Concerning Resolution of the City Council of Greenville, S.C., Decontrolling Rents in Greenville Area

Strom Thurmond

Follow this and additional works at: https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyright law (Title 17, U.S. code). Use of these materials beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law.

For additional rights information, please contact Kirstin O'Keefe (kokeefe [at] clemson [dot] edu)

For additional information about the collections, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

Recommended Citation
Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100. 685.
https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom/685

For additional information about the collection, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at TigerPrints. It has been accepted for inclusion in Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100 by an authorized administrator of TigerPrints. For more information, please contact kokeefe@clemson.edu.
I am informed that the United States Supreme Court will hear a test case on the authority of the city to decontrol rents at the October term, and I have decided to take no action on this matter until that case has been determined.

If I should approve the rent decontrol resolution and later the Supreme Court should hold the rent decontrol statute unconstitutional, I can visualize that a great deal of confusion would exist. In view of this, it appears that it would be the part of wisdom to await the decision of the Supreme Court, especially since the case will be heard within several weeks.