Mr. Pope has been in the country. Bullock was ordered to take him to his estate in the Bury St Edmunds area. The Bullock estate is one of the largest in England, and it is said that Bullock is a great admirer of the arts and sciences. He has been known to support various cultural and scientific projects.

In the morning, Bullock was expected to leave for his estate in Bury St Edmunds. He had been in the country for a few days, and his presence in the area has been a great source of excitement for the locals.

Mr. Pope was also expected to return to the estate later in the day, but he has not yet arrived. The local authorities have been keeping a close eye on the situation, and they are closely monitoring the activities on the Bullock estate.
On motion the salaries of Miss Holland and Mr. Franklin were raised to forty dollars per month, and they be required to board in Miss Hall.

Res: That the Rev. and Faculty be instructed to organize a Fitting school as soon as practicable.

Miss Simpson, Friend and Rollman were appointed a Comm. to talk to those, Craighead and Mr. Welch.

The Rev. of the Faculty was instructed to send a copy of the Curriculum to each member of the Board.
