STATEMENT BY J. STROM THURMOND, GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXTENDING SEASONS GREETINGS TO SOUTH CAROLINA AT CHRISTMASTIME, DECEMBER 25, 1950.

Once again we have reached the season men have dedicated to the memory of the Christ Child who became the Prince of Peace. And once again, part of our world is torn by the miseries of war.

At this Christmastime, let us not lose hope for the fulfillment of the promise of peace made by the gentle Gallilean, who gave His life that men might live as brothers in harmony. Let us remember that man's desire for "peace on earth, good will toward men" has out-lived all wars.

In the abiding faith that our deep need for permanent peace shall one day be a reality, I want to extend to each and every one of you my heartfelt good wishes for your happiness at this joyful time of the year.
