The "Singspiration" rallies such as those being sponsored by the Billy Graham Men's Club in Columbia will do much to help the youth of our city and State. The fellowship provided will bless and encourage Christians from the various churches, and the Gospel in music and message should surely enable some others to know Christ who do not as yet know Him. I trust that the people of Columbia will cooperate in these rallies, and that from the very start they will be attended by many citizens of Columbia and South Carolina.
