President's Report (attached).

Standing Committee Reports: Welfare Report attached.

Senator Heusinkveld reported on a meeting with Mr. Pace about parking and the Open Meeting on parking held May 7th. Fees will be going up next year.

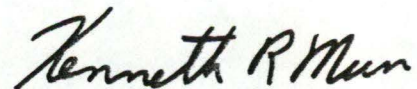

Report on Elections and Runoff. Report of elections (attached) There were ties for the Open Forum and Scholarship and Awards position and runoffs were held. Nominations and volunteers were taken from the floor for unfilled positions and are listed in the report of elections.

Senator Zehr presented a resolution (FS90-5-1) on the University Postal System for the ad hoc Committee on the University Postal System. After a brief discussion the resolution passed.

Senator Murr reported on the Faculty Manual Committee's work. The revision of the Manual is well underway. Suggested changes will be sent to the appropriate committee or officer early this summer. It is expected that the revision will be given to the Senate early in the next academic year and will be approved by the Senate by January 1991.

The Committee section needs a lot of revision and he asked that an ad hoc committee be appointed to look into the committee structure on campus.

Adjournment at 4:43 P. M.

Kenneth R. Murr
Secretary
