Governor J. Strom Thurmond and Mrs. Thurmond will entertain South Carolina press and radio representatives and their wives and guests Friday and Saturday, January 6th and 7th, at buffet luncheons to be followed by the annual pre-legislative conferences, the Governor's office announced today.

Daily newspaper editors and publishers and radio station owners and managers will gather at the Governor's Mansion for luncheon at 1 P.M. Friday, and weekly newspaper editors and publishers will meet at 1 P.M. Saturday. On both days, luncheon will be followed by round table discussions of current legislative questions.

The legislative conferences have been an annual custom with Governor Thurmond since his inauguration in 1947.
