6-1-1948

Message to Delegates of the 33rd Annual Convention of the South Carolina Federation of Labor.

Strom Thurmond

Follow this and additional works at: https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyright law (Title 17, U.S. code). Use of these materials beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law.

For additional rights information, please contact Kirstin O'Keefe (kokeefe [at] clemson [dot] edu)

For additional information about the collections, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

Recommended Citation

Thurmond, Strom, "Message to Delegates of the 33rd Annual Convention of the South Carolina Federation of Labor." (1948). Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100. 345.
https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom/345

For additional information about the collection, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at TigerPrints. It has been accepted for inclusion in Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100 by an authorized administrator of TigerPrints. For more information, please contact kokeefe@clemson.edu.
MESSAGE OF J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA, TO THE DELEGATES OF THE 33RD ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA FEDERATION OF LABOR, IN JUNE ISSUE OF "SOUTH CAROLINA LABOR NEWS"

It gives me great pleasure to welcome delegates and visitors to the 33rd Annual Convention of the South Carolina Federation of Labor, being held this year in our Capital City, Columbia.

South Carolina has long had an enviable record of good labor-management relations. Today, as our State enters upon an era of industrial expansion, it is most fitting that organized labor should feel great satisfaction in the role it will play in bringing this about.

At this time I want to commend the South Carolina Federation of Labor for its constant effort to promote better labor-management relations in South Carolina.

It is my sincere wish that your 1948 Convention be the most enjoyable and constructive in your entire history.