Citations: Required Reading by NASIG Members

Kurt Blythe, Column Editor

[Note: Please report citations for publications by the membership—to include scholarship, reviews, criticism, essays, and any other published works which would benefit the membership to read. You may submit citations on behalf of yourself or other members to Kurt Blythe at kcblythe@email.unc.edu. Contributions on behalf of fellow members will be cleared with the author(s) before they are printed. Include contact information with submissions.]

Take note, gentle readers, this quarter's column expands on the concept of citations, citing the co-chairpersonship of Beth Johns at the Michigan Library Association's annual conference:

Beth Johns, MLIS

Co-chair, Michigan Library Association's "Academic Libraries 2011: Innovate, Collaborate, Connect." May 5-6, 2011 at the Amway Grand Plaza, Grand Rapids, MI

Beth notes:

This is the second year our state association held this event. The conference attracted 128 registrants and two keynote speakers, including NASIG's own Rick Anderson (Steven Bell was the other); a special address by ACRL President, Lisa Hinchliffe; and eighteen breakout sessions on a variety of topics by association members.

Meanwhile, Betty Landesman, M.A., M.L.S., M.S., has published a review of Library, Information Science & Technology Abstracts \(LISTA\) in the "Tech Services on the Web" section of Technical Services Quarterly 28:2 (2011).

Valerie Ryder, MLIS, director of information strategy at Wolper Subscription Services, was a panelist at a fundraising workshop for public and school librarians, "Fundraising in an Era of Cuts," attended by dozens of librarians from Northeast Pennsylvania in June 2011.

Valerie has also been rather prolific, of late, publishing:

"The Metamorphosis of the Information Professional," Contributed paper, Annual Conference of the Special Libraries Association, Philadelphia, PA, June 15, 2011.

"Corporate Librarian's Survival Kit for Organizational Realignment." In Best Practices for Corporate Libraries, edited by Sigrid E. Kelsey and Marjorie J. Porter, 233-251. Santa Barbara, CA: Libraries Unlimited, 2011.

And

"Measuring Value in Corporate Libraries." In Best Practices for Corporate Libraries, edited by Sigrid E. Kelsey and Marjorie J. Porter, 193-212. Santa Barbara, CA: Libraries Unlimited, 2011.

Christine M. Stamison, MLIS, published an article entitled, "Developing a Sound E-book Strategy" in Information Today 15:5 (July/August 2011).

Christina Torbert has also been active in the literature, publishing:

“Performance evaluations as motivation and training opportunities,” in Middle Management in Academic and Public Libraries, edited by Tom Diamond. Santa Barbara, CA: Libraries Unlimited, 2011.

And

“To truly worship, Mozart’s Requiem (1791),” in Never Enough Singing: Essays in Honor of Seth Kasten, edited by Melody Layton McMahon. Chicago, IL: American Theological Libraries Association, 2011.
