STATEMENT BY J. STROM THURMOND, IN CONNECTION WITH THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY HELD ON JULY 11, 1950.

These are critical times which confront our country, both at home and abroad. I congratulate Senator Johnston on his nomination to the Senate in yesterday's primary, and I wish for him success in helping solve the serious and difficult problems which will come before him as a member of the Senate during the next six years. I wish to thank my many friends in every county who stood with us yesterday. No candidate and no cause ever had a more loyal band of supporters. Against great odds you waged a good fight and I hope to see and thank each one of you personally in the near future.
