GOVERNOR THURMOND TO MAKE CINCINNATI BROADCAST

Governor J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights Democratic candidate for President, will address a huge midwestern radio audience when he speaks Thursday night, October 14, at 7:15 P.M., Eastern Standard Time, over Station WCKY at Cincinnati, Ohio, the Governor's office announced today.

South Carolina listeners may hear the address, which originates in the studio of a 50,000-watt station, by tuning in at 1530 kilocycles, according to Columbia radio men.

The WCKY address will precede another to be delivered later Thursday night before a States' Rights Democrats rally at nearby Covington, Kentucky.
