The Clearing House . . .

Again it is our pleasure to prepare a brochure for you that we hope will assist you from time to time during the coming football season when you need some general information on the Tigers.

We realize the answers to all of your questions are not in this book. However, we welcome the opportunity to fill every reasonable request made to this office for stories, pictures, features, radio tapes and the like.

Requests for working press, radio and photographer tickets should be made directly to the Sports Publicity Office, preferably a week in advance of the game concerned. These requests will be honored from sports editors and sports directors only.

The press box is operated for the convenience of the working press. We expect large coverages for our five home games and only those actually working the game can be accommodated.

No women, other than accredited women sports writers and Western Union operators, will be permitted in the press box at anytime. No children are allowed. The press box is operated in accordance with recommendations of the Football Writers Association of America and the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association.

During the game we furnish programs, three-deep charts, line-ups, halftime and final statistics, and a quarter-by-quarter play-by-play account. We serve fried chicken, ham, assorted sandwiches, cold drinks and hot coffee to the working press. This is ready by noon and is available before, during and after the game.

THE COVER

We sent Phil Neel of the Birmingham Post-Herald our idea on a cover and he came up with another gem dandy. Coach Frank Howard of Clemson has been connected with eight bowls, one as a player ('31 Rose), one as an assistant coach ('40 Cotton) and six as head coach ('49 Gator, '51 Orange, '52 Gator, '57 Orange, '59 Sugar and '59 Bluebonnet). Howard is getting ready for that '60 roll. What will it be? For you non-dice rollers, our cover dice show a "7" or "11" on the winning years and "craps" on the losers.

Wheel and Deal . . .

Frank Howard faces what could be termed a pretty big rebuilding job with his Clemson Tigers this fall.

Gone are such familiar faces as Harvey White, Paul Snyder, Lou Cordileone, Harold Olson, Doug Daigneault, Bill Mathis, George Usry and Doug Cline. This group helped make Howard a good coach the last three years.

But even with these eight, among others, gone from the scene, Howard doesn't consider himself in the dark ages, mainly because of some pretty good talent back for another year.

Even though seven of last year's Bluebonnet starters aren't back, 10 of the 11 who made up the alternate unit are returning and seven have been moved up to the first platoon.

The Tigers are defending Atlantic Coast Conference champions for the third time in four years. And they have been bowl participants during the same time.

Howard feels he has the best 11 men on his first unit and he also senses that the talent behind these is out to make a few headlines.

A backfield averaging close to 200 can be found in quarterback Lowndes Shingler, halfbacks Bill McGuirt and Harry Pavilack and fullback Ron Scrudato. They not only run with authority but have a pretty good grasp of the game when it comes to blocking and tackling.

Backing Shingler are sophomore Joe Anderson and senior lettermen Johnnie Mac Goff and Don Heilig.

At halfback sophomores play a prominent part. Here Howard has adopted a "wait and see" attitude because only one in the first six has ever been in a game.

Pavilack is the junior and sophomore McGuirt is destined to be a headline getter. Jimmy Hardwick, Coleman Glaze, Mack Matthews and Elmo Lam could furnish Tiger fans many a pleasant Saturday. Jim Wilson and Sonny Quesenberry could come into their own. Quesenberry has been the Tigers' hard luck guy the last two years and any action he sees depends on whether or not his injured knee holds up.

Scrudato looked good in spring drills at fullback and Wendall Black and ex-center Pete Morrison back him.

Ron Andreo, Jack Veronee and Frank Zoretich handle the center spot while Dave Lynn, Dave Olson, Tommy Gue, Calvin West, Morgan Fowler and Tracy Childers look like six tough ones at guard.

Ronnie Osborne and Jimmy King open at tackle, but look for Dave Hynes and Don Chuy, aided by Joel Palmer and Harvey Haynie to spill a little blood.

Five of the first six ends are lettermen with Sam Anderson being the only senior. All-ACC Gary Barnes is Sam's running mate and Tommy King, Ed Bost, Ronnie Crolley and Oscar Thorsland are capable relief hands.

These 35 or 40 boys will probably see most of the action. They, and a few others in the darkhorse category, hold the fate of Howard's 21st season.

The Croupier . . .

Frank (7 Come 11) Howard

The habit of winning conference championships and going to post-season games has become pretty much of a trademark with Frank Howard the last several years.

Three of the last four seasons have found the "Keeper of Death Valley" in the driver's seat in the Atlantic Coast Conference in addition to carrying Tiger teams to the Orange, Sugar and Bluebonnet Bowls.

Howard

Howard is now moulding his 21st team at Clemson and it is his 30th on the Clemson staff. After Howard graduated from Alabama in 1931, he came to Clemson and has been drawing his checks from that institution ever since.

During the past 20 years as Clemson head coach, Howard has a record of 115 wins, 70 losses and 10 ties. This record is good enough to rank him sixth in the nation among the active coaches at major schools. Jess Neely at Rice has 177 wins, Dr. Eddie Anderson of Holy Cross has 175, Wally Butts of Georgia has 134, Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma has 121 and Bobby Dodd at Georgia Tech has 116.

One of the high points in Howard's coaching career was his 100th victory during the 1958 season against North Carolina. This year when Clemson plays Duke it will mark Howard's 200th game as head coach of the Tigers. Only Neely, Anderson and Butts have head coached in more games.

Howard went from Murphy High in Mobile to Alabama and enjoyed four highly productive years under Coach Wallace Wade. There he was also to meet Coach Jess Neely and form a friendship that has lasted over 30 years.

When Neely was picked to be Clemson's head coach in 1931 he brought along Howard to be his line coach. After the Tigers made their successful appearance in the 1940 Cotton Bowl Neely went to Rice and Howard was appointed head coach of the Tigers.

Howard's bowl experience goes back to his Alabama days when he played with the Tide on the championship '31 Rose Bowl team. He was an assistant coach when the Tigers went to the Cotton Bowl and six times in the last 12 seasons he has been head coach of post-season games.

The Clemson athletic director and head coach is married to the former Anna Tribble of Anderson and they are the parents of two children, Alice and Jimmy.

House Men . . .

Bob (Fade Me) Jones

Bob Jones has been around Clemson longer than Frank Howard but their association did not commence until Howard came here as line coach in 1931. Jones, who had been coaching for Josh Cody while still a student at Clemson, was kept on by new head coach Jess Neely and Jones has never left.

Jones entered Clemson in 1926 and was destined to be one of the great Clemson athletes. He was an outstanding end for Cody three years and was named to the All-South team; and he captained the basketball team during his senior year.

Although Jones handles the end coaching now, he has in the past coached freshmen teams and was head boxing coach when Clemson fielded a team.

The native of Starr is married to the former Ellen Moseley of Anderson and they are the parents of three daughters, Janet, Rose and Robin.

Banks (Little Joe) McFadden

Banks McFadden has been called the greatest athlete the State of South Carolina ever produced. No one has stepped forward to deny this fact. He was named to both the All-American basketball and football teams in the calendar year 1939 and at the state track meet in 1940, he broke three track records and two of these still stand after hundreds of athletes have taken a shot at them.

The Great Falls great participated in the Chicago All-Star game in '40 and then played one year of pro ball with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

However, he returned to Clemson after that and has held various coaching positions such as freshman football, varsity basketball and head track and cross country. However, he now devotes his full time as defensive backfield coach in football.

He is a member of the All-time Cotton Bowl team and in 1939-40 was named the nation's most versatile athlete.

McFadden is married to the former "Aggie" Rigby of Manning and they are the parents of four daughters, Patsy, 14, Lil, 12, Marcia, 8 and Jan, 6.

Bob (Leave It) Smith

Bob Smith starts his second decade on the Clemson coaching staff this fall and he has produced some of the outstanding lines in Tiger history. He has been line coach the past five years, but on the staff since 1950.

Smith

Smith graduated from Furman in 1934 and following graduation was retained as assistant football coach.

He was in the Navy during World War II, after which he returned to his alma mater and served as head football coach. During the war he coached at Jacksonville Naval Air Station.

His specific job upon coming to Clemson was to help the Tigers prepare for the many "T" teams they were beginning to face. However, he played a big part in helping Clemson switch from the single wing to the "T" in 1952.

The Georgia native also served as baseball coach and in 1954 won the conference championship and was named coach of the year in the ACC.

He is married to the former Catherine Jordan of Dillon and they are the parents of two daughters, Sandy, 14, and Becky, 12, and one son, Bob, Jr., 8.

Don (Fever) Wade

With the exception of one year, Don Wade has been playing or coaching for Clemson for over 10 years. He was a linebacker on the 1951 Orange and 1952 Gator Bowl teams and after coaching one year at Waynesboro

Wade

(Ga.,) High School, returned to Clemson to assist with freshman coaching. At the beginning of the 1959 season he was moved up to the varsity staff as assistant line coach.

Upon first returning to Clemson he also handled the freshman baseball teams.

Wade, who is a native of Lenoir City, Tenn., spends a great deal of his time on the road seeking out top prospects for Clemson. He has made the first contact on many of the Tigers' past and present top athletes.

He is married to the former Barbara Henderson of Clemson and they are the parents of two daughters, Donna, 8, and Beth, 4, and one son, Clint, 2.

Charlie (Double or Nothing) Waller

Charlie Waller came to Clemson at the beginning of the 1957 season and has developed some of the best offensive backfields ever seen at Tigertown.

In '57 Clemson led the conference in total offense and the '58 and '59 teams won the ACC title and played in post-season games each year.

Prior to coming to Clemson Waller coached at Auburn and Texas and there his teams led their respective conferences in offense.

Waller graduated from Oglethorpe in 1942 and captained the Petrels last football team.

Following that he coached at Decatur, Ga., four years where his teams had a 43-3-1 record, winning the last 25 in a row. The Navy veteran was named coach of the year in Georgia for his efforts at Decatur and he also coached the Georgia all-star team that season.

Waller is married to the former Maxine Ellis of Montgomery, Ala., and they are the parents of three daughters, Cheryl Lynne, 5, Karen Jo, 4, and Mary Frances, 1.

Bob (Shake 'em) Bradley

Bob Bradley graduated from Clemson in 1951, and after working on the Greenville newspapers, came to work for the college in the summer of 1954 as alumni secretary. In November of 1955 he came over as athletic publicity director of the college.

Bradley holds memberships in the College Sports Information Directors of America, Football Writers Association of America, Basketball Writers of America, Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Assn., and South Carolina Assn. of Sports Writers. He is a former vice president of the ACSWA.

Got his start in the newspaper field while still in college when he served as both editor and sports editor of THE TIGER.

Bradley is a native of North Carolina but lived in Greenville 18 years prior to moving to Clemson.

He is married to the former Louise Madewell of Dallas, Texas, and they are the parents of a daughter, Dorma, 5, and a son, Robin, 2.

Covington (The Hard Way) McMillan

Covington (Goat) McMillan is another veteran of the Clemson coaching staff being a member over 20 years. He has been highly successful in producing some top-notch freshman teams. The Cubs have been undefeated in their Atlantic Coast Conference encounters the last two seasons. The '59 record was 4-1 and the team was unscored on until the fourth game.

McMillan, who was a teammate of Bob Jones, was a star tailback on Clemson's single wing teams in the late 30's, being named to the All-South squad. He still holds the school record for the most passes in one game, 32 in the Florida game of 1929.

The Griffin, Ga., native has played a big part in developing some of Clemson's great backfield stars as he served at one time as backfield coach.

He is married to the former Edith Greer of Greenville and they are the parents of two daughters, Cheryl and Cecelia, and two sons, Johnny and Tim.

Whitey (Roll 'em) Jordan

Ronald (Whitey) Jordan is the latest member of the Clemson coaching staff, having been named assistant freshman coach when Don Wade was moved to the varsity prior to the 1959 season. Before that he assisted with the freshmen while still a student. He handles the line duties with the frosh.

A native of Florence, he was named to the All-State squad his senior year in high school and was also his team's leading scorer at end. He earned 10 letters playing basketball, football and baseball.

He was a member of the '56 Clemson squad which played Colorado in the '57 Orange Bowl and he was the leading pass receiver on the '57 team in snagging 12 aerials for 369 yards and three touchdowns.

He is married to the former Kappy Stewart of Florence and they are the parents of two daughters, Kim, 4, and Karol, 2, and one son, Stewart, 1.

Gene (Box Cars) Willimon

Gene Willimon joined the Clemson athletic family 10 years ago as business manager of athletics. He also serves as executive secretary of IPTAY. Since coming to Clemson he has seen the membership of IPTAY grow from just a few thousand to over 10,000.

Willimon

All business matters pertaining to the athletic association comes under his command, including the handling of football tickets.

During the year Willimon makes many trips to club meetings in the cause of Clemson and IPTAY.

Prior to coming to Clemson Willimon was engaged in the insurance business.

A native of Greenville, he he was a star halfback for the Tigers in the early 30's under Coaches Josh Cody and Jess Neely. He and Clemson president R. C. Edwards are classmates (1933).

He is married to the former Lou McClure of Anderson and they are the parents of a son, Rusty, 19, and a daughter, "Weezie," 15.

Bill (Snake Eyes) McLellan

Bill McLellan became a member of the athletic family in the summer of 1958 after being with departments of agricultural economics and seed certification of the college.

McLellan

McLellan has a multitude of duties, the main one of which is assistant business manager of athletics. Here he assists Gene Willimon in the operation of the business office.

McLellan also finds time to help with coaching of the varsity team, assisting with various phases of practice.

He played three years of varsity center for the Tigers and was a member of the 1952 Gator Bowl team.

A native of Dillon and a graduate of Dillon High School where he played football and baseball, McLellan earned both his bachelor and masters degree from Clemson in ag economics.

He is married to the former Ann Rogers of Fork and they are the parents of a daughter, Susie, 5, and two sons, Bill, 3, and Rogers, 2.

Jud (Hot Streak) Hair

Dr. Judson E. Hair is director of student health services and also serves as team physician. He attends all games at home and away in case any emergency arises among the players at anytime.

Hair

Dr. Hair attended Clemson College and the College of Charleston and graduated from the Medical College of South Carolina in 1952.

Dr. Hair came to his present position at Clemson in May 1957 and prior to that was in private practice in Due West.

He holds memberships in the American Medical Association, the South Carolina Medical Association, the Anderson County Medical Society and the American College Health Association.

During World War II he served as a pilot in the Air Force.

Dr. Hair is married to the former Mary Price of Elberton, Ga., and they are the parents of three sons, Judson, Jr., 11, Jim, 5, Harry, 4, and one daughter, Ann, 7.

Charles (Come Back) Barnett

Dr. J. Charles Barnett is associate team physician and staff physician of the student health service. He travels mostly with the freshman football team and assists and works in conjunction with Dr. Hair with all members of all athletic teams.

Barnett

Like Dr. Hair, Dr. Barnett attended Clemson College and then graduated from the Medical College of South Carolina in 1956.

He came to Clemson in 1959 and prior to that was in private practice at Slater, S. C.

Dr. Barnett holds memberships in the American Medical Association, the South Carolina Medical Association and the Greenville County Medical Society.

He is married to the former Jean Chapman of Slater and they are the parents of a daughter, Allison, 2.

Fred (I'm With You) Hoover

Fred Hoover was added to the athletic staff as trainer last summer and Frank Howard will tell you that it was one of the best moves he ever made. Hoover came here from Florida State where he had served in the trainer's capacity since his student days beginning in 1949.

The '53 FSU graduate immediately made improvements in the Clemson training room that have helped tremendously in providing better treatment and service to the athletes.

The Jacksonville native, who saw service in the Air Force as a navigator, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Assn., and for the past two years, has been the featured speaker on the trainer's part of the program at the North Carolina Coaches' Clinic at Greensboro, N. C. He has completed most of the work on his master's degree.

He is married to the former Elva Cook of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and they are the parents of a daughter, Catherine Ann, 2.

Herman (Lucky Lucky Powder) McGee

Herman McGee would be one man hard to replace on the athletic staff. He has been trainer for Clemson athlete's since 1934, helping the late Chappie Johnson with the many tasks allied to athletics. Upon Chappie's death in 1949, McGee took over the multitude of jobs in the training room.

Not only does he tape thousands of ankles each season, he is also responsible for the mountainous stacks of equipment needed for the various athletic teams, both varsity and freshmen.

McGee has been the mother to hundreds upon hundreds of athletes and he can tell you where a large percentage of them are now located as well as a complete rundown on their athletic feats while at Clemson.

The Clemson native saw service in World War II with the infantry and quartermaster, serving four and a half years, 18 months being in the European Theater.

He is married to the former Lucia Green of Pendleton.

Coggins

Osborne

You're Covered . . .

Clemson's Football Network begins its seventh consecutive year of broadcasting this season, and it has proved to be one of the most successful athletic-operated networks anywhere.

From a meager beginning the network has grown by leaps and bounds and last year averaged having just over 42 stations a game for 10 games. Stations in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee have been on the network in the past and it has also served the "Pick of Dixie" series.

Jimmy Coggins and Ed Osborne will again handle the broadcasting on the network this fall. Coggins serves as the play-by-play commentator while Osborne gives interesting pre-game and post-game comments as well as sidelights throughout the contests.

Coggins, who is the dean of South Carolina sports broadcasters, is owner of Station WKDK in Newberry and is co-owner with Osborne with Station WBCU in Union. They are co-owners of Station WAGS in Bishopville.

Coggins broke into radio 26 years ago with WSPA in Spartanburg. He also worked at WAIM in Anderson before going to Newberry in 1949. Prior to joining the network in 1954 he broadcast the Clemson games during the seasons of 1936-37-38-47-48-49. In 1950-51-52 he did the "Game of the Week" on Station WIS, Columbia.

Osborne served as director of both the Clemson news bureau and the sports publicity office from 1947 through the spring of 1950. A Clemson graduate, he left his dual post and joined Station WMSC in Columbia as sales representative and sports director. Since early 1953, he has been with WBCU.

Osborne is currently serving as president of the South Carolina Broadcasters Assn., while Coggins was singled out this past spring by being voted the "Sports Announcer of the Year" in South Carolina.

1960-61 Basketball . . .

Press Maravich has four years of Clemson basketball under his belt now and in each succeeding season, he has seen some improvement in his Tigers. However, he hopes to see the biggest stride made by his cage forces this season.

A tough 25-game schedule has been arranged with home-and-home dates slated with each Atlantic Coast Conference team, plus Furman and Florida State. Single games are planned with Marshall, Citadel, Texas, Rice and Davidson.

In their only tournament appearance the Tigers will open the season Dec. 2-3 in the Kent Invitational at Kent, Ohio, with Kent State, Syracuse and Massachusetts.

Three of the starters from last year's 10-16 club are back, led by all-conference Choppy Patterson. Patterson, as a sophomore last season, had the highest scoring average on the club, 16.4.

Returning with Patterson are Ed Krajack and Tommy Mahaffey. Krajack is a senior, Mahaffey a junior.

Help is also expected from senior Bill Warren who missed last season due to a broken arm suffered in late November. He had a 9.2 scoring average as a junior. Another probable starter is Speight Bird, 6-7 sophomore who was held out.

Coming up from the freshman squad are Larry Seitz (6-4), Mike Bohonak (6-3), Chuck Narvin (6-0) and Carl Ward (6-2).

Reserves joining these are Dave Wallace, Jim Leshock, Earle Maxwell, Bob Benson and Bill Bonzulak.
