12-2-1947

The Freedom Train

Strom Thurmond

Follow this and additional works at: https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyright law (Title 17, U.S. code). Use of these materials beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law.

For additional rights information, please contact Kirstin O'Keefe (kokeefe [at] clemson [dot] edu)

For additional information about the collections, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

Recommended Citation
Thurmond, Strom, "The Freedom Train" (1947). Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100. 133.
https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom/133

For additional information about the collection, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at TigerPrints. It has been accepted for inclusion in Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100 by an authorized administrator of TigerPrints. For more information, please contact kokeefe@clemson.edu.
STATEMENT OF J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA, ON THE FREEDOM TRAIN, COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, DECEMBER 2, 1947.

All high school students should take an enthusiastic interest in "The Freedom Train", which will be in Columbia on December 11. The opportunity to see the original historic documents which the train carries will be a thrilling experience for us all.

"The Freedom Train" is a "travelling shrine" which exhibits over 100 precious documents of American history. Included are such important papers as the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and the Declaration of Independence. It is interesting to recall that four South Carolinians - Edward Rutledge, Thomas Heyward, Jr., Thomas Lynch, Jr., and Arthur Middleton - signed the Declaration of Independence, and four others signed the Constitution - Charles Pinckney, Pierce Butler, J. Rutledge, and Charles Cotesworth Pinckney.

In viewing these historic papers, which have influenced our thought and guided our actions for so many years, millions of Americans will gain a new realization of the heritage bequeathed to us by the men who founded our Republic and made it great.

###