(NATIONAL SECURITY WEEK)

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS the period from February 12 to February 22, 1947 has been designated by the President of the United States, at the request of the National Reserve Officers Association, as National Security Week; and,

WHEREAS it is a matter of vital importance to the welfare and security of the American people and of the principles of liberty, equality and democracy, for which this Country stands, that the attention of the people of this Country be directed to the importance of adequate provisions for our national security.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, the undersigned, J. Strom Thurmond, Governor of the State of South Carolina, do hereby designate and declare the period from February 12 to February 22, 1947 to be National Security Week for the State of South Carolina, and I do hereby call upon all patriotic people and citizens to inaugurate and carry through appropriate exercises during such period to call the attention of the people of this State to the importance of national security.

J. Strom Thurmond,
Governor.
