3-24-1950

American Legion Junior Baseball program

Strom Thurmond

Follow this and additional works at: https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyright law (Title 17, U.S. code). Use of these materials beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law.

For additional rights information, please contact Kirstin O'Keefe (kokeefe [at] clemson [dot] edu)

For additional information about the collections, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

Recommended Citation
Thurmond, Strom, 'American Legion Junior Baseball program' (1950). Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100. 848. https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom/848

For additional information about the collection, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at TigerPrints. It has been accepted for inclusion in Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100 by an authorized administrator of TigerPrints. For more information, please contact kokeefe@clemson.edu.
March 24, 1950

Commander George N. Craig
The American Legion
Indianapolis 6, Indiana

Dear Commander Craig:

The growing success of the American Legion Junior Baseball program should be an inspiration to any American who realizes the importance of assisting our youngsters to find wholesome outlets for their energies.

As every red-blooded American boy knows, there is a thrill in playing baseball which few other boyhood activities can provide. Baseball gives the growing youth a chance to learn the valuable lessons of teamwork, while at the same time he is "on his own" for a good part of the time, and must learn to have faith in himself.

The American Legion Junior Baseball program gives our boys an opportunity to play on a real team, thus fulfilling a desire which is dear to the hearts of most boys. I am confident that our South Carolina youngsters will take full advantage of this fine opportunity during the summer of 1950.

With best wishes for an even greater success this year than the Junior Baseball program has ever enjoyed, and with kindest regards,

Very truly,

J. Strom Thurmond
Governor

JST:mkg