Governor J. Strom Thurmond said today that he and Mrs. Thurmond are planning an informal family reception for all their kin folks from both of their families, at the Governor's Mansion Sunday, December 7, from 3 to 5 P.M.

The Governor said he was anxious that the "word be passed along" to all of his and Mrs. Thurmond's relatives, since he does not have correct addresses of them all. No written invitations are being sent, he said, and the occasion will be an informal family get-together.
