Governor J. Strom Thurmond announced today he has appointed J. Russell Williams, Jr., formerly Clerk of Court of Berkeley County, to the Board of Directors of the South Carolina Public Service Authority, to succeed W. L. Rhodes, of Estill, who has resigned.

Calvitt Clarke, of Moncks Corner, has been appointed by Governor Thurmond to succeed Mr. Williams as Clerk of Court of Berkeley. Mr. Clarke has resigned as Superintendent of Education to accept the position.

A successor to Mr. Clarke in the latter post will be elected by the State Board of Education at its next meeting, Governor Thurmond said.
