

112-8

CONSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEE MEETS IN OFFICE OF
J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
ON AUGUST 31, 1948.

A meeting of the Committee for revision of the State Constitution was held this afternoon in the office of Governor J. Strom Thurmond for the purpose of organizing.

The following officers were elected: Senator R. M. Jeffries, of Colleton, chairman; Thomas Allen, of Anderson, first vice chairman; Representative Edward G. Dennis, of Darlington, second vice chairman; Miss Ruth Roettinger, of Rock Hill, secretary, and Miss Mildred Huggins, of Timmonsville, member of the executive committee.

The officers were authorized to serve as an executive committee and to plan the agenda for the next meeting of the Committee, which will be called later. Meetings will be held in a committee room of the State Senate.

Members of the Committee are:

Appointed by Governor:

Charles B. Elliott, Columbia, South Carolina
Miss Mildred Huggins, Timmonsville, South Carolina
Thomas Allen, Anderson, South Carolina
Charles E. Simons, Aiken, South Carolina
Miss Ruth Roettinger, Rock Hill, South Carolina

Appointed by Senate:

L. Marion Gressette, St. Matthews, South Carolina
R. M. Jefferies, Walterboro, South Carolina
T. B. Bryant, Jr., Orangeburg, South Carolina
J. D. Parler, St. George, South Carolina
Shepard K. Nash, Sumter, South Carolina

Appointed by House of Representatives:

Isadore Bogoslow, Walterboro, South Carolina
J. R. Flynn, Union, South Carolina
Thomas H. Pope, Newberry, South Carolina
Thomas B. Butler, Spartanburg, South Carolina
Edward C. Dennis, Darlington, South Carolina