The club uses a global portfolio simulation, which is a comprehensive trading simulation featuring stocks, bonds, mutual funds, options, futures, and international stocks.

Student members receive $100,000 of hypothetical money in a brokerage account to trade and manage during the fall and spring semesters.

Featured on display are club recommended reading titles centered on investment as well as personal finance and professional growth.

Titles by Warren Buffett, Clemson alum Mohnish Pabrai, and ABC reality show Shark Tank investor Kevin O’Leary are included.
