1. Guest Speaker: Jack McKenzie. Jack spoke on using Parliamentary Procedure to conduct business in a fair, decisive, orderly, and time-efficient manner. Parliamentary procedure gives everyone an equal opportunity to participate, it requires that ideas be voted on, it provides a process, time, and place for dealing with everything, and it helps keep everyone focused on the same thing at the same time. Jack also talked about how "motions" are the building blocks of parliamentary procedure because they clarify what the bottom line is and they present the group with a choice. The motion(s) are then discussed among the body and the decision is made to adopt, reject, amend, or send back the motion. Jack concluded his talk by reminding everyone of the importance of an agenda and why a meeting should never be run without one.
