Chairman McGrath's remarks show evidence of bad fright, and he may well be frightened. But I do not believe he will be able to persuade many Southern Senators and Congressmen to support his anti-Southern candidate, after they fought that candidate's un-American proposals in the recent Special Session.

Any Member of Congress who supports so-called Civil Rights by supporting Truman will be uselessly sacrificing himself with his own people. Senators and Congressmen in the South are elected by their own people—not by Chairman McGrath. They will not be dictated to by a New Engander who has himself bolted the Democratic Party by violating its basic principles of States' Rights.
