

EXECUTIVE OFFICES

STATE CAPITOL

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

Miss Eetsy Barbara Thomas of Spartanburg has been appointed by Governor J. Strom Thurmond to be "Princess of South Carolina", representing the state at the third annual National Seafood Festival in Hampton, Virginia, September 14-16.

The 20 year-old Converse College senior will take part in all events during the gala three-day festival for which thousands, including nationally-known dignitaries, are expected.

Included on the festival program are two dances, a coronation of the festival queen, several luncheons and banquets, a festive parade, and a Seafood Bowl football game.