Friends and colleagues, spring is upon us and with that comes news of publications, presentations, and an award I'd like to highlight:

JaEun Jemma Ku, PhD and Internet Applications Systems Specialist at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign recently presented "Game Accessibility Guidelines and WCAG 2.0 – a Gap Analysis" at the ICCHP (International Conference on Computers Helping People with Special needs) conference. This presentation will also be published in the Lecture Notes in Computer Science (LNCS) series by Springer.

JaEun Jemma Ku also presented "Designing for Accessibility: Changing Users' Mental Models" at the University of Illinois Web Conference, April 2018, and "A11yFirst for CKEditor: Supporting Accessible Web Authoring" at the California State University – Northridge Assistive Technology Conference, March 2018.

Meanwhile, Tessa Minchew, Electronic Resources Librarian at North Carolina State University Libraries won the Birdie MacLennan Award!

Tessa also co-presented with Kate Hill at ER&L: "Into the Great Wide Open: Licensing, Vendor Relations, and Data Security during 'Interesting Times'"
