ADDRESS BY J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXTENDING CHRISTMAS GREETINGS ON
"PIEDMONT FARM HOUR," RADIO STATION WSPA, SPARTANBURG, SOUTH CAROLINA, DECEMBER 25, 1950.

MY FELLOW SOUTH CAROLINIANS:

Once again we have reached the season/men have dedicated to the memory of the Christ Child/who became the Prince of Peace. And once again, part of our world is torn by the miseries of war.

At this Christmastime, let us not lose hope/for the fulfillment of the promise of peace/made by the gentle Gallilean, who gave His life/that men might live as brothers in harmony. Let us remember that man's desire for "peace on earth, good will toward men"/has out-lived all wars.

In the abiding faith that our deep need for permanent peace/shall one day be a reality, I want to extend to each and every one of you/my heartfelt good wishes/for your happiness at this joyful time of the year.
