Treasurer’s Report

Lisa S. Blackwell, NASIG Treasurer
Jennifer Arnold, NASIG Treasurer-Elect

June 6, 2012

NASIG finances are healthy and represent fiscal prudence. Investments have been increased and, despite the stock market fall in value during May full recovery is predicted by our financial investments advisor at CHASE due to moderately conservative investment policy. We project modest revenue from the 2012 conference.

Thanks to the persistent efforts of past president Katy Ginanni there are once again an amazing number of sponsorships for the 2012 conference. With 26 organizational sponsors, 4 organizational members and a final total of $45,250.00 we can take pride in the support that industry entities have given NASIG despite the economic realities of the past year.
