

STATEMENT BY J. STROM THURMOND IN REFERENCE TO REAL ESTATE ADDRESS BEFORE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REAL ESTATE BOARDS. GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, COLUMBIA, SOUTH
CAROLINA, SEPTEMBER 17, 1947.

My address to the Regional Meeting of the National Association of Real Estate Boards was prepared after due deliberation.

I have been outraged by the housing situation in South Carolina.

I felt it my duty as Governor of South Carolina to express my feelings openly and clearly.

I chose to make my feelings public at this meeting of real estate people.

I anticipated their reaction.

I said what I meant.

I meant what I said.
