Attention All Territories!

We have prepared this 1959 football brochure with the hope that it will assist you in some way in following the Tigers through their tough 10-game schedule. We are the first to realize that all the information you need now or during the season cannot be crammed into this small booklet. However, we welcome the opportunity to fill every reasonable request made to this office for stories, pictures, features, radio tapes and the like.

Requests for working press, radio and photographer tickets should be made directly to the Sports Publicity Office, preferably a week in advance of the game concerned. These requests will be honored from sports editors and sports directors only.

The press box is operated for the convenience of the working press. With four conference games scheduled at Clemson this year we expect a large press coverage at each game and there isn't sufficient room to accommodate anyone other than those actually working the game.

No women, other than accredited women sports writers and Western Union operators, will be permitted in the press box at anytime. No children are allowed. The press box is operated in accordance with recommendations of the Football Writers Association of America and the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association.

During the game we furnish programs, three-deep charts, line-ups, half-time and final statistics, and a quarter-by-quarter play-by-play account. We serve fried chicken, ham, sandwiches, cold drinks and coffee to the working press. This is ready by noon and is available before, during or after the game.

PRESS BOX ELEVATOR INSTALLED

The Clemson Athletic Association, always trying to improve the already excellent relationships enjoyed with the press, added another feature this summer to the ultra modern press box completed just prior to the 1958 season. An elevator to serve both the president's box and press box was installed and will open on the first floor of the press box. Thus, if you plan to cover all four games at home this fall, you've been relieved of climbing 216 steps.

Back Shed Talk

Things look mighty good right now that Clemson will have another good football team this fall. But sometimes the best laid plans have ways of going off on a tangent. That could be the case in 1959. On the other hand, the Tigers could end up in their sixth bowl in 12 seasons.

Coach Frank Howard, starting his 20th season as head man of Clemson and his 29th on the staff, has assembled a group of scholarly athletes who like their football and have come to play.

The Tigers picked up all the hardware in the Atlantic Coast Conference last fall by winning the championship for the second time in three years. They continued onto New Orleans where the No. 1-ranked Louisiana State Bengals were happy to see New Year's Day come to a close. Only after two and a half hours of true Clemson scrapping did the "hill" Tiger succumb to the "swamp" Tiger, 7-0.

To supplement losses due to graduation, Howard has moved up experienced men at all spots except right end and here soph sensation Gary Barnes has stepped in.

Barnes and some other ends, mostly sophomores, are expected to make Clemson's passing attack more potent this fall. With Barnes is Sam Anderson, and behind the two starters are Bob DeBardelaben, Ed Bost, Ronnie Crolley and Connie Mac Berry. The latter three are sophs.

Anchoring down the interior line is Lou Cordileone, a mammoth tackle with cat-like actions who gives ground to no one. With him at tackle are two senior lettermen, Harold Olson and Jack Smith, and soph Jimmy King, who'll outweigh any of the three seniors.

Guard appears in good hands with Dave Lynn, Larry Wagner, Dave Olson and Sam Crout. All are lettermen and all are juniors. Lynn was a starter the latter part of '58 and Olson has also seen opening duty.

Co-Captain Paul Snyder owns all of the center experience on the team and Ron Andreo and Jack Veronee, both sophomores, are being counted on heavily.

Harvey White, the other co-captain, Lowndes Shingler and Johnnie Mac Goff give the quarterback slot a lot of experience. White, all-conference as a soph in '57, and Shingler, a sensation in his first varsity play a year ago, ranked 1-2 on total offense in '58.

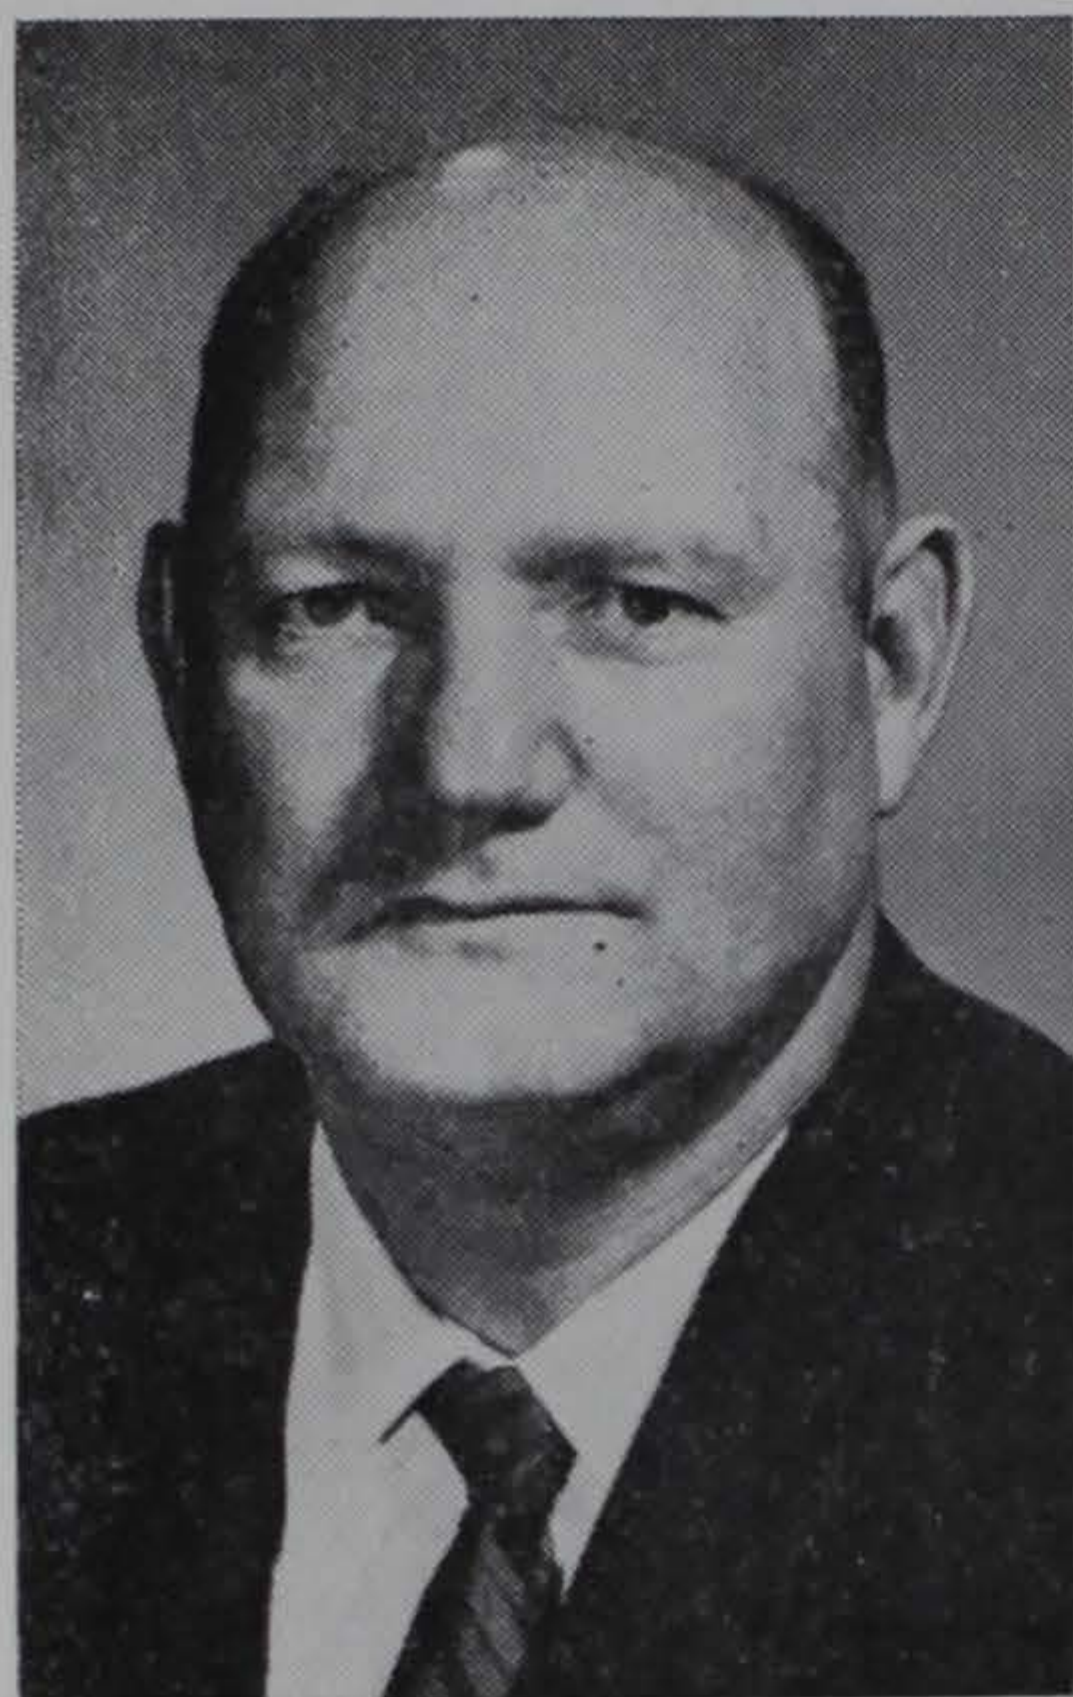

Five lettermen at halfback give this spot the most experience, but two sophomores might sneak in somewhere along the way. George Usry and Bill Mathis opened the fall drills on White's team with Sonny Quesenberry and Bob Chatlin on Shingler's. To be reckoned with is Bob Morgan and sophs Jim Wilson and Harry Pavilack.

Doug Cline, the team's leading ground gainer, returns at fullback, and ex-halfback Doug Daigneault has been moved to help strengthen this position. Soph Ron Scrudato is in between these two seniors.

The Ranch Foreman

Frank Howard has stated that 1959 could possibly be his best year at Clemson. And that's pretty much of a mouthful when you consider the "Baron" has had two undefeated teams and carried five teams to bowls in the past 11 seasons. During his previous 19 years as Clemson head coach, he has a string of 106 wins, 68 losses and 10 ties. Only five other active major school coaches can claim more wins. Jess Neely at Rice has 176. Dr. Eddie Anderson at Holy Cross 169, Wally Butts at Georgia 124, Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma 114, and Bobby Dodd at Georgia Tech 110.

Howard is pretty much of an institution at Clemson, where he is now in his 29th year on the staff. Only Butts exceeds Howard for being head coach at one place longer and that by just a year. Neely's span at Rice also covers 19 years.

Howard registered his 100th victory last fall and then carried his Tigers to the Sugar Bowl which made his seventh post-season venture as a player, assistant coach and head coach. None of the five major bowls have escaped Howard's grasp.

Howard's successful venture into the field of athletics started in his prep days at Murphy High in Mobile, Ala. From there he entered the University of Alabama and enjoyed four highly successful years under Coach Wallace Wade. It was here he first came in contact with Jess Neely, then an assistant coach on the 'Bama staff and former head coach at Southwestern.

When John Cody left the Clemson scene at the close of the 1930 season Neely was picked to guide the destiny of the Tigers, and he remained nine years.

Upon receiving the Clemson offer Neely picked a fresh-graduated guard, Howard, to be his line coach. These two, along with Bob Jones (Clemson end coach) and Joe Davis (Rice line coach), set about to build Clemson's grid fortunes.

Their work was climaxed with a trip to the 1940 Cotton Bowl following a 8-1-0 season. Neely then went to Rice and the Clemson Athletic Council met to name a new head coach. Howard was nominated, he seconded his own nomination, and thus began an almost unparalleled career as coach, banquet speaker, clinic lecturer and a breeder of first-class copy for news-seeking sports-writers.

Howard's fame in these categories reaches new audiences each year. This past summer he was lecturer at six clinics and his travels to touchdown clubs will carry him far and wide next December and January.

Howard not only takes full responsibility for the football team, but is also athletic director, handling all sports programs at Clemson. In his 19-plus years in that capacity, the athletic department has always been successful from a financial viewpoint.

The Clemson mentor is married to the former Anna Tribble of Anderson and they are the parents of two children, Alice and Jimmy.

1959-60 Basketball . . .

The usual tough schedule stares Clemson in the face again on the basketball courts this season with all seven Atlantic Coast Conference teams being met twice each. Home and home games are also planned with Furman and Davidson and single games against Erskine, Tennessee, Villanova and Florida State.

The Tigers will participate in one holiday tournament, that being the All-College festival in Oklahoma City, Okla., Dec. 28-29-30. Other teams in the tourney are Cornell, Niagara, Bowling Green, (O.), Utah State, Wichita, Tulsa and Oklahoma City.

Coach Press Maravich, starting his fourth season at Clemson, is optimistic about the outlook for the coming year. The Tigers ended in a dead heat for sixth place in the ACC last season, highest any Clemson team has been since the loop was formed.

Returning for the upcoming cage wars are eight lettermen. Add to these some promising sophomores and Maravich could produce his best team since arriving here from Aliquippa (Pa.) High.

George Krajack, who lead the team in scoring with a 13.0 mark as a junior, spearheads the group of veterans. Bill Warren (9.2), Don Carver (9.1), Walt Gibbons (6.6), Earle Maxwell (5.2), Dutch Shample (5.0), Ed Krajack (4.1) and Frank Clarke (1.7) are all vieing for an opening berth.

But these eight have some outstanding competition in three freshmen, namely Choppy Patterson, Bob Benson and Tom Mahaffey.
