Maybank Vote For President

Strom Thurmond

Follow this and additional works at: https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyright law (Title 17, U.S. code). Use of these materials beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law.

For additional rights information, please contact Kirstin O'Keefe (kokeefe [at] clemson [dot] edu)

For additional information about the collections, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

Recommended Citation
Thurmond, Strom, "Maybank Vote For President" (1950). Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100. 952.
https://tigerprints.clemson.edu/strom/952

For additional information about the collection, please contact the Special Collections and Archives by phone at 864.656.3031 or via email at cuscl [at] clemson [dot] edu

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscript Collections at TigerPrints. It has been accepted for inclusion in Strom Thurmond Collection, Mss100 by an authorized administrator of TigerPrints. For more information, please contact kokeefe@clemson.edu.
I don't care what the newspapers say or what my opponent claims Senator Maybank said.

I know from talking with Senator Maybank after the election in 1948 that he did not violate his candidate's oath to support the candidates of the Democratic Party of South Carolina, and I resent my opponent's implication that he did.

I also know that when the national Democratic committee refused to seat Mrs. Agnew and wanted Senator Maybank to take his seat on the committee, he refused to do so and stated that he took his orders from the State Executive Committee of the Democratic Party of South Carolina.

He went further and told the 1950 state convention that when the principles of the Democratic Party of South Carolina were at stake they knew where he would stand, and my opponent was there and heard him.