- At the request of the Board, the Committee developed a Vendor Expo Survey in July. The survey was distributed to the email addresses provided, but only 3 vendors responded. - The Committee received 15 requests for individual conference evaluation results, all of which were sent by August 2017.
• In August, a final report of the conference evaluation results was provided for the NASIG Newsletter. A separate confidential report with a confidential link to the raw survey data was sent to the Executive Board, as well as the chairs of the Conference Planning Committee, Continuing Education Committee, and Program Planning Committee.
• In September, a survey was developed to evaluate the members’ opinion on the usefulness of the UKSG e-Newsletter. A report was sent to the Board in early October.
• In January 2018, Michael Fernandez will assume the position of chair. As of this report, no vice-chair has been named.

Christine Radcliff (Texas A&M University-Kingsville)
Alice Rhoades (Rice University)
Kathryn Wesley (Clemson University)

Continuing Activities

• Revise the MSC Manual to reflect the merger of Membership Development and Database & Directory Committees.
• Regular monthly activities include: running new member, non-renewing, and deactivate reports (done by co-chair). Work is distributed amongst committee members and includes: 1) sending new member reports monthly to Communications Committee and Newsletter, and an edited report (names and emails only) of new members to NISO contact; 2) sending welcome letters to all new members; 3) sending non-renewing members a reminder to renew their membership, and 4) deactivating members who have not renewed two months past last expiration, and sending those reports to Communications for removal from NASIG-L.
• The committee co-chairs respond regularly to member login problems and renewal questions, update member organizational affiliations or other member information when needed.
• Members communicate any NASIG web issues they have encountered and we forward to the NASIG web committee. This relates indirectly to the first critical success factor of Strategic direction #1: “The web pages will be updated and revised to highlight important content, be easier to navigate...” as a good web experience is an important marketing component.
• Clean-up projects:
  - Organizational affiliations were updated based on information received from the treasurer. However, previous years’ organizational designees were still reflected in the database and coding within the member and organizational records have been inconsistent, making cleaning out the ‘old’ a more complicated process than expected. Wesley is recording that information and will review it with the MSC co-chairs in early 2018. We will need to review processes with the treasurer to ensure information is properly captured each year, and the manual will be updated accordingly.

- Duplicate member records: Duplicates, created when a member let their membership lapse and then re-joined, often have invoices attached to both old and new records. Merging the records wasn’t possible. Copying old information to notes on the new record (or vice versa) would make that information invisible to the member and deleting the old record removes the member history for that time. After consulting with Hanson and Ireland, we agreed to leave duplicate records as is until we have further clarification from AMO. At a conference call on January 24, we learned that a merge feature will be available soon.

- Duplicate organizations clean-up: Questions related to inconsistent organization types halted any work on this project until after the January conference call with support at AMO. The chairs will need to work with the treasurer to determine the best option for dealing with these and may need to have an additional call with AMO.

Completed Activities

- Membership dues types were updated in November.
- Organizational affiliations were updated based on information received from the treasurer. (See additional information under clean-up projects above regarding this.)
- All of the database clean-up projects, both ongoing and completed, support the first key action of Strategic direction #3: “Improve long-term record-keeping...” We work closely with the Treasurer to improve and clean up the membership database while updating the manual for the next volunteer committee members.

Budget

No expenses expected.

Statistical Information

Member numbers as of January 23, 2018
Total –678
Regular – 458
Organizational - 35
Lifetime – 2
Library school student – 176
Complimentary – 7

Questions for Board

Membership Services needs some clarification from the Board of the definition of Organizational Member. Is an Organizational Member those individuals designated by their organization (up to 3 per organization membership) or is this something else? These need to be defined clearly in both the Treasurer’s manual and the MSC manual.

Continuing Activities

- Strategic direction # 2: NASIG will expand student outreach and mentoring.
Mentoring Group continues to collaborate with the Student Outreach Committee in regards to the Student Mentoring pilot program.

Mentoring Group will start the planning process for the “First-Timer” mentoring program. Announcement about the program goes out a month before the conference.

Completed Activities

- Strategic direction #2: NASIG will expand student outreach and mentoring.
- A mentoring program was developed and currently is active.

Questions for Board

A charge of the Mentoring Program is to organize the mentor/mentee program for “First-Timers.”

- Will NASIG still host this event for the 2018 conference?
- Will there be a reception?

There was a challenge obtaining mentors for the student program not sure, if this will be an issue for the “First-Timer” mentoring program.

Recommendations to Board

The Mentoring Group and the Student Outreach Committee (SOC) collaborated to create the NASIG Student Mentoring Program. Would the Board consider investigating merging these two committees together if this program continues and create a subcommittee to organize the “First-Timers” mentoring program. Or investigate making the Student Mentoring Program the sole committee responsible for organizing the student mentoring program. To ease workload add additional members.

NASIG STUDENT MENTORING PILOT PROGRAM MID-YEAR REPORT
Submitted 1/15/18 by the Student Mentoring Program Subcommittee

Katy Divittorio, Chair: (University of Colorado Denver)
Kimberly Lawler, member (University of Colorado Boulder)
Sandy Folsom, member (Park Library & Clarke Historical Library, Central Michigan University)
Celia Gavett, member (University at Buffalo MLIS student and 2017 NASIG Fritz Schwartz Serials Education Scholarship Winner)
Trina Holloway, member (Georgia State University Law Library)
Stephanie Miller, member (San Francisco Theological Seminary Library, Graduate Theological Union)
Shannon Regan, member (New York Public Library)

Background

In summer 2015 the NASIG Membership Committee recommended to the Board to offer free student membership. The Board approved and we quickly saw student membership jump to over 400+ student members. In spring 2016 the Board asked the Student Outreach Committee (SOC) to conduct a survey of new student members. This report indicated that student members are looking for networking & professional development opportunities. Over 50% of respondents responded that they wish NASIG offered a formal mentoring program. In result the SOC collaborated with the Mentoring Group to create a formal mentoring program for students. The Student Mentoring Program was approved by the Board in the fall of 2016 and a Subcommittee formed of members from SOC & the Mentoring Group was created. A call went out for mentors and mentees in the spring of 2017.

Goals of Program

- Provide an opportunity for student members to get involved with NASIG and connect with and learn from professionals in the Serials & EResources field.
- Provide an opportunity for mentors to give back and help student members grow in the field while at the same time learning from their mentee(s).
• Retain student members who may then become regular members.

Participants
We received 16 mentee applications and 14 mentor applications. Only current student NASIG Members in good standing are allowed to participate as mentees. Any current NASIG Members in good standing can serve as a mentor. Mentors have the option of mentoring 1 or 2 mentees. All applicants were accepted, however one mentor and a few mentees dropped at the last minute resulting in 26 total participants. Mentoring participants came from 13 states and 2 from Canada. Mentors were mostly from academic libraries with a few from the public and private sector. Mentees came from 8 different library schools.

Activities

Orientation
The NASIG Student Mentoring Program officially commenced on June 8th, 2017 in Indianapolis, IN at the Annual NASIG Conference with a formal orientation. In addition to official members of the program there were several conference attendees who were interested in participating in future years and wanted to learn more about the program in attendance. The orientation went over details of the program, expectations for participants, tips on how to build a successful mentoring partnership, how to proceed if problems arise, NASIG resources for student members, and time for networking. Some participants were not able to attend in person, so a recording was sent to them to view on their own.

Monthly Questions
Following the orientation mentees & mentors were emailed monthly questions to facilitate conversations between them. The questions are optional, but provide a jumping point for mentors & mentees to start connecting. One example of a question is: “Will the skills and knowledge needed to be a librarian change significantly in the next 5-10 years? Why or why not?”

Mid-Program Virtual Session
On November 3, 2017 a mid-program virtual session was held for participants. It consisted of two presentations. The first was by NASIG award winners Kimberly DeRosa & Melissa Cantrell, both recent library school graduates. Kimberly & Melissa presented a toolkit for library and information studies students on the latest developments in the field and how they can develop their leadership skills. The second presentation was by Sarah Sutton, a longtime NASIG member, and assistant professor at Emporia State University on core competencies for E-Resources Librarians.

Mid-Program Survey
In order to assess how the program is going and help determine its future direction a survey was sent out after the virtual mid-program session. To encourage participation a $50 Amazon gift card was offered in a random prize drawing. Out of 26 participants we had 18 respondents (69% response rate). Survey results are below (Appendix A), but some highlights include:

• Most participants found the orientation at the beginning of the program moderately or extremely useful. The chance to meet with their mentor/mentee and having the program outlined was highlighted by participants.
• All participants answering the survey feel the monthly questions have been a good way to stay in contact with their mentor/mentee.
• Participants felt that the mid-program session was less useful than the orientation and there were some comments about the relevance of the topics & lack of interaction of the mid-program session.
• All participants answering the survey would recommend the mentoring program to others.

Recommendations & Next Steps
Based on participants feedback so far the Subcommittee recommends continuing this program, which the following changes.

• Have a separate live online orientation. The recording of the in-person took over a month to get to participants who could not attend in-person.

- The mid-program session should be more interactive allowing mentors/mentees to connect in that environment and consider surveying the group at the beginning of the program to determine what topics they would like to hear in this session.
- SOC run the program instead of a Subcommittee. SOC has more committee members and can handle this workload compared to the Mentoring Group who only has 3 members and whose workload is already heavy due to hosting the First-Timer’s Reception. There would be better continuity of operations having the program under one committee, SOC.

Continuing Activities

- The committee is currently receiving candidate references; all references are due to the committee by February 2. The committee will have a conference call the following week to review the references and set the slate.

Completed Activities

- In a November conference call, the committee reviewed all nominees received during the “Call for Nominees” period.
- Committee members reached out to all nominees to determine if they were willing to be screened for the office(s) for which they were nominated.
- In consultation with the NASIG Board liaison to the committee, the committee leadership worked to identify additional individuals who might be willing to be screened for the office of Vice President/President Elect. Through phone calls and email conversations, the committee leadership found another viable candidate for the office who was willing to be screened for Vice President/President Elect in addition to the individual’s pre-existing Member At Large nomination.
- The committee chair received all materials required from candidates who agreed to be screened for a NASIG office and shared them with all committee members via cloud-based committee folders.
- The committee chair created an online form that the committee members could use to submit their evaluations of the candidates being screened for NASIG offices.
- Committee members reviewed candidate materials and submitted their evaluations.
- In a January conference call, the committee reviewed their assessments of candidates and determined which candidates to screen for which offices. The committee discussed the past practices and committee guidelines for contacting references as the committee has some discretion in determining when references are needed. The committee decided to be consistent across all nominees for a given office.
- The committee chair developed an online form through which references could be submitted.
- Two committee members reached out to all references requesting that they use the online form to submit a reference.

Questions for Board

There are no N&E documented committee guidelines or practices that touch on diversity of the NASIG Board, including institutional or organizational diversity of the Board officers. Anecdotally, the current committee thinks that it has been past practice to build a slate of nominees with varied work experiences to better represent the full NASIG membership whenever possible. This year’s nominee pool only included a single individual not currently working in an academic library, and that individual declined to be screened for nomination. Committee discussion has raised the question of how to increase diversity in the nominee pool going forward but has not reached any conclusions.

Committee discussion has also touched on the question of how to evaluate nominees for Board positions in terms of their comparative experience, either professionally or within the organization. Are long-standing NASIG members with deep committee experience inherently more suited to a Board position than relative newcomers to the organization?

In different years, the then-current N&E committee may internally address these or other related questions in different ways. Does the Board feel that any committee practices concerning the development of the nominee pool or evaluation of individuals should be clarified somehow? If so, we would appreciate guidance and input on that topic.

Vision Speakers
The Program Planning Committee has lined up three vision speakers for NASIG 2018 Conference and they include: Sören Auer, Lauren Smith, and Lisa Macklin.

The opening vision speaker, Dr Sören Auer was just recently appointed as professor for Data Science and Digital Libraries at Leibniz University of Hannover and director of TIB German National Library of Science and Technology. Sören is co-founder of high-impact research and community projects such as the Wikipedia semantification project DBpedia, the OpenCourseWare authoring platform SlideWiki.org or the spatial data integration platform LinkedGeoData. He serves as an expert for industry, the European Commission, the W3C and board member of the Open Knowledge Foundation.

On the second day of the main conference, the PPC has scheduled a talk by Lauren Smith is a Research Associate at the University of Strathclyde in Glasgow. She co-founded Voices for the Library, a UK-wide public libraries advocacy organization, and she is involved in the Radical Librarians Collective. Her research focuses on: political information behavior, political participation and citizenship; information/news/media/digital literacy; critical approaches to education and librarianship; social justice, access, equity and inclusion in education and information.

The closing vision speaker will be Lisa Macklin, JD, MLS is the Director of Scholarly Communications Office, Library and Information Technology Services at Emory University. Lisa collaborated with the Library Policy Committee and the Center for Faculty Development and Excellence in Open Access Conversations at Emory. In March 2011, the Faculty Council endorsed an Open Access Policy that led to the creation of OpenEmory, a repository of Emory faculty-authored articles. In addition, an Open Access Publishing Fund was launched with OpenEmory, and provides funds to make it easier for Emory authors to publish in eligible open-access (OA) journals and books when no alternative funding is available. Lisa will continue working with faculty advisors as the Libraries implement these and other OA initiatives.

Call for Proposals
The PPC had the call for proposal open for two months, from September 18, 2017 until November 15th. We received an outstanding number of proposals, 64 total and the PPC has finished reviewing the proposals and accepting 29. Session #30 in the program will feature the Dean of Libraries at Georgia State University, Jeff Steely.

Pre-Conferences
The PPC discussed five possible pre-conferences that will cover the topics of Linked Data, MarcEdit, EZproxy, and Serials cataloging. We have confirmed four pre-conferences and the current schedule is as follow:

- Day one:
  - A Beginner’s Guide to MarcEdit 7 - Speaker: Terry Reese - full day
  - Linked Data for Serials - Speakers: Amber Billey and Robert Rendall - full day

- Second day:
  - Beyond “Set it and Forget it”: Proactively Managing Your EZproxy Server - Speaker: Jenny Rosenfeld - half day
  - Introduction to Serials Cataloging with RDA - Speaker: Steven Shadle - full day

Questions for Board

1. When is the Registration deadline?
2. Can you tell us about the survey monkey account for the final evaluation of the conference that we need to update?
3. Can you confirm which day you want to have the Vendor Lightning Talks? Please advise on the coordination about the Vendor Lightning Talks.
4. Student Snapshot Sessions - Please let us know so we can plan on how best to fit everything in the schedule.
5. Do we have a NASIG Sched account or should we create the schedule from my own Sched account? Is there some payment involved with Sched that we need to be aware of?
6. We have two international speakers that will need reimbursement and hotel arrangement made directly by NASIG - who will do that?
7. Please clarify when the Program Chair and the Vice-Chair need to be in Atlanta.

Continuing Activities

The Standards Committee continues to cast the official NASIG vote on the monthly NISO ballots we receive as a benefit of our membership in NISO (http://www.niso.org/standards/ballots). NASIG is currently a member of the following NISO voting pools:

- ANSI/NISO Z39.78 (Library Binding)
- ANSI/NISO Z39.88 (OpenURL Framework)
- ANSI/NISO Z39.43 (Standard Address Number (SAN) for the Publishing Industry)
- ANSI/NISO Z39.84 (Syntax for the Digital Object Identifier)

The NISO voting workflow is now being managed by Christina Geuther, with Emily Ray as the back-up. At present there are three issues up for vote in January. The committee continues to review the standards and share opinions via email before votes. This committee’s work contributes to the NASIG mission to “promote the development and implementation of best practices and standards for the distribution, acquisition and long-term accessibility of information resources in all formats and business models throughout their lifecycle.”

Completed Activities

Christina and Emily have cast votes for 15 ballots in the latest quarter. The committee approved seven drafts and five standards, usually these are to confirm an existing standard after review. Two appointments to NISO committees were approved and one project—to set up a committee to review ISO 690, Information and documentation - Guidelines for bibliographic references and citations to information resources.

Committee member Deberah England attended a NISO webinar related to authentication issues and has submitted a column for the March Newsletter summarizing the content for the NASIG membership.

Continuing Activities

SOC will continue to work with PPC on the student spotlight sessions to be held at the annual conference. Currently SOC is confirming the timeline of tasks/actions for 2018 with PPC.

SOC will continue to work with the Student Mentoring Subcommittee for feedback and assessment of the pilot mentoring program.

SOC members and ambassadors will continue to reach out to various library and information schools on an ongoing basis to make sure they know about NASIG conference, scholarship, and mentorship opportunities.

Completed Activities

SOC reviewed and discussed the NASIG Strategic Plan for 2017-2021. Feedback and questions were submitted to Adolfo to give to the board.

SOC members and ambassadors reached out to various library and information schools at the end of November/early December to notify them about the NASIG Annual Conference Awards for the 2018 conference, general information about NASIG, and about student membership opportunities in NASIG.

Budget

The budget for the SOC is $50 covering the printing of the SOC handout. The SOC handout is used at the NASIG annual meeting and other events to recruit ambassadors.

Questions for the Board

For treasurer – does SOC have $50 left in the budget for the creation of the SOC handout?

For clarification, draft documents from 2017 indicate the student sessions at the annual conference are called snapshot sessions, however the NASIG website/timeline documentation indicates these sessions are titled spotlight sessions. What is the correct title of these student sessions at the conference?

What is the amount of time allotted for each student session? In the proposal it says 10 minutes, but the NASIG website/timeline document says 5 minutes.

In the recommendation to the board document of adding the student sessions to the annual conference, the first workload task says: SOC will recruit sponsors for student travel and/or accommodation to the conference. Does SOC need to do this or does this interfere with other NASIG committees doing the same work? Does SOC need to collaborate with other NASIG committees to work on this?

Digital Preservation Task Force

Members

Shannon Keller, chair (New York Public Library)
James Phillpotts, member (Oxford University Press)
Wendy Robertson, member (University of Iowa)
Heather Staines, member (hypothes.is)
Zach Van Stanley, member (University of Denver)
Ted Westervelt, board liaison (Library of Congress)

(Liz Kupke stepped down from the task force in January 2018).
Continuing Activities

Most significantly, the task force is focusing on the development of three guides:

1. Digital Preservation 101
2. Guide to the Keeper’s Registry
3. Questions to ask Publisher about Digital Preservation

The task force’s intention with these three documents is to make them available via the NASIG website and market them to informational professionals, especially new professionals in the field, to raise awareness regarding digital preservation initiatives. Currently, the task force has shared the draft guides with internal and external colleagues for feedback on the content. Shannon contacted the Communications Committee about using a cohesive style for the guides that includes NASIG Branding. The task force meets on Friday, February 9 to discuss the feedback received thus far, and make any changes. At this point the task force will share the guides with the Board for their feedback. The goal is to have the guides on the NASIG website in advance of the conference and to discuss them during the Panel Discussion planned for the conference. This is in direct alignment with goals outlined in strategic direction #4.

Secondly, the task force is in the early stages of developing a survey, intent on seeking insight from informational professionals to help the task force focus on this section of its charge: "identify ways in which NASIG can be involved in proactive digital preservation, including tools for marketing digital preservation to a broad range of library administrations and publishers." These actions are in alignment with both strategic directions #4 and #5. We endeavor that the survey will provide insight into how NASIG can serve its members, building new and strengthening existing relationships with its commercial members, in proactive digital preservation and provide leadership to the scholarly community with regard to digital preservation initiatives through conference sessions, webinars, and documentation.
