Clemson College, Nov 6th 1790.
The Board of Trustees met in this college.
This day:
Recent mess Norris Bradley
Dean Tisdal Warren, Donations Hodgin
A.N. Warner. Mr. Evans was appointed by the Governor to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Blackstone's term and took his seat.
Col. Bowden was elected temporary vice Chairman of the Board.
Proceedings of last Meeting were read and continued.
On motion of Mr. Norris it was resolved that Mr. Harkey agree that slow warmer avoid their Cheeks for the Banks for not exceeding 2000, if it should be necessary, all notice
say after call of the roll, Res.
That the matter of New Board, Changing the old Board and the New voted to hold until further orders of the Board.
Res.
That the Committee appointed to purchase cattle for the college be informed that the Board, considering the finances of the college, at the present session, has postponed any further purhase of cattle until after July next.
Res.
That a committee of 3 be appointed to take into consideration of the expenditures and the what expenditure can be cut and refer to next meeting of the board and that the state of the college be informed by this committee of its recommendations with what such appropriation, unless after that.
Next Meeting of the Board

Res. That $6,300 be appropriated to complete the New Barracks, all older age than 10 to be Res.

Res. That the costs of travel be allowed to go to Charleston, South Carolina, not to exceed one week, in addition to Xmas holidays, dated to be left to President's Committee of Councils, approved before the Board and preferred charges against Prof. Morrison, and after prolonged discussion it was

Resolved

that the Board, after hearing the statement of Prof. Morrison and the Council, clear the College Authorities in the case brought before them, but all of the charges against Prof.
Morrison shown to not directly or indirectly reflect upon Councils. About matters which are not proper subject of College discipline
We have warned Prof. W. against the use of indecent and ambiguous terms.

On the other hand, We desire it stated to the young men that they must have misunderstood the language and meaning of Prof. Morrison. Who claims any intention of having intended to injure or wound other feelings.

Res. That line of Water Bake in front of New Barracks, leading points to be removed Res. That the action of the Board con regard to Prof. Colman be rescinded Also that Prof. Lewis be instructed to direct of these to the best advantage
Res.

That this Senate be authorized to employ a Botanist at a salary of $1500.

The Report of President of the College was received and adopted.