Three Prominent Engineers Are Taken Into Local Chapter of Honor Frat

SWENEY SPEAKS

Ending a three-week pledge period, the local chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity, formally initiated three outstanding upperclassmen into the group Friday, April 19. The new men are W. M. Rodgers, E. S. Giles, and T. M. Rickards, all in the upper 25 percent of their class.

W. M. Rodgers of Greenwood, is majoring in mechanical engineering. His work has been exhibited in the New York Municipal Art Show in early May.

E. S. Giles, also of Greenwood, is majoring in electrical engineering, and is a supply sergeant.

T. M. Rickards of W. Palm Beach, Fla., is assistant business manager of YMAS, is a supply sergeant, and is majoring in mechanical engineering.

Swaney Speaks

After the initiation Friday night, the members enjoyed a banquet at the Fruit House, Starr, S. C. The speaker for the evening was W. P. Swaney, Class of '38, who is at present City Engineer for the City of Anderson.

If it were lettered as the alphabet, the English language could be learned in two weeks, says Dr. P. C. Laubach, international authority.

Chief Executive Appoints A. Davidson To Judge Paintings For New York Exhibit

OTHERS NAMED

Governor Olin E. Johnston of South Carolina this week appointed Abraham Wolfe Davidson, Clemson student sculptor, to the committee of three to inform ten paintings and one piece of sculpture by South Carolina artists to be exhibited in the New York Municipal Art Show in early May.

Davidson's work is to be exhibited in the New York Municipal Art Show in early May.

Swaney is Chairman

Mrs. E. S. Gildersleeve of Charleston was named chairman of the committee and Mr. Robert M. Whitelaw, director of South Carolina's Federal Art Project, was selected for the same membership.

All forty-eight states of the union will exhibit the work of local artists in the same show before May 1. Davidson and his associate will select ten paintings and one piece of sculpture, the limit placed on South Carolina's exhibition by Mr. Woolf Lauterwirth. Artists whose work is chosen in the New York show will assume all responsibility for their work and will not be paid transportation charges.

NEW ROADS

The Palmetto society proposes that a new road be laid to connect Woodruff with High Battery at Gadsden and then into Charleston. This short cut, it is figured, will save motorists about thirty miles between Anderson and York and give the citizens a safer route.

Main Purpose

It is being advocated that with the construction of new highways, that Norfolk, Virginia and Baton Rouge, Louisiana be connected by one simple highway line. While finished this new road will be standard width with the rights-of-way for doubling the width at a later date, on the base of the status. MUSIC ANTHOLOGY IS GIVEN TO CLEMSON

The electrical reproducing equipment is the most efficient science has yet devised and is designed for use in a small auditorium or room of the largest desire. It reproduces accurately the sounds recorded on the phonograph.

The collection of scores corresponding to the records is designed for the use of musicians who desire to follow the music as it is played. A file index is furnished to locate the score.

The complete repertoire will be placed at the disposal of the students and campus people at all times. Plans are to place the anthology in a special room in the library where it can be inspected but kept available at all times.

It is probable that the music will be used for chapel programs and in addition plans are being made for establishment of extra-curricular intercollegiate courses in music appreciation. The unit will also serve considerable service during the summer vacation courses as offered here.

To be truly and really independent in support we must rely on our own resources—Janie Porter.

Even standards of admission to the GDA were announced by the GDA departments.

MOISTURE CONTROL

The most important single attribute of cigarettes, other than the tobacco itself, is moisture content. To its influence we owe the ability to make uniform cigarettes, to control combustion, and to govern quality of smoke. Excessive moisture interferes with proper combustion, and makes cigarette smoke unpalatable. Insufficient moisture permits dry, dusty cigarette smoke to impinge upon the delicate mucous membrane of the smoker.

The Carnegie Gift

Announcement was made here this week of the receiving of a handsome hundred-dollar music anthology from the Carnegie Foundation. Containing over nine hundred records, which include complete operas and symphonies, the collection includes all of the best music recorded by masters of the day, recorded by masters of the day, and mastered by the most ardently devoted students. It is indeed a noble and generous contribution which is of great value and will be available to all at students and campus people.

The Carnegie Foundation is the primary step in the drive to make Carnegie musical-compositional materials available to the students the music of the people. It is no new and unusual accomplishment and is of worthy recognition.

The anthology was secured from the Carnegie Foundation mainly through the efforts of Prof. Clarence Asbill and Dr. E. W. T. Bean. For over a year Prof. Asbill had been stressing the need of cultural facilities at Clemson and urging the Foundation to aid a portion of their funds to the College. The whole-hearted cooperation of Dr. Sikes resulted in the final secured result of the records.

It is significant that one of the men fostering the idea is an engineering professor. It proves the thesis presented in last week's editorial urging the installation of an Artist's Course here. The technical student does not lack interest in cultural subjects, he lacks time to include them in his overburdened schedule.

The much-quoted saying, "in the spring of a young man's fancy lightly stirs in thoughts of love," is quoted quite a bit when our popular baccalaureate and prom dance parties are being planned.

During the spring another popular event in the social circles, which we first reported on last spring, is the prom. This year the students at the University of North Carolina are reported to have spent their proms in an entirely different manner from their predecessors.

The proms this year were not as formal as they have been in the past. The students dressed in more casual attire and danced to rhythm music instead of the traditional slow dance music.

The proms were well attended and the atmosphere was lively and enjoyable.

The Gamecock was in a dither after the banning of the Yellow Shoe by the Carolina authorities. The editor thundered the editorial in a bit of sticking,oplaying the game against Carolina as a fair and just one.

The Gamecock's troops were very fatly on the front page and the entire paper was sprinkled with references to the situation.

After reading the Empty Nester, we fail to understand how the editor can do this without any sense of injustice. There were spots in the area that were really fantastic and easy to enjoy. There is no excuse for crudity; it is that the beauty and romance of the Carolina campus are not being appreciated.

I think the students are not making the most of their opportunities to appreciate the beauty and charm of the Carolina campus.

Golfers Lose To Furman Golfers

The Clemson golfers suffered two reverses last week, the first at Appalachian State last Tuesday, 15 1/2 to 2 1/2, and the second to the Furman golfers on the Boscobel course Tuesday, 15 1/2 to 2 1/2.

Ned Riddle led the individual scorers on the Furman squad, with a score of 41.

Sports Summary

The Tiger baseball and track teams pulled up standing last week; however the golf here did not as well as they dropped both of their matches against Davidson from the end of the column.

This Week

Friday: South Carolina at Clemson (Baseball) - Carolina
Saturday: Furman (Track) - Furman
Monday: Wedford (Baseball) - Wedford
Tuesday: Presbyterian at Clemson (Baseball) - Presbyterian
Birds Swamped By Tiger Team

Taking first places in every event except one, the pole vault, the Tiger tracksters literally walked away with the South Carolina meet at Columbia last Saturday when they gave the University lads a 99 2-3 2 6 1-3 setback.

Bob Carter continued to set the pace, as he accumulated a total of 15 individual points, winning two firsts, one second, and tying for another second. Captain Mac Folger finished ahead in tooth the hurdle events, while McCoy, an unknown, came to the forefront by placing first in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Fiesler Tribble earned nine points with three second places.

McCoy Inspects

Major Frank L. McCoy of Greenville will again serve as inspecting officer and will personally examine officers and R. O. T. C. equipment Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Major McCoy will also quiz men in every phase of their theoretical training both in the classroom and on the drill field.

War Problem

The war-strength company under the command of Lieutenant Col. M. C. Chapman is to present a problem in advance guard action on terrain in the vicinity of the Clemson Golf Course. The unit is composed of platoons from A, H, and K companies under the command of Captains S. M. Orr, O. L. Gurley, and W. B. Yarborough.

High School Boys Meet Here Friday

It is expected that each school will be represented by six boys and one faculty member. All of the schools attending are members of a state-wide High School League, which has sponsored similar contests for three years. The members of the General Committee responsible for the planning of the contest are Prof. Tate, chairman, and Professors Booker, Asbill, Brock, Cartee, Gage, Harris, Klugh, Marshall, Philpot, and Wilson.

Caroline will win the next war, according to Dr. Merrell R. Fenske of Pennsylvania State University.
