic Coast Conference athlete who has distinguished himself by his academic record and leadership qualities.

His father, Mr. Joe Anderson, is an attorney in Edgefield, and his mother, Mrs. Carmen Anderson, was recognized as Clemson's "Mother-of-the-Year" in 1972, for contributing the most to the university through her actions or those of her children.

It's hard to say in a few sentences what needs to be said about Anderson. But ex-Tiger coach Hootie Ingram, who was his coach for his three varsity seasons at Clemson, probably summed up the real Ben Anderson: "He was the silent but outstanding leader of our squad. Ben prepared himself through the week for each Saturday's game with more dedication than any other player I've ever been associated with. He was a fierce competitor and had the ability to perform under pressure. Ben exemplified what a true American wants to see in a college athlete: a great religious conviction, character above reproach, modesty in victory, and determination to overcome defeat."

Let's Go Tigers

Dr. Robert C. Edwards became the eighth president of Clemson University in 1959. And he's the Tigers number one fan. It's just as natural to see him following Clemson on the road as it is to see him in Death Valley.

Manning, Burns, and Lever Halls are three of Clemson's modern dormitories. These 10-story residence halls house some 1,500 students.

"This Land Was Made For You And Me"

Nestled at the foot of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains and surrounded by tree-mantled hills and spacious Lake Hartwell, is Clemson University.

Blessed by the touch of nature, Clemson's tree-lined campus provides a panoramic background accentuating the traditional and contemporary features of the University's rapidly expanding physical plant.

The main campus comprises 600 acres and represents an investment of approximately $75 million in permanent facilities.

The academic growth and social and cultural development of students are the prime reasons for any university's existence. And since much of the students' time is spent outside the classroom, the University hopes that all activities of student life can become part of the overall learning process.

Clemson offers 50 curriculums in nine undergraduate colleges and 54 programs in graduate studies, forming a background of training for the hundreds of occupations and professions in which Clemson graduates engage.

D. W. Daniel Hall and the adjoining Strode Tower contain the classrooms and offices for Clemson's Liberal Arts Department.

Clemson Memorial Stadium—"Death Valley"

In the past 31 seasons, 24 teams have made appearances in Clemson Memorial Stadium, now pretty widely known as "Death Valley." Six teams (George Washington, Kentucky, Villanova, Alabama, Georgia and Auburn) have an edge on the Tigers' home ground and three of these, (George Washington, Kentucky and Villanova) have just played one game in Memorial Stadium.

Clemson has shutout opponents 28 times in "Death Valley" (Presbyterian 9 times; N. C. State 4; Furman, Citadel, Duquesne and Wake Forest, twice each; and VPI, Auburn, Virginia, Duke, North Carolina, Texas Christian and Maryland, once each). The Tigers have been shutout nine times at home in 31 seasons, the last time being in 1972 when Duke blanked the Tigers 7-0.

Between the Maryland shutout in 1953 and the Duke blanking in 1962, the Tigers scored in 38 consecutive home games.

There have only been two ties in 125 games played in the stadium, one with Mississippi State in 1949 and the other with Georgia in 1963.

In the next column is how Clemson stands against teams who have played in "Death Valley."

RECORDS

Safety Richie Luzzi drops in the Georgia end zone but not until he has raced 108 yards for a touchdown against the Bulldogs in Athens in 1968. Luzzi had taken a Georgia field goal attempt which had fallen short eight yards deep in the Tiger end zone and went the length of the field for the score, leaving fallen Bulldogs in his wake.

Fred Cone was labeled “the greatest player I have ever coached” by Frank Howard. In addition to finding his name affixed to six Clemson scoring records, his seven years with the NFL’s Green Bay Packers left his name among the elite in Packer scoring statistics.

Flashy tailback Buddy Gore captured the heart of many Clemson fans during his tenure in 1966-67-68. Not only does he hold many school rushing records, but the two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection was named as the Player-of-the-Year in the ACC in 1967.

CLEMSON 1973-74 BASKETBALL

It could be the beginning of a new era for Clemson basketball as Tate Locke enters his fourth season at the Tiger helm.

Locke's cagers have improved each year under his guidance and the Clemson mentor figures his 1973-74 unit will be his best yet, although the Tigers operate out of the nation's toughest basketball league -- the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Two starters return from the 72-73 squad in the form of 6-2 Van Gregg (13.6) and 6-6 Jeff Reisinger (11.7). The southpaw shooting Gregg was tabbed by Locke as "the best shooter I have ever coached," whereas Reisinger was the only Tiger to start in all 26 games last season.

Also back from a year ago are 6-0 Terrell Suit (7.1) and 6-9 Wayne Croft (4.8) to fight for a starting role.

Locke will inherit the services of his top six players from the jayvee unit headed by 6-0 Bruce Harman (20.2) and 6-8 Marty Patterson (16.3). In addition, 6-0 Tim Capehart (15.6), 6-9 Charlie Rogers (15.2), 6-2 David Dobson (11.8) and 6-9 Scott Conant (11.6) will all have a shot at one of the top spots.

Jo Jo Bethea, a 6-1 backcourt ace, chipped in 16.4 points per game for Anderson Junior College last season, and together with his defensive ability, could find himself in a starting role.

Freshman signees who might figure in with the varsity include 6-3 Donald Boop of Orrville, O.; 6-8 David Brown of York, Pa.; 6-6 Andy Butchko of Sharon, Pa.; 6-2 John Franken of Colonia, N.J.; and 7-1 Wayne Rollins of Cordele, Ga.

Two years ago BASKETBALL NEWS rated Clemson's schedule as the toughest cage slate in the nation and a year ago it was ranked as the sixth toughest. And Locke's cagers promise even more exciting play for the 1973-74 campaign.
