9-7-1949

Statement for Special Travel Issue of The Chicago Tribune

Strom Thurmond

Follow this and additional works at: https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyright law (Title 17, U.S. code). Use of these materials beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law.

For additional rights information, please contact Kirstin O'Keefe (kokeefe [at] clemson [dot] edu)

For additional information about the collections, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

Recommended Citation
Thurmond, Strom, "Statement for Special Travel Issue of The Chicago Tribune" (1949). Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100. 736. https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom/736

For additional information about the collection, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at TigerPrints. It has been accepted for inclusion in Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100 by an authorized administrator of TigerPrints. For more information, please contact kokeefe@clemson.edu.
TO THE PEOPLE OF THE GREAT MID-WEST:

The traditional hospitality of the Old South is mingled with the friendly, progressive spirit of the New South in the welcome that awaits you in South Carolina. We most cordially invite you to spend part or all of your winter vacation in our State.

Whether you choose to visit the scenic mountains of our upper region, the rolling green hills of our central section, or the moss-hung natural shrines of our seacoast, your stay is certain to be rewarding and pleasant.

South Carolina enjoys a rapidly growing reputation as a recreation center second to none the world over.

Our numerous lakes and streams afford plentiful fishing, and our extensive forested areas abound in wild game. State park developments and beautiful beaches offer tempting and restful playgrounds. In addition, visitors never forget our famous historic shrines, ancient and beautiful gardens, and ante-bellum homes.

We most cordially invite you to visit our State this winter, and we promise a hospitable welcome.