A PROCLAMATION
(June Dairy Month)

WHEREAS, this state is always profoundly interested in the health and strength of its citizens and in its economic welfare; and

WHEREAS, milk is recognized of vital and increasing importance to universal well-being; and

WHEREAS, the preservation and improvement of the vast American dairy industry are of interest to all Americans as a matter of practical living, and indirectly are of priceless interest to the peoples of the whole world; and

WHEREAS, the American dairy industry annually sets aside the month of June as a period in which the health and life-giving values of milk and dairy products may be emphasized.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. Strom Thurmond, Governor of the State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim the period of June 1950 as JUNE DAIRY MONTH for the State of South Carolina, and do urge civic business associations to cooperate in its observance, both in public and in private, in order to increase our appreciation of milk and dairy products, to the end that our health may be improved, our financial well-being increased.

Given under my hand and seal this 1st day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty.

J. Strom Thurmond, Governor
