I heartily support the "Eat a Better Breakfast Program" of Food Topics. Besides being one of the day's most enjoyable meals, breakfast is essential because of the long period we pass without eating since supper time.

I always make it a practice to eat heartily in the morning. I regard breakfast as meaning exactly what it says – break fast. Breakfast makes me feel better and increases my efficiency during the day.