   A. Green Zone Training Change – Adam Hunter informed Senators during the October meeting that staff members that advise students aren’t free to attend the November 10 training due to advising schedules. October 2014 report

Issues:
Tuition Assistance
The Senate Policy & Welfare committee had received requests from several staff members to explore the possibility of including online programs as part of the tuition assistance policy (currently up to 6 tuition-free hours per semester for employees, online programs excluded). We spent time with Dean of the Graduate School, VP of Finance and Department Chairs to try and understand funding impact and models to make this successful. While working on this with individual programs, we encountered another issue...

With increasing pressure on the departments to generate revenue at the graduate level, we’re seeing a potential threat to this benefit creep into traditional classroom programs. We’re hoping to continue working with the administration to develop a plan that does not penalize programs from a revenue standpoint and continues to offer this benefit that we feel is a vital selling point for recruitment, retention, increased job performance and professional development for vertical growth of staff.

Gratitude:
The Staff Senate is very thankful for the 300+ employees that donate to the Staff Senate Scholarship Fund and have come up with several ways to show this gratitude. Thanks to the Athletic Department, we were able to send two randomly selected employees (and their guests) to the Clemson vs S.C. State football game. We’ll be sending two more to the Georgia State game. In partnership with the Visitors Center, we are also giving away 2 tickets to the President’s Box for the Ga. State game to one lucky donor. We’re also planning a luncheon in December for donors and scholarship recipients to promote stewardship and gratitude.

Senate Tailgate for the Syracuse game:
Brian O’Rourke and the Development team have been ever so gracious to provide the Staff Senate with a tented tailgating spot for the Syracuse football game (homecoming). Faculty and Staff who have donated to the Senate’s Scholarship Fund as well as recipients and their families will be invited to stop by for food and drinks.

www.clemson.edu/staffsenate
Outreach Events – Greenville:
The Staff Senate is cognizant that there are Clemson employees all over the state, many of whom do not feel connected to the University given their off-campus locations. We held our first off-campus outreach event in Greenville on Sept 17th. We introduced these employees to the Senate, learned about issues that they may be having and solicited ideas for how to improve engagement. We are currently working on planning future outreach events in locations that include: Columbia, Charleston and possibly Florence.

Loose Change Drive for Golden Harvest:
In September we held a multi-week “Loose Change” drive to benefit the Golden Harvest Food Bank. Senators raised over $250.00 in spare change from Clemson employees. Note: according to GHFB, each dollar raised has a $7 impact meaning we effectively funded over $1750.00 in groceries for those in need.

Zombie Run:
Reminder: Staff Senate is partnering with the City of Clemson, Clemson Area Chamber of Commerce, Clemson’s PRTM and Performing Arts departments and Helping Hands of Clemson to put on a family-friendly Halloween evening event which includes: 4K Zombie Run, local bands, kids activities, costume contest, food, drinks and more. Proceeds will benefit Helping Hands and the Staff Senate Scholarship Fund. Event will be held in Nettles Park.

Chair’s Message
Hello everyone. I’m Bert McCarty, a professor of Horticulture in the College of Agriculture, Forestry, & Life Science and Chair of Clemson University’s Athletic Council. This newsletter outlines various happenings within the Council. Many questions surround the CUAC, its members, responsibilities, and functions. This newsletter’s goal is to address these and other pertinent questions and to address common issues between Academia and Athletics.

Function of the Council
The principal function of the Athletic Council is to advise the Clemson University Administration on all major decisions affecting the administration of the Athletic Department. Just as important, a major role of the Council is to act as liaison between Athletics and Academia in terms of information exchange. For more information about the Athletic Council and its function, visit: clemson.edu/administration/councils/athleticcouncil/

Members
The CUAC is composed of voting and nonvoting members chosen or appointed by the University President, Athletic Director, colleges, or various organizations within or closely associated with the University. This includes members of the student body, student-athletes, faculty, Alumni Association, IPTAY, Faculty Senate, Extension Senate and several at-large appointees. Members for 2014-15 include:

Committees:
The CUAC has five standing committees as shown below. The committees meet periodically to discuss and address pertinent issues related to these particular areas:

1. Governance and Rules of Compliance
   Ensures that the mission of the athletics program supports the mission and goals of the institution, reviews matters of institutional policy and control, and monitors compliance with rules and regulations.

2. Academic Standards and Integrity
   Considers issues related to admissions, academic standards, academic support services and academic program scheduling.

3. Fiscal Integrity and Facility Planning
   Responsible for monitoring financial practices, overseeing fiscal and facility management, planning, and reviewing fiscal policies and procedures.

4. Equity, Welfare and Sportsmanship
   Assures the fair and equitable treatment of women and other minorities, protects the physical and educational welfare of student athletes, and assures that all associated with athletics are committed to the fundamental values of sportsmanship and ethical conduct.

5. Campus and Community Relations
   Monitors University and community perceptions of athletic program issues and reviews and proposes athletic initiatives to improve campus and community relations.

Items discussed at our October 10, 2014 meeting included:

- Chair McCarty opened the meeting by presenting a plaque to Dr. Webb Smathers in recognition for his service as Athletic Council Chair from 2010-2014. In a class survey, Dr. Smathers said about a third of students attend Clemson due to a particular major offered, a third due to family history/ties and interestingly enough, a third due to Athletics. Dr. Smathers thanked the Athletic Department for having attracted a third of the great students [he] had the pleasure to teach.” Dr. Smathers is scheduled to retire at the end of the 2014 fall semester.

- Minutes from the September 2, 2014 meeting were approved as submitted.
• Faculty Athletic Rep Update – Dr. Janie Hodge expressed that at the ACC meeting at Duke University, Clemson will be supporting a relaxing of the interconference transfer rule which currently requires all student athletes to sit out one year following a transfer. If approved, the transfer rule would impact only the “Olympic” sports and not football, basketball, or baseball.
• The new NCAA structure can be found on the NCAA website. Changes include adding student athletes on the Board of Directors Council (which replaced the Legislative Council and Leadership Council) and conference autonomy substructure which will be involved with student athlete time demands, recruiting and personnel decisions. The FARs are less represented in the new structure than in the past, which leads to some concern, but the University of Charleston was the only school in South Carolina which voted against the restructuring.
• With regard to the cost-of-attendance, Clemson’s opinion is there should be a cap on the value available above tuition and it be available to all sports.

Dan’s Dispatch
At each CUAC meeting, the Director of Athletics addresses issues affecting the Department and the progress on facility upgrades and capital improvement projects. At the October meeting, the Director of Athletics, Dan Radakovich, presented the following:

• The AD meets with the other members of the Football Playoff Selection Committee in Dallas at the end of October to start the process of narrowing down the final four teams.
• Prior to hiring the AD, IPTAY and the Athletics Department had prepared a report on the Clemson program, with recommended steps to increase productivity with regard to ticket sales. The restructuring and filing of IPTAY as a 501(c)(3) non-profit was one of those recommendations that has been implemented already. Many of these same members were brought back together to report on the current state of the Clemson Athletic program. The Core Goals were revisited (below) and Clemson is on track with a 6-year high in season ticket sales, expanding the fan experience with the Clemson Sports Talk podcast with Ivan Maisel from ESPN, and increasing community interaction with the Solid Orange Fan Advisory board. SOFA has a membership of 40 composed of IPTAY donors, season-ticket holders, non-IPTAY donors, and fans from all areas. Major topics addressed by SOFA include communication and game day environment/experience. The AD went on to describe the athletics capital project budget structure, success of the ticket tax, and investment of capital contributions and IPTAY service earnings through a quasi-endowment.
• With regard to facilities, the West zone project is on schedule to begin construction in December following the football season. The council was shown mock-up photos of the Oculus with its walkway between the north and south side of the stadium (below). The stadium renovation also includes creating a large enclosed club area beside the President’s box with a 600-person capacity. Current Tiger Den members will have the option to buy into the new club area or find seating in other parts of the stadium. The IPTAY and Trustee boxes opposite these suites will also be renovated to make them more functional for meetings and other events. Additionally the concourses for the other suites will be enclosed and made climate-controlled.
• The Final design for the Littlejohn renovation has rotated the court 90-degrees and removed the tunnel to create new club areas overlooking the court. This renovation also creates more space in the concourse and will reduce the number of seats to approximately 8800 to allow for larger and more comfortable 20”-21” wide seats. Student seating will still be available below the club box and alongside the pep band.

- Future plans are being made to potentially move the football operations facility from its current location at the West-end of Memorial Stadium to the area adjacent to the football practice site. There are also plans to create a new field complex for the soccer teams within the forested area adjacent the Rowing facility. The AD assured the members of the Council that while these plans are both several years away, they will not be undertaken in any way that would diminish the natural beauty of this corner of campus.
- When asked for questions, the topic of instituting an athletic fee that would go to the Athletic Department as part of students’ regular tuition was brought up. In response to this, the AD stated that he would support this motion as Clemson is the only ACC School that does not charge an Athletics fee and Clemson students have great pride in being “Tigers.”

Upcoming Events:
- Due to conflict with fall break the November meeting has been cancelled. The next Athletic Council’s meeting is December 2, 2014 in room 201 Vickery Hall. If you have any questions or issues you wish the Council to address, please send these to your appropriate representative.
- Committee chairs should meet/communicate with their respective members on relevant topics and be prepared to present a report at the next full Council meeting in December.
- I will also call an executive meeting with the committee chairs prior to the next Council meeting to discuss their relevant topics and other issues facing academics and athletics.

Sincere appreciation is expressed to Tullen Burns for his assistance with this newsletter.
