The meeting with Mr. Sterling and other representatives of the Veterans Administration in the interest of cooperative training in South Carolina was satisfactory. The Veterans' Administration agreed to extend the time to July first or as soon thereafter as possible to enable the schools and the certifying agency to work out satisfactory plans for the new program.

They also agreed to pay 58.8 cents per hour per pupil for the total institutional training. The schools and the veterans that are now operating under the present cooperative plans need not be disturbed by the notice which they received that they would be discontinued March Sixth.

March 4, 1947.
