STATEMENT OF J. Strom Thurmond, Governor of South Carolina
On the Appointment of G. A. Buchanan, Jr. to the Board of Regents of the State Hospital, Columbia, South Carolina, January 12, 1948.

I have appointed Mr. G. A. Buchanan, Jr., to the Board of Regents of the State Hospital, succeeding Senator Christie Benet, resigned.

Mr. Buchanan will bring to this position not only a keen understanding of this particular responsibility, but a wide and penetrating knowledge of public affairs.

Through many years as a reporter and editor in Columbia, Mr. Buchanan has acquired an extraordinary understanding of government in all its phases.

In addition to this, his intellect and his liberal philosophy are qualities which equip him for service on the Board of Regents with its large and varied tasks and responsibilities.

The Regents are charged with a function of the greatest importance to our people. We are fortunate to have available men of the type, talents and sense of public obligation possessed by Mr. Buchanan, and I announce his appointment with satisfaction and confidence.
