I want to express my deepest appreciation to the people in every section of South Carolina who stood by their principles and stuck by their guns in yesterday's elections.

The returns indicate that over nine out of ten of the members of the Democratic Party of South Carolina voted for its nominees for President and Vice President.

I have been encouraged by your unfailing support in a hard campaign. We started in this fight together and we were still in there fighting at the finish. No fight for principle is ever lost.
