Activities

Institutional memberships are ready to go!

Committee members participated in the creation of institutional memberships by working with the Electronic Communications Committee to update the NASIG web site. They wrote a description of the institutional memberships, created the new institutional membership form, tested the electronic transmission of the form, and found portions of the NASIG web site that needed updating to reflect these changes.

As of today, February 9th, 2011, active memberships total 673. Renewals of existing members have been strong the last several months. Please see the figures below for October through January. February, I am happy to report, is also off to an excellent start.
