STATEMENT BY J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA, GREETING DELEGATES TO THE AMERICAN BRAHMAN CENTENNIAL, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA. September 8, 1949.

In behalf of the State of South Carolina, it is a pleasure to extend heartiest greetings and most cordial good wishes, both to visitors from other States and to our own South Carolina cattlemen attending the American Brahman Centennial at Charleston.

I know that many good things await you during the Centennial celebration, and you may be assured that everything possible will be done to make your stay in South Carolina a pleasant and profitable occasion.

It is our hope that the American Brahman Centennial will serve to highlight the tremendous growth and progress of the cattle industry in the United States, not only among Brahman breeders, but in every other great breed. By your very presence, you have demonstrated the kind of interest which is necessary for progress, and for this you are to be congratulated.

The people of South Carolina are most happy to join with you in the interest of further progress in the great cattle industry.

Cordially,

J. Strom Thurmond
Governor
