(Golden Rule Week)

WHEREAS, the week of December 7 -14 marks the 24th anniversary of Golden Rule week, which has its basis in all the religions of the world and is the common denominator of all races and creeds, and

WHEREAS, the foundation is asking for better world relation and understanding within the brotherhood of nations, and

WHEREAS, Golden Rule is not a cure-all for world troubles, but is a logical medium for human relations and will aid in untangling many misunderstandings between nations, and

NOW THEREFORE, I, J. Strom Thurmond, Governor of South Carolina, do proclaim the week of December 7 -14, as a week for observing the Golden Rule in each of the communities of this State, so that International Friendship will be strengthened.

Given under my hand and seal this 24 day of October in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

J. Strom Thurmond, Governor
