

NASIG NEWSLETTER

Vol. 33, no. 4

December 2018

eISSN 1542-3417

Call for Applicants for 2019 NASIG Grants, Awards and Scholarships

NASIG is pleased to announce the beginning of the application cycle for its 2019 grants, awards, and scholarships to be awarded at the 34rd Annual Conference being held in Pittsburgh, PA. June 5-8, 2018.

A separate call will go out shortly for a new award, sponsored by Harrassowitz, for a first-time NASIG attendee from a diverse background.

PROFESSIONAL/PARAPROFESSIONAL AWARDS

Birdie MacLennan Award

An award for a mid-career professional, covering conference registration, three nights lodging, and travel costs within North America.

Capstone Award

A $1500 award to recognize a professional who has made significant and distinguished contributions to the field of information resource management.

First-Timer Award

An award for an information resources management professional or paraprofessional who has not attended a NASIG conference, covering costs of registration, three nights lodging, and travel within North America.

Horizon Award

Award for a promising new information resources management professional, covering cost of conference registration, three nights lodging, and travel within North America. Recipients will also be invited to serve on a NASIG committee.

Marcia Tuttle International Grant

A $3,000 grant for an individual working in the information supply chain to fund appropriate activities in fostering international communication and education.

Paraprofessional Specialist Award

Awards for promising paraprofessionals, covering cost of conference registration, three nights lodging, and travel within North America.

Rose Robischon Scholarship

A scholarship awarded to an information resource management professional lacking funds for travel. The scholarship covers the cost of conference registration, three nights lodging, and travel within North America.

CODE OCEAN

Standardize your research environment for collaborations.

Code Ocean is an online platform that enables students and researchers to share scientific code in a centralized, discoverable space.

Learn more at www.codeocean.com

STUDENT AWARDS

John Riddick Student Grant

Grants for qualifying students to attend the NASIG annual conference, covering cost of registration, three nights lodging, and travel within North America.

Fritz Schwartz Education Scholarship

A $3,000 scholarship and conference travel grant for a graduate student demonstrating excellence in scholarship and the potential for accomplishments in an information resource management career.

Mexican Student Grant – January 15, 2019

This grant serves as assistance to a Mexican student of Library Science or Information Science, who wants to learn and develop professionally in the area of serial publications.

The application deadline for the awards listed above is February 8, 2018 except the Mexican Student Grant, which is due January 15, 2019.

NASIG is an independent organization working to advance and transform the management of information resources. Our ultimate goal is to facilitate and improve the distribution, acquisition, and long-term accessibility of information resources in all formats and business models. Visit <http://www.nasig.org/> for more information.